INTRODUCTION

THE controversial and catechetical tracts written by Scottish Roman Catholics and issued from foreign presses during the reign of James VI. cannot claim to take rank as classics of the language. They cannot be compared from a literary point of view with the famous catechism set forth by the authority of Archbishop Hamilton in 1552; nor do they possess the idiomatic vigour or historic interest which distinguish the writings of Ninian Winzet, or, in a less degree, of Quintine Kennedy, composed in the heat of the Reformation struggle. Yet these curious tracts cannot be passed over in any complete survey of the Scottish literature of the sixteenth century. When the vernacular literature, in the hands of the dominant ecclesiastical party after 1560, was becoming rapidly Anglicised, mainly under the influence of the English Bible, the remnant of the old Church maintained or affected a certain linguistic conservatism, and made it a point of honour to adhere to their mother tongue. Already, in 1563, Ninian Winzet was sarcastically declaring that he could not understand Knox's southern speech, and that henceforward he must write his mind to him in Latin;¹ and in one of the passages here printed (infra,

p. 105), we have John Hamilton amusingly taunting his theological adversaries as triple traitors, seeing that they not only “knappis suddrone” in their “Negative Confession,” but had had that document printed in London in contempt of their native language.

Yet apart from their linguistic colour these writings have a character and interest of their own. Their authors were men of mark in their own community. Some had held good positions in the Scottish universities, and had suffered persecution, imprisonment, and exile on account of their change of creed. The works of such men, courageous and earnest, command respect, if not also a certain sympathy, which, when theological passions are no longer excited, will naturally be accorded to the weaker or the losing side. Their own sympathies too were not anti-national; but while they attacked with the greatest violence, and with unbridled tongues, established institutions and officials which the mass of their countrymen regarded as most sacred, they arrogated to themselves an exclusive patriotism; and personal disloyalty to their sovereign was a charge which they delighted to throw in the faces of their adversaries. Their outlook upon the events and personages around them is quite peculiar to themselves, and has at least the interest which attaches to what in Scottish literature is exceptional and novel.

Yet on account of the prevailing controversial character and the comparatively slight literary value of a large part of their contents, it appeared to the Council of the Scottish Text Society unnecessary to reproduce all these texts in extenso. It was thought sufficient to print substantial extracts which should give fair examples of the vocabulary, style, and mode of thought of the several authors, and enable the reader to judge of the extent to which the Scottish element in these writings subsisted or declined during the last quarter of the century. In the selection of passages appropriate for this purpose, preference has been given, where possible, to those which contain allusions to contemporary persons and events, or which have any autobiographical interest. All the prefaces and dedicatory epistles have been reproduced in their entirety. The text of Hay's "Demandes," as it is comparatively brief; and the Kalendar¹ prefixed by Adam King to the translation of Canisius's Catechism, on account of its quaintness, are printed in full; and finally some passages from Patrick Anderson's "Ground of the Catholike and Roman Religion" (1623), and Alexander Baillie's "True Information" (1628), are added in an appendix, by way of contrast to the productions of the preceding century.

Before giving any detailed account of the authors, or a description of their several books, a few words may be said in explanation of the historical circumstances out of which they arose.

I.—HISTORICAL INTRODUCTION.

One of the distinguishing features of the religious conflict in Scotland at the moment of the Reformation was the intellectual apathy or helplessness displayed by the natural leaders of the old Church. Archbishop Hamilton and the Provincial Council of 1551 made indeed some show of forethought and energy in the preparation of the Catechism issued in the following year. But the effort came too late, and the preachers promised by the Primate never appeared at all. After the crash of 1560, Hamilton and the bishops played but a poor part. On the political side Queen Mary found loyal support from such men as Leslie, afterwards Bishop of Ross, and Archbishop Beaton, who became her ambassador at Paris; but almost the only theologians to lift up pen or voice in protest against the change of religion were the Abbot of Crosraguel and the Linlithgow schoolmaster.¹ Black, a Dominican friar, was bold enough, in August 1561, to maintain a public conference extending over two days with Willock, a seceder from the same order; and four officials of Aberdeen University held a disputation before the Town Council of Edinburgh; but these have left no literary remains.² The Scottish Jesuits, in a report made to Pope Clement VIII. in 1594, mention, in addition, as worthy champions of their faith, the clerical author of a work on the mass, Sir David "Sewrotius," who, with his name thus obscured in the manuscript, cannot be identified; and another priest, a Sir John Watson, of whose existence Father Stevenson could find no trace.³

was as conspicuous as their lack of intellectual activity. A quite dramatic picture of the contrast between the attitude of these shrinking, timid, and despairing prelates and that of the new men—sanguine, aggressive, and fearless—now springing up elsewhere under the influence of the counter-reformation, is drawn for us unconsciously in the simple but striking narrative of the Jesuit, Nicolas de Gouda, who was sent by the Pope as envoy to Queen Mary in 1562.¹ His comments, too, upon the situation are noteworthy. He finds in the frightened, silent bishops, who “live but for themselves,” no qualifications “requisite for meeting the foe and standing firm in the day of battle.” “There are,” he says, “some Catholic preachers, but they are few in number and such as venture not to moot the questions which are now controverted, or are unable to explain them fittingly.” He attributes the present calamity to “the scandalous and licentious lives of priests and clerics,” and to “the absolutely supine negligence of the bishops.” “No wonder,” he exclaims, “that with such shepherds the wolves invade the flock of the Lord and ruin all!” Among the remedies recommended is the establishment of “some college where good and learned men should be ready to give pious and Catholic instruction to the young who are the hope of the commonwealth.”

That now, or for many years to come, there was no attempt made to reorganise the scattered clergy, or found houses of refuge for the exiles and seminaries for the young, may be in part explained by the want of money at home and the absence of adequate papal aid; for Rome, confronted with revolution, moves slowly. But while De Gouda could effect directly little or nothing for his purpose with the queen or her bishops, we may date from his mission the birth of the new generation of Scottish priests with which we are here concerned—a generation which was eventually to give grounds for alarm and trouble to the reformed Church. Two zealous companions and guides of the envoy were Edmund Hay and William Crichton, who had already, it seems, manifested their intention of becoming Jesuits;¹ and when Hay followed De Gouda back to the Continent he carried with him a band of young men “to be educated as Catholics,” among whom were James Tyrie, John Hay, Robert Abercromby, and William Murdoch, all of whom afterwards entered the same Society — “no contemptible result of our foray into Scotland,” writes De Gouda exultingly.

But years had yet to pass before these children of the counter-reformation were sufficiently matured, or the opportunity could arise, for them to make their mark. At home a period of almost continued civil war was not propitious for any missionary effort; and abroad there was, on the part of Scotland, no such group of able controversialists as there was among the English Catholic exiles, who acted, as it were, in concert and poured vernacular tracts into the country from Louvain and elsewhere, in the early years of Elizabeth. The last Scottish tract of Winzet (if we except his translation of Benoist's Certus Modus) was the “Buke of Four Scoir thre Questions,” published at Antwerp in 1563. A subsequent silence of ten years was broken only by the appearance of Tyrie's “Refutation” (in 1573), and this was occasional and accidental in form, and confined to a particular point of controversy which arose out of Knox's reply to a short private letter written by Tyrie some time before to his brother. Its publication, however, marks a notable date. The great Reformer to whom it is addressed had already died, 24th November 1572, and on the same day Morton succeeded Mar as Regent, bringing with his firm and masterful rule peace and a certain prosperity to the kingdom. On the 29th May following, Edinburgh Castle, the last stronghold of the partisans of Mary, surrendered to the English forces, and her hopes and those of her party were at the lowest. But after five years of Morton's government a reaction set in, and James, now twelve years of age, assumed the reins (1578). The hopes of all Catholics at home and abroad became fixed at once upon the young king, and upon the probability of his becoming reconciled to the Church in which he had been baptized.

The king was presently induced to summon from France his cousin, Esmé Stuart, Lord of Aubigny. Bishop Leslie, writing to the Cardinal of Como, Papal Secretary of State (May 15, 1579) expressed his belief that D'Aubigny, "a man of sound judgment and marked prudence, and a constant upholder of the Catholic religion, would do much to settle the affairs of Scotland."¹ The cardinal, it appears, had already conceived great hopes for the restoration of religion in that country. Leslie got the King of France and the Duke of Guise to expedite the mission of D'Aubigny, and Guise himself significantly accompanied him to the coast. Father Forbes-Leith declares, though he does not give his authority for the statement, that D'Aubigny "came over with the express object of destroying Morton," who was still powerful and an object of fear to his enemies. At all events the king at once made a favourite of his cousin, presented him with the abbacy of Arbroath, created him Earl of Lennox, and, what was of grave importance in case of war, appointed him keeper of Dumbarton Castle. The Presbyterian ministry raised the alarm. Already in July 1579 the General Assembly, with Smeton as moderator, had petitioned the king to prohibit the sending of children to foreign universities "where through the youth of this realme is corrupted by pestilent Poprie," for the reformation of St. Andrews University, and for order to be taken with certain Jesuits presently within the country.¹ And now the conduct of Lennox raised "vehement presumptions that he was a private legate of the pope, the Guisians, and the King of France to work alteration in religion and state." The ministers received secret information that his purpose was (1) to dissolve the amity with England by removing such as were well affected to the same, (2) to procure an association between the young king and his mother in the crown, and (3) to alter the state of religion. To disarm these well-grounded suspicions Lennox publicly proclaimed in St. Giles' his conversion to Presbyterianism, and on July 14, 1580, wrote a letter to the Assembly protesting his due obedience and the sincerity of his conversion.² The clergy seemed still unsatisfied, and to provide a surer "touchstone" John Craig composed his "Negative Confession." On January 28, 1581, the now Duke of Lennox, with the king and his household, signed this characteristic Scottish covenant, which to a believing

Catholic must have appeared to be one of the most blasphemous repudiations of Roman doctrine ever penned. This signature of Lennox is important, as it naturally impressed on the Presbyterian mind the deeply rooted though erroneous belief that he, and others in like circumstances, had obtained a papal dispensation so to act for the better concealment of their designs.¹ Meanwhile, on December 31, 1580, Morton had been arrested, and six months later, June 2, 1581, he was executed. "Delivered from this formidable adversary," writes Father Forbes-Leith, "the friends of Mary Stuart rallied joyfully round James VI. A golden opportunity presented itself for the return to Scotland of the Scottish priests who were then abroad."² But, strange to say, the full advantage of this opportunity was not seized. In the Jesuit Report, already referred to, and quoted by Father Leith, it is said in explanation, that although the number of such priests in Paris alone was considerable—men of high character and of learning who would most gladly have undertaken this mission—yet "some influential persons who measured everything by the dictates of human prudence, fearing that the king might possibly incur danger, decided that the attempt should be postponed until some other opportunity occurred."

In truth no purely missionary enterprise had at this time a chance of success unless it were supported by a strong political movement; and the several political parties which seemed, or pretended to be, zealous either for the conversion of James and his kingdom or for the restoration of his mother to the throne, had their own separate interests to serve. There is, moreover, no probability that James was at any time sincerely inclined to be a Catholic, and he certainly did not desire his mother to be associated with him in the government. The interests of Spain were not identical with those of France, and the Pope could move but little way without acting in concert with other Catholic powers, which were themselves incapable of working in harmony.

The period at which we have arrived, 1580-81, twenty years after the settlement of religion in both countries, is as important a landmark in the history of Scottish, as it is of English, Catholics. The stir among Scottish priests, who were after all surprisingly unprepared for their chances, was making itself felt everywhere. The need of foreign seminaries, like those of Douai and Rome for England, was keenly felt, and tardy efforts were made to establish them. Students flocked to the little seminary of Pont-à-Mousson,¹ and aid was given towards the reconstruction of the Scots College at Paris.² There was a cry for books in the vernacular for distribution among the people, since there was next to nothing of the kind at hand. Four out of the seven books, of which specimens are given in this volume, were the immediate outcome of this crisis, and the prefaces or dedicatory epistles which they contain, addressed to the king and to the captive queen, bear witness to the too sanguine hopes and expectations of the hour. There was on all sides a volunteering of missionaries, ready to risk their lives on the perilous venture; but all such proselytising endeavours were more or less isolated, and initiated by individuals rather than directed on any organised plan, and were thus doomed to be abortive, or, for the reasons already given, submerged in political intrigues.

The first missionary movement came from the enterprise of the astute Father Parsons. This energetic Jesuit, of many resources, had entered England with Father Campion in aid of the seminary priests already on the mission, in the summer of 1580. By the rapidity of their movements, their secret printing-press, their eloquent preaching, and their scattering of tracts through half the counties of the kingdom they roused everywhere the enthusiasm of the down-trodden Catholics, made many notable recruits, and in consequence excited fierce antagonism. In a little more than twelve months Campion was captured and in the Tower, and Parsons was in hiding on the other side of the Channel, at Rouen. Baffled for the moment by the difficulties of a direct attack upon England, he turned his eyes towards Scotland. Queen Mary had already asked for a suitable priest to be sent to convert her son. Parsons, after despatching a secular priest named Watts to explore the country, resolved to send Father Holt, an English Jesuit, to the Scottish court. In September 1581 he wrote from Rouen a remarkable letter to Aquaviva, the General of the Society,¹ reviewing the situation and insisting that the road to the subjection of England lay through Scotland, and that therefore a Jesuit mission to that country was an urgent necessity. "Scotland is to be won, if at all," he said, "within the next two years. There are no laws affecting us [i.e. English priests], and our language is common to us and the Scots. I have arranged to get Catholic printed books sent to Scotland in future as into England. I refer to books in the vernacular, to controversial and devotional works, such as have hitherto never or rarely been seen in Scotland, for there is no printing-press in the country.¹ It is owing to this want of books that Scotland is much more under the influence of heresy than England."

The result of this letter and of other information which reached Rome was the despatch of Father William Crichton to Scotland, early in 1582, with orders to take instructions on the way from Archbishop Beaton at Paris, and from Father Parsons, then in Normandy. Meanwhile Holt had returned from his first visit to Edinburgh, and was closeted with Mendoza, the Spanish ambassador, in London (Feb. 9).² He had seen the supposed Protes-

¹ This was a mistake of Parsons. Alexander Arbuthnot, who was appointed King's printer, August 24, 1579, and who before the end of that year finished the printing of the Bassandyne Bible, was still exercising his craft in Edinburgh. In 1582 he printed the first edition of Buchanan's History. It is a more curious coincidence that about the very time that Parsons was writing (Sept. 1581) Robert Lekprewik must have finished the printing of William Fowler's "Answer to a Calumnious Letter and erroneous propositions of an apostat named M. Io Hammiltoun," for the dedication to Fowler's book is dated 2d June 1581. Henry Charteris, whose press also had been busy for some time in Edinburgh, printed in this same year (1581) John Craig's "Forme and maner of examination before the Lord's Supper," and his better-known "Short Summe" (including the "Negative Confession"), the dedication of which is dated 20th July. For further information on this subject see Dickson and Edmond's Annals of Scottish Printing, 1890. Parsons's statement may have been a too hasty inference from the fact that Vautrollier, the Huguenot, was in London in 1580 printing many Scottish books; and in 1581 Craig's "Forme and maner" (with slight verbal alterations), and even the "Negative Confession," issued from the London press of Robert Waldegrave. See note infra, p. 105.

tant convert, the Duke of Lennox, and several Catholic lords, all anxious to bring their country back to the Pope; and they pledged themselves to adopt one of four means: (1) to convert the king, (2) with his mother's consent to force him to open his eyes, (3) to transport him out of the kingdom, or (4) as a last resource to depose him until the Queen should arrive. To forward these expedients, they modestly request a foreign sovereign to furnish troops in order to subject the ministers and heretics, and to provide against English invasion. They would prefer Spaniards, but in case of jealousy on the part of France, they suggest Italians in the name of the Pope. Priests should be sent from France dressed as laymen. On no account should these be Scotsmen, but English, whom they could only expel the country with forty days' notice. "For State reasons," in another letter writes Mendoza, who reports all this to King Philip, "Scotsmen themselves must be treated with great caution." He further says that Holt and his predecessor have converted many, and have said mass and preached at Lord Seton's house.¹

We see already the cold shoulder given to the Scottish missionary on the ground of political expediency, while the project of converting the masses by persuasion is lost sight of in view of the more facile and speedy methods of the sword.

Crichton arrived in Edinburgh about March. He was introduced into the king's palace, and there hidden for three days in some secret chamber. The political schemes now underwent a rapid development. Lennox wrote to Tassis, the Spanish agent in France (March 7), offering his services to restore religion and to rescue the Queen.

At the same time he wrote to Mary herself, "Madam, since my last letters a Jesuit, named Crichton, has come to me with letters of credence from your ambassador. He informs me that the Pope and Catholic King had decided to succour you with an army for the purpose of re-establishing religion in this island. He says it is proposed that I should be the head of the said army. . . . I promise you on my life that when I have the army which is promised me of 15,000 men . . . I will land. Courage! then, your Majesty," &c.¹ (Spanish Cal., iii. 333).

It is beyond the scope of this introduction to trace further the progress of the great "Enterprise" in which Fathers Parsons and Crichton, Dr Allen and Archbishop Beaton, the Pope, the King of Spain, and the Guises were involved, and which received its first check in the counter-move of the "Raid of Ruthven," when the young king was safely kidnapped by the Protestant party. But to take up the attenuated thread of the more strictly ecclesiastical and literary projects we must return to Parsons's letter of September 1581.

It is curious in the first place to note that, with regard to the proposed employment of missionaries to convert the people, a difference had arisen between Mary and the Spanish ambassador. Mary was not averse from the employment of force, and she had written to the

¹ These facts must be emphasised, since Hill Burton doubted if the "frightened clergy" had any valid ground for believing that Lennox was "an emissary of the Guises to allure the land back to Popery." The Guises, he thinks, were too sagacious. "The Lord of D'Aubigny's resources were those of an idle ornamental courtier only, not of a practical statesman" (vol. v. p. 426). Whatever may be thought of Lennox's character or ability, the facts, now better known, amply justify the alarm of the ministers and the hopes of the priests. The mission of Holt and the battle of the books were the natural outcome of both.

Netherlands recalling to her side the Catholics who were fighting there for or against the Spaniards, but she saw the need of preparing the ground by religious persuasion. Mendoza, for political reasons, wished to use English priests. The Scottish nobles, too, had invited Parsons to Scotland, feeling, as Parsons himself felt, that Englishmen would be safer there, because less amenable to the penal laws. Parsons, as we have seen, bent on the employment of Holt, made light of dialectic differences, saying "our language is common to us and the Scots," though he undoubtedly desired to have books written in the Scottish vernacular. But Mary's national instincts were truer. She preferred Scotsmen, and, from her point of view, rightly so; for, she argued, "the English are not popular there, especially among the common people, owing to the ancient hatred between the two countries. As they are foreigners, moreover, and do not understand the language, they could not do much good."¹

Another interesting point in Father Parsons's letter is the fact that while urging the need of introducing into Scotland Catholic books in the vernacular, "hitherto never or rarely seen" in the country, he makes no reference either to the handy little volume, admirably adapted for its dangerous purpose, printed by John Hay, a member of his own order, some seven months earlier, or to Hamilton's treatise, also published several months at least before the date at which he was writing. It may be, indeed, that these very books were in his mind, and that his concern was not so much how to get such works

written, as how to have them smuggled, in sufficient quantities, across the Channel—a species of contraband traffic in which a certain Jesuit lay-brother subsequently exercised, in regard to the English trade, a remarkable ingenuity and enterprise. The residence of John Hay in Scotland during the greater part of 1579 may well have been unknown to Parsons; for Hay had no ecclesiastical commission or official business. He had simply visited his native country by permission of his superiors for the benefit of his health. He landed at Dundee in January, and was still in Scotland when D'Aubigny arrived there. He could not, however, resist courting some encounters with the ministers; and through their hostility he was compelled to quit the country before the end of September. But meantime he had kept his eyes open; and, like Parsons, wrote a long letter to the General¹ giving his views upon the affairs of the nation and the prospects of his Church. He had been pressed by Lord Adam Gordon to pass the winter in Scotland, "because he [Gordon] was in expectation of civil war breaking out at an early date," but this Hay could not do, as his brother William Hay of Dalgaty had given "caution" for his departure before the first of October. "Besides which," says the Jesuit, "it would be necessary to have some books written in the Scottish language both for moral instruction and for discussing the controverted points of religion." He adds, "I do not doubt that your Paternity will shortly send me into Scotland to cultivate that neglected vineyard of the Lord, and I am certain every Scottish member of the Society would gladly expose his life to hazard in the hope of being of use to his afflicted country. For myself, God forbid that I should allow the noisy threats of the ministers to deter me from ardently desiring to be sent into Scotland again. My brother's promise only extended to my leaving the country, and my return would not therefore expose him to any risk." This was written from Paris, 9th Nov. 1579; and Hay, before very long, was able to do his share towards supplying the demand for vernacular controversy. The preface to his book is dated Paris, 25 Feb. 1580, i.e. in modern reckoning, 1581.

The antecedents of John Hamilton and Nicol Burne were of a different kind from those of Father Hay. Hamilton had been, it appears, in 1571, a professor or regent of philosophy in the New College of St. Andrews. He became a Catholic, and in 1573 took up his residence in Paris, where he taught philosophy in the College of Navarre, and wrote his first book, the Catholik Traictise, which, as the preface shows, was finished in April 1581. Of his extraordinary exploits during the troubles of the League, more will be said farther on.

Nicol Burne had also been a professor at St. Andrews, having taught philosophy at St. Leonard's College.¹ He did not, however, make his escape to Paris so easily as either Hay or Hamilton, for having had the temerity to express a desire to uphold Catholic doctrine before the General Assembly, he was, it seems, even after the preliminary terms of the engagement had been accepted, suddenly excommunicated, hunted down, and thrown into the Tolbooth of Edinburgh on Oct. 14, 1580. The Assembly held in Edinburgh on the 20th of that month sent commissioners to the king craving, among other matters, "some order to be takin with Mr Nicol Burne."¹ The order taken was apparently the conducting or the continuing of the conference with their prisoner here, in the Tolbooth, instead of in the Assembly, and releasing him after three months' imprisonment on condition that he quitted the realm within another month from that time. Burne took his revenge by publishing his "Disputation," with considerable additions or improvements, at Paris some six months later, Oct. 1, 1581.

The semi-political mission of which Holt and Crichton were the pioneers, interrupted or thwarted as it was by events which their own conduct helped to bring about, was resumed, two or three years later, on more strictly ecclesiastical lines. The Jesuits, in their report of 1594, pass over the former mission in silence. They rather lay stress on "the Queen's opinion that no Catholic priests should be sent into Scotland,"² and attribute the failure of Lennox's projects to the influence of the "politicians," including, apparently, Mary herself, who feared that the presence of priests might hinder the success of the business then in progress. "But," they tell the Pope, "when it became obvious that the daily loss of souls in Scotland was great, and that the plans of these politicians had proved a failure, certain priests of the Society of Jesus, along with a few inmates of the College of Pont-à-Mousson, set out on the mission in the year 1584. Its success was very remarkable, although it had not the approval of the Queen of Scots nor of the more prudent ones."

² But, as has been seen, this does not quite accurately represent the Queen's mind.

Among the more conspicuous of these new missionaries were James Gordon, brother of the Earl of Huntly, Edmund Hay, John Dury, Robert Abercromby, William Murdoch, and again Crichton. Many of their letters, and reports of their movements and adventures, are printed in Father Forbes-Leith's Narratives, already referred to. Yet it is curious that notwithstanding much sacerdotal activity on the part of these fathers, there was no addition made by them to the scanty literature available in the vernacular for the edification of their Catholic countrymen, or for proselytising purposes.¹ There was indeed the usual cry for popular books. James Tyrie, when still residing in Paris in 1586, in a letter to his General, reports "Fathers Hay² and Gordon write that they have expended all the money they received from us at setting out. They likewise say that it is necessary to send plenty of books in the Scottish idiom, especially the New Testament which was translated into that language some years ago, and illustrated with comments from the writings of the old Fathers, and with meditations also in Scottish. They think that they will contribute more than anything else to the conversion of the country; but the books are rather expensive, and there is not money enough to purchase the number of copies required.”¹ Now, there is no trace of any attempt on the part of Catholics to translate the Testament into Scots. The passage here italicised is wholly unintelligible if it refers to anything but the New Testament translated and annotated by certain divines of the English College at Rheims, and there printed in 1582. Father Tyrie must have meant, therefore, by “the Scottish idiom,” strange as it seems, nothing more than English in contradistinction to Latin; and the books in demand, also, must have been English Catholic books, of which there was an abundance in circulation across the border and on the Continent. But this demand can only be explained on the supposition that the class of persons in the Lowlands, to whom the missionaries had easiest access, had no decided preference for Scots, or at least had no real difficulty in reading English.

¹ Some controversy in Latin had always been kept up. Archibald (not to be confused with John) Hamilton had published at Paris in 1577 his De confusione Calvinianae sectae apud Scotos, Ecclesiae nomen ridicule usurpantis, Dialogus. Thomas Smeton replied to this in his Ad A. Hamiltonii apostatae dialogum . . . responsio, in 1579. Hamilton's rejoinder, contra maledicam ministrorum Scotiae responsionem, appeared in 1581. Also in 1581 James Laing published at Paris his De Vita et moribus . . . haeticorum nostri temporis, translated from the French. In 1582 appeared, at Ingolstadt, Winzet's Flagellum Sectariorum with the Velitatio in Buchananum; and in 1585 John Durie, S.J., published his Confutatio of Whitaker's reply to the "Ten Reasons" of Father Edmund Campion; but this last belongs rather to the English than the Scottish controversy.

There is a blank, then, in the history of Roman Catholic books in the vernacular of Scotland from 1581 to the year 1588, when Adam King, a professor of philosophy and mathematics at Paris, of whose career nothing is known, published a translation of the popular Catechism of the Jesuit, Peter Canisius, prefixing to it a kalendar, with a disquisition in explanation of it, and adding certain prayers and devotions. This was the first practical handbook of doctrinal and moral instruction, distinct from mere controversy, and addressed rather to Catholics than to Protestants, printed since the Catechism of 1552.

During the last decade of the century hopes of the king's reconciliation to Rome were still entertained in some quarters. The Jesuits, though few in number, were making their presence felt everywhere, winning converts in high places, mixing in the court and the camp, and occasionally in the Tolbooth. Catholic nobles were giving trouble; there were intrigues with Rome and with Spain, plots and counterplots, but still, as before, no fresh line of vernacular literature until another long spell of silence was broken by the wild and eccentric John Hamilton with his Facile Traictise, dedicated to the king, in 1600. This closes the century, and also the whole series of Roman Catholic books in Scots. For, as a glance at the Appendix will show, the books by the Jesuit Anderson and the Benedictine Baillie are scarcely distinguishable in dialect from any English book of the same period.

Beyond the Scottish words and phrases, which are dealt with in the Glossary, there is little in the contents of these books which calls for explanation or comment. The curious and scandalous charges brought against the moral character of Knox or the foreign Reformers have some interest, as illustrating the controversial fashion of the day, or the reckless and credulous habit of mind engendered by theological passions. But to discuss them in detail would be quite out of place here, nor would it be thought necessary to refer even to their absolute worthlessness as evidence, if it were not that a recent historian has shown a desire to treat them seriously, reminding his readers that they are the statements of "contemporaries."¹ The question is whether these contemporaries—if contemporaries they can be called—had the best means of ascertaining the truth, or the critical faculty and freedom from bias requisite for the right use of those means. But as Hill Burton remarks, in reference especially to Hamilton and Nicol Burne: "These things were matters of routine; controversy was not complete without them. It was as necessary to accuse the adversary of some monstrous crime, as in later times it was to charge him with stupidity, dishonesty, and imbecile malevolence."¹

Of more historical value is the insight which we obtain into the changed mental attitude of the post-Tridentine apologists in comparison with that of the former generation. The new Catholicism in its first fervour seems to have lost memory or consciousness of its own actual past. The old Church has already become idealised by writers who have eyes only to see in exaggerated colours the faults and follies of the Protestant sects; while they picture to themselves, in pleasing contrast with this supposed decadence and deformity, the moral purity and beauty of the golden age of which they have been fraudulently robbed. This optimistic tone pervades all these Catholic Tractates, but it is expressed with surprising emphasis in the chapter in which Burne, under thirty-one heads, discusses "the difference, comparesone and change from the treu Catholique fayth to the neu deformed religione." We are here invited to note, among many other things, the change from a religion whose pastors devoted themselves and their actions only to the Church, the well-beloved spouse of Christ, to this which "castis away the forsaied spous and with palliardise and al kynd of harlatrie abusus the sacred and halie place"; also, a change from a religion, whose anointed bishops and priests vowed chastity and lived continent lives, "Vnto this quhais vsurpit bischopis, apostat priestis, and palliard ministeris professis procreatione of advlterous childrene, and monie of them pluralitie of harlattis falslie callit vyues." Particularly, too, we are asked to note the change from the old religion which kept their womankind in all womanly gravity,¹ to this which teaches them shamelessness, vanity, and all manner of indecency.

Yet but a little time ago Winzet and Kennedy, Archibald Hay, and Bishop Leslie himself were ascribing the ruin of the old Church in Scotland to the very vices here painted, "the procreation of adulterous children" by bishop and prelate, and "the plurality of harlots," whether falsely called wives or not. For a very different picture of the "womanly gravity" prevalent under the old system, we may turn to the petition or report of three Cardinals presented to Pope Paul IV. by Cardinal Sermoneta in the name of Queen Mary in 1556.² As the document is new, the quotation here of a brief passage to the point may be pardoned.

"Moreover, on behalf of the said Queen it had been declared how all nunneries of every kind of religious women, and especially those of the Cistercian Order, abbesses, prioresses, and sisters included, have come to such a pass of boldness, that they utterly condemn the safeguards of chastity. [For] not only do they wander outside the monastic enclosures in shameless fashion through the houses of seculars, but they even admit all sorts of worthless and wicked men within the convents, and hold with them unchaste intercourse. [Thus] they defile the sacred precincts with the birth of children and bring up their progeny about them, go forth abroad surrounded by their numerous sons and give their daughters in marriage dowered with the ample revenues of the church."

The authors of the Tractates were, indeed, in every respect the creation of the new order of things. Their happy forgetfulness of the past, their contempt for their adversaries, and their vigorous self-confidence, were some of the forces with which the counter-reformation armed her new champions. They are characteristics which served them in good stead in their theological combats, and give a peculiar freshness and piquancy to the writings here under review.

II.—BIOGRAPHICAL AND BIBLIOGRAPHICAL NOTICES.

JAMES TYRIE, S.J.

James Tyrie, the author of the "Refutation," came of a good family, and was connected by marriage with Lord Gray and Lord Hume. He was born at Drumkilbo, in Perthshire, in 1543, and educated at St. Andrews. In his twentieth year he was, as we have seen, one of the young men carried abroad by De Gouda and Edmund Hay. On the 19th of August 1563 he entered the Jesuit noviciate at Rome, and shortly afterwards was sent to Paris, where he was made Professor of Philosophy and of Theology, and James Tyrie. finally rector of the Jesuit College of Clermont. He soon acquired a European reputation for learning and ability. David Buchanan, who did not admire the Jesuits, and who speaks elsewhere of these very Fathers in Paris as a "pestiferous race of men," uses the language of panegyric in describing the gifts and character of Tyrie. In certain disputations held at the Sorbonne, he tells us, Tyrie had won the applause of a large concourse of distinguished personages by his erudition, acuteness, and "stupendous memory"; and the biographer adds—

"Erat enim vir optimis naturæ dotibus præditus, omnibus etiam melioribus disciplinis nobiliter excultus, integerrimæ vitæ, temperans, modestus, humilis, mitis et mansuetus, quod raro in ullo Jesuitarum invenitur; orator disertissimus, concionator exquisitissimus; moribus gravis et modestus, omnibus affabilis, theologicarum subtilitatum et profanarum literarum scientia nobiliter instructus; divinæ gloriæ zelo, utinam non præpostero, fervidus, et qui pro Romanæ religionis defensione ac propagatione multa fecit et tulit."¹

Tyrie's eldest brother, David, who married Margaret Fotheringham, had joined the reformers, and in 1567 signed the bond of Association in support of the abdication of Queen Mary, and the appointment of Murray as regent. James, anxious to win back his brother to the Roman faith, had corresponded with him from Paris; and one of his letters dealing with the question of the Church's visibility was shown to Knox, that he might write a suitable reply to it. Knox did this apparently at once, but let the manuscript lie by him unprinted for several years, until shortly before

James Tyrie. his death, when, at St. Andrews in 1572, he published it under the title of "An Answer to a Letter of a Jesuit named Tyrie be Iohne Knox. . . . Imprentit at Sanct-androis be Robert Lekpreuik. Anno Do. 1572."

This Answer as originally written was formally addressed to David Tyrie, thus: "Of leat dayis came to our hands a Letter direct vnto yow, right worshipfull, from James Tyrie, who styleth himself your humble seruitour and brother: the beginning wherof shaweth the care that he beiris of your saluatioun"; and it ended, "Vse our letter so we pray yow that it may come to the knowledge of the wryter to yow, whose conuersion we no les seak then he appeares to seak youres. And thus we hartly commit yow to the protection of the Omnipotent. Of Edinburgh the 10 day of August, Anno Do. 1568."

Tyrie's letter was dated "at Paris the sext of December" (infra, p. 14), evidently December 1567. He refers to it in his preface to his "Refutation" (1573) as "ane letter of myne send to my vmquhyle Brother fiue yearis passit or thairby," and in the letter itself he refers to the "Kirk of Scotland" (established in 1560) as "bot yit aucht yeir auld." Knox, when he wrote the preface for his printed book, appears to have been out of his reckoning by at least two years as to the time when Tyrie's letter reached him, though he had the date (August 1568) of the draft or manuscript of his Answer before him at the moment. This, however, is his own account of how he came to write and finally to publish it: "There are seuin yeares past sen a scrole send from a Iesuite to his brother was presented vnto me be a faithful brother requyring sum answer to be maid to the same: whais iust petition I willing to obey, I pat my hand to the pen although I fand small tyme of quyetnes; for it was immediately efter that I was called back from exyle, be the James Tyrie. Kirk of Edinburgh after David's iudgment. Amongs my other caires I scriblit that which followis, and that in a few dayis, which being finished I repented of my labour and proposed fullie to haue suppressed it. Which na dout I had done if the Deuil had not steirit vp the Iesuites to trouble godlie harts with the same argumentis which Tyrie vsis; amplified and set furth with all the dog eloquence that Sathan can deuysel for suppressing of the fre progres of the Euangell of Iesus Christ."

David Tyrie died some time in March 1572, and in all probability, therefore, never saw the book thus addressed to him. Knox also did not live to see Tyrie's "Refutation," for he too died on the November 24th of this same year. Tyrie's preface is dated March 8, 1573, but he shows no sign of being aware of his opponent's death.

Knox, in dealing with Tyrie's Letter, divided it into paragraphs, printing each separately with his own answer. Tyrie in his "Refutation" followed the same method, first printing a paragraph of his original letter, next Knox's answer, and, lastly, his own rejoinder. The separate portions of his letter are here pieced together (infra, p. 11). The title and preface of the "Refutation" occupy six leaves (†6), and the text fifty-seven more (A-G8, H1), followed by a single leaf containing some Corrigenda. The whole book is neatly printed, the "Letter" and "Refutation" in italics, and "Schir Iohne Knox Ansuer" in Roman type.

The Jesuit keeps well to his point, and does not indulge in the kind of digressions and anecdotes which occasionally enlivens the arguments of his brother controversialists. Bishop Leslie, whose account of the matter so far as Knox is concerned, appears not altogether accurate, says that the James Tyrie. book made many converts. The General Assembly in 1574 appointed a committee to consider an answer to it prepared by John Duncanson; and another drawn up by George Hay three years later was also submitted to the Assembly, but neither was published. According to John Hamilton (infra, p. 102), Chrystesone, the minister of Dundee, burnt the obnoxious book at the Market Cross.

This encounter with Knox no doubt added to the Jesuit's renown. In the spring of 1574 Andrew Melville, on his way home from Geneva, passed through Paris, intending to make some stay there. Lord Ogilvy persuaded him to pay a visit to Tyrie at the Jesuits' College, and this led to a public disputation between the two men, which lasted for several days. The combatants must have been well matched. But Archbishop Beaton, hearing of the affair, expressed his disapproval in such menacing terms, that the friends of Melville prudently hastened his departure.

The place held by Tyrie as a scholar in the estimation of his superiors is shown by the fact that he was one of the six Fathers, representing the several Jesuit Provinces, to whom Aquaviva committed the task of drawing up the first Ratio Studiorum of the Society, published in 1586. In 1589 he was sent to take charge of the Scottish seminary at Pont-à-Mousson, and lectured in the University there on the Gospels. In 1592 he went to Rome, where he held the office of Assistant of the General for France and Germany, in succession to Father Edmund Hay, and at Rome he died, 20th March 1597.

Tyrie left behind him certain theological and philosophical works in MS.; but he is credited, on insufficient grounds, with the authorship of the little treatise, printed simultaneously at Douai, in 12mo, and at Rome, in 8vo, under the title of "De Antiquitate Christianæ religionis apud James Tyrie. Scotos. Autore Georgio Thomsono." The evidence of Dempster, upon which the ascription of this book to Tyrie has been based, is confused and contradictory. Compare Scotia illustrior (1620), p. 50; Apparatus ad hist. Scot. (1622), p. 55; Hist. Eccles. (1627), pp. 626, 627. Dempster's final statement, indeed, is that the De Antiquitate was composed by a pious man "of the school of Tyrie . . . and afterwards a Jesuit," and there seems no reason why Tyrie should have adopted a pseudonym, at that time, in Rome, for a tract which would have carried much greater weight with his own name attached to it, seeing that its object was to obtain alms for the Scots College, then recently removed from Pont-à-Mousson to Douai. On the doubtful authority of a copy at Blairs College, the Report of the Jesuit priests in Scotland in 1594 (already referred to) is also attributed to Tyrie. It no doubt passed through his hands and was presented by him to the Pope, but it is most improbable that he, who had not set foot in Scotland for thirty years, should have written it himself. The Barberini copy of the document, printed by Stevenson, bears no trace of Tyrie's authorship.¹

JOHN HAY, S.J.

John Hay, of the Hays of Dalgaty, Fifeshire, was born at Dalgaty in 1546. He was a younger brother of the advocate Edmund Hay, who was one of Bothwell's counsel at ¹ See "Note on some writings attributed to Father James Tyrie," Edinburgh Bibliographical Society, vol. iii. p. 137. Abram (L'Université de Pont-à-Mousson, p. 279) is wrong in saying that Possevin inserted the treatise under the name of Tyrie in his Bibliotheca Selecta. He ascribes it, on the contrary, with no sign of doubt, to George Thomson, whom he calls vir probus et doctus (3d edit., Cologne, 1607).

John Hay. his trial for the murder of Darnley and in the process of his divorce. He went abroad with Tyrie and others in 1563, and entered the Jesuit noviciate at Rome, 25th January 1566. Ten years later he was sent to the newly-founded University of Pont-à-Mousson to teach philosophy there; but in the summer of the following year, 1577, an infectious malady broke out in the town, and the studies of his class were temporarily suspended. Hay, who was not yet in priest's orders, eager to profit by his enforced leisure, characteristically obtained leave to visit, in secular attire, the Lutheran University of Strassburg, and there, as a theological knight-errant, to enter the lists with the renowned John Pappus. The legend runs that Pappus, who, by the admission of the president, Sturm, was worsted in the argument by his unknown adversary, cried out in a rage, "Ou tu es le diable, ou tu es Jesuite."¹ Soon after this, February 25, 1578, he wrote to the General of the Society, Everard Mercurian, asking leave to withdraw for a while to his native country for the benefit of his health, and giving the assurance that he would run no risk in Scotland on account of his relationship to both the Earl of Errol and the Earl of Morton.² His request being granted, he landed at Dundee, as has been said, January 20, 1579.

Hay stayed some time at a farm belonging to one of his brothers, three miles from Dundee, and here he was visited by Errol. He made an excursion into Aberdeenshire, was summoned before the Privy Council at Stirling, and was examined by three ministers deputed for that purpose. But the story of his journeys, perils, and disputes does not concern us here, except so far as it may help us to understand his mental outlook and character. The physical weakness from which he was suffering evidently did not abate his buoyant spirits or his keenness for controversy. His sources of information were perhaps limited or one-sided. His reports, at least of what he saw and heard, give evidence rather of zeal and enthusiasm than of sobriety of judgment, but they are not the less interesting on that account.¹

He tells Mercurian, for example, "No one can believe the detestation which the common people feel for the Calvinist ministers. . . . It would be no injustice to call such ministers disciples of Epicurus and not of Christ. Some have married the wives of other men while their husbands are yet alive, and by their countenance and example have encouraged others to do the same. Their tables are furnished splendidly and luxuriously, they are unrelenting in the exaction of usury, and in a word, there is scarcely any wickedness which they do not daily practise."

As a sign of the reaction which was taking place in favour of the old religion among the people in the north of Scotland, he remarks that "they began this summer to pay their devotions at a distance from home on certain Sabbath days, in pursuance of an old and pious custom of their forefathers; and three hundred of them, or more, were frequently seen in the church of Turriff, clothed only in linen garments, and imploring the aid of God and the Saints, and especially of the Blessed Virgin. Not a few went on pilgrimages to the church of our Lady of Grace, situated on the river Spey; and of all these expeditions common report pronounced me the leader, though in fact I was a long way off at the time. Rosaries also were offered

John Hay. for sale in the market at the fair of Turriff. . . . I cannot recall," he adds, "without the greatest pain complaints which I heard expressed by the poor people against their ministers, accustomed as they had been to the most generous treatment from the churchmen of old times."¹

As for himself personally, Hay tells us that as soon as his arrival in the north was known, the people showed an extraordinary desire to hear him preach, crowds assembling, and many persons coming two days' journey for that purpose. "The most marvellous and incredible reports," he writes, "were circulated regarding me. I had seen and copied the dogmas of the Christian faith, written with the finger of God upon the tables of stone given to Moses; others said I had been carried down into hell; others, that I was clothed with sackcloth, and gifted with such a miraculous power of healing, that there was no sickness or disease, how severe and dangerous soever, which I could not remove with perfect ease. Multitudes of people, afflicted with helpless ailments, came in crowds to my brother's house to be cured, and I could scarcely get them to believe me when I assured them I had no skill in medicine and had never studied it, but had in fact come to Scotland myself for the recovery of my own health."

In fine, Hay briefly sets down the reasons which have "brought men of sense, and those well acquainted with the state of Scotland, to the conclusion that the restoration of the Catholic religion in this country is not impossible." The king, he thinks, might easily be persuaded to cross over to France, which he is said to be anxious to do. The John Hay. Pope should get the French nuncio to encourage D'Aubigny to effect this. A papal legate should be sent into Scotland to demand freedom of faith and worship for all Scotsmen. Advantage should be taken of the first movement of civil war in Scotland to send Jesuits into the northern parts "to secure the expulsion of the ministers from their benefices, which could easily be effected by transferring the revenues of all benefices held by heretics to the Catholic nobles on condition of the restoration of religion."

When the ministers, deputed by the Council in August to examine Hay, had made their report, the officers of state pressed for a royal order requiring him to leave the country within ten days. Argyll and Buchan, with Morton, who befriended him as the Jesuit expected, thought this too severe; and it was finally agreed that he should quit before the 1st of October. "William Hay of Delgatie" gave caution in £1000 that he should so depart, and would meanwhile do nothing "offensive to the trew religion established."¹

The "Demandes," which was printed at Paris early in the year 1580-1, needs little description here, as the whole text, saving some marginal references to authorities, is reprinted in this volume. The register, beginning with the title-page, runs Ai-viii to C^{iv}, 104 pages in all. The size of the page will be seen in the facsimile.² The book was printed in fine clear type, and made a handy volume easily concealed and easily circulated.

The edition in Scots is now so rare, that the eminent book-hunter, Hill Burton, confessed that he had not been

John Hay. able to trace a copy. "That there ever was one," he says, "is only known from the title of the French translation."¹

The book, however, though specially addressed to the disciples of John Knox, created far greater stir abroad than it did at home. It was translated into French by Father Coyssard, S.J. (Demandes faites aux ministres d'Écosse, &c., Lyons, 1583—the approbation being dated 5th November). Another edition appeared, also at Lyons, in the following year, and yet another at Brussels in 1595. A German version, made from the French, was published at Freiburg, in Switzerland, under the title of Fragstück des Christlichen Glaubens an die neuwe Sectische Predigkandten . . . Durch Sebastian Werro, Pfarrherrn zu Freyburg in Uchtland, &c. Werro added a second part of his own composition, Fragstück an die Luthrischen Predigkandten, and to Hay's questions he occasionally adds a note mainly explanatory of Scottish names. Thus, in the second Demand, the mention of Methuen and Knox calls for the following explanation: "Merck günstiger Leser dass diese zween die ersten Verführer zur Calvinischer Lehr in Schotten sindt gewesen, Methuen ein Brodtbeck, der ander ein abtrinniger verloffener Priester, der sich auch hernach hat der Zauberey ergeben."²

Several replies to the "Demandes" appeared in France. Jacques Pineton dedicated to Henry of Navarre his L'Esprit et conscience Jesuitique, printed at Nismes in 1584. Jean de

² It is interesting to see the unknown Knox introduced to the Catholics of Switzerland as a renegade and vagabond priest who had abandoned himself to sorcery. The reference is probably to the magic by which he is said to have obtained in marriage Lord Ochiltree's daughter (infra, p. 162). According to Sommervogel, a second edition of Werro's translation was issued in 1586.

Serres published his Défense de la vérité catholique, in John Hay, which he refutes the calumnies of Hay, and sets against his 206 Demands, 412 addressed to the Jesuits (Nismes, 1586). An anonymous answer, Réponse aux cinq premières et principaux Demandes de F. Jean Hay, moine Jesuite, was published at Geneva in 1586; while Beza himself intervened in the controversy, which was intensified by the publication of some theses proposed at the University of Tournon and attributed to Hay. Many pamphlets were the result.¹ In 1586 Hay, who then described himself as "Professeur de Theologie et Doyen des Arts en l'Université de la Comp. de Jesus à Tournon," printed at Lyons his Défense des Demandes . . . contre le libelle de J. Pineton de Chambrune, and two years later published at Tournon L'Antimoine aux réponses que Theodore de Beze faict a trente-sept demandes de deux cents et six proposées, &c.

Subsequently Hay devoted himself to other branches of ecclesiastical literature. He translated from Italian into Latin several series of Jesuit Letters from China, Japan, and Peru, all of which were collected and re-edited by him in a volume, entitled De rebus Japonicis, Indicis, et Peruvianis epistolæ recentiores. . . . Antwerpiaë, 1605. In 1595 he brought out a new edition, with corrections and notes, of the Bibliotheca Sancta of the Dominican, Sixtus Senensis (Lyons, fol.), a work which may be called the first of the Biblical Introductions, and one which critically was in advance of its time.

In 1607 Hay was made Chancellor of the University of Pont-à-Mousson, where many years before he had taught philosophy; and there he died, 20th May 1618.²

JOHN HAMILTON.

John Hamilton was the son of Thomas Hamilton of Orchatfield, who acquired in 1522 the barony of Bathgate, and he was the brother of Sir Thomas Hamilton, father of the first Earl of Haddington.

His early career cannot be ascertained with certainty. Mr T. F. Henderson, in the Dictionary of National Biography, has carefully collected all the notices of any John Hamilton with whom our hero with any probability might be identified. In his preface to the Catholik and Facile Traictise (1581), Hamilton calls himself Queen Mary's "daily orator," as Nicol Burne describes himself as the king's "daily orator," but by this he does not mean spokesman or diplomatic agent, but simply "bedesman," one who ever prays, &c. Fowler, in 1581, says of Hamilton that he had been in the schools of philosophy for more than twenty years; and he was perhaps the John Hamilton who was one of the regents of the New College in 1569, and professor of philosophy there in 1571.¹ If we can trust the date given by Louis Servin in his Plaidoyé pour Maistre Iean Hamilton (1586), edited with a preface by Hamilton himself, he came to Paris in 1573. Servin calls him "a Catholic refugee." By his adversaries he was generally known as "the apostate"; and a royal proclamation of November 1600 describes him as "having made shameful apostacy and defection from the true religion which at the beginning he sincerely professed."² In Paris he soon made himself a name. He was appointed professor of philosophy in the Royal College of Navarre; in

1576 he became tutor to the Cardinal de Bourbon, and in 1578 to François de Joyeuse, also afterwards cardinal. Of his manners and character at this time we learn something from William Fowler, already mentioned; and by a pleasant coincidence we meet him also in company with Father John Hay. Fowler, then a young man in his twenty-first year, happening to be in Paris in the spring of 1581, called one day upon "Lord Arbroath," i.e. Lord John Hamilton, Commendator of Arbroath, who had fled to France when Morton began his onslaught upon the chiefs of the Hamilton family. At this nobleman's lodging he found both Hay and John Hamilton. Hay, whose book was just out, had presented a copy to Arbroath, and now offered another to Fowler. A controversy at once ensued. The subject of dispute was the adoration of images. Hay, it seems, made "a vain distinction" between "representation" and "adoration." Arbroath, of whom the Scottish Catholics in Paris had great hopes, desired Fowler to answer this. Fowler did so, observing that as he was passing by "St. Germain's port" he saw two blind men praying with reverent prostration of their bodies to the image there placed. Where, he asked, was the "representation" in the case of these blind men? This was a smart hit, and Lord John, being much impressed, rose from his seat and embraced his champion. Hay, it appears, was silent, not wishing to vex his lordship with further dispute, but "our maister apostat," enraged at this turn of affairs, sprang from the other side of the chamber and challenged Fowler to a continuation of the argument, crying out, "I sal pluk your luggs, I sal ding out your harnes." Under these unpromising conditions the conference broke up, but was apparently renewed on other occasions.

Hamilton found an opportunity of covertly performing that which with boldness he promised. "I on the vther part," says Fowler, "sumquhat commovit tuik leue at my awin hand of acquaintance to visite his eare." The result was that one day (March 18, 1581) the young Presbyterian was set upon in the streets by Hamilton and thirteen "debauchit scollers," who crying out that he was a Huguenot, a contemner of the saints and a blasphemer of the Virgin Mary, threw him on the ground, battered his head and face with their "pennerinkhorne and batons," and dragged him bleeding through the streets to the College of Navarre, and there in the presence of six hundred spectators they shamefully insulted him. (Fowler's Answer, sig. A. 3-4.)

Fowler quickly made his way back to Scotland. Hamilton, not satisfied with his physical victory, wrote a letter to the ministers challenging them to a public conference, and adding to his letter fifteen theological propositions. The letter has unfortunately not been preserved.¹ The propositions are the first fifteen of the twenty-four "Certain Orthodox and Catholik Conclusiones," added to his book published in 1581, with an epistle to the king, dated 20th April. The letter to ministers contained much abuse of Fowler and his ancestors, and accordingly it was handed to him with the suggestion that he should reply to it. Hence "An Answer to the calvmniovs letter and erroneous propositiones of an apostat," &c., Hamilton's "Ane Catholik and Facile Traictise" was probably printed before this book of his adversary was written, but Fowler shows no knowledge of it. His answer is directed exclusively to the personal reflections made upon himself in the letter to the ministers (from which he quotes some few words here and there), and to the fifteen propositions. Fowler, as might be expected, does not give Hamilton a good character; and among other things reminds him that his "harlatric is als oppinly knawin to vs in Scotland as in France." Hamilton when he wrote this book was not yet in holy orders. He received the tonsure from the Bishop of Paris or his vicar 18th February 1581, after being presented by the Archbishop of Glasgow and the Bishop of Ross to be admitted to orders according to the permission granted by Gregory XIII. in favour of Scottish refugees studying at Paris.

John Hamilton.

On October 17, 1584, Hamilton was chosen rector of the University of Paris, and in the following year, on the recommendation of the "German nation," was presented by the university to the cure of the parish of St. Cosmas and Damian. His title was disputed, partly on the ground of his being a foreigner; but his counsel, Louis Servin, in whose pleadings are found some interesting evidences of Scottish privileges in France, obtained from Parliament a decree in his favour. The "Curé de St. Cosme" soon became notorious as a fanatical partisan of the League. He was elected one of the "Sixteen," or representatives of the sixteen districts into which Paris was divided, and took a leading part in the revolutionary proceedings of that body. When Henry IV. besieged Paris, Hamilton acted as drill sergeant to a regiment of 1300 ecclesiastics (May 1590), and so ardent was his military zeal, that he said mass in his cuirass (so it was reported), and baptized a child in church without taking off his armour. When the Sixteen resolved on putting to death Brisson, President of the Parliament,

John Hamilton. and the two counsellors L'Archer and Tardif, Hamilton himself dragged Tardif from his sick-bed and hurried him to immediate execution. The Duke of Mayenne hanged four of the murderers, but Hamilton escaped the penalty. On the entrance of Henry IV. into Paris in 1594 the curé desperately attempted to renew the civil war, and was arrested with arms in his hands, but was mercifully permitted to retire to Brussels. The widows and children of the three victims, however, demanded justice against the assassins, and judgment having been pronounced against them, Hamilton, with other of his accomplices, was condemned to be broken on the wheel. The sentence was carried out on his effigy in the Place de Grève, March 11, 1595.¹

When Hamilton published his Facile Traictise, printed at Louvain in 1600, with a dedicatory epistle to King James, he probably contemplated returning to his native country on some missionary venture. The king had been pleased to openly discuss theology with Father James Gordon, but Hamilton can hardly have expected that he himself, after such a career, could be regarded with royal favour, or even toleration. He, however, made his appearance in Scotland in the course of the year in company, it was erroneously supposed, of Father Edmund Hay. The Privy Council, November 12, 1600, had information of "Jesuits" lately arrived from abroad, "Maister John Hamilton" and "Maister Hay,"² and denounced the former particularly as "a practiser, counsellor, and a personal executor of high and desperate treasons against the lawful authority of princes of all parts where he has remained and made residence." For several years his movements were watched by the Government. He was known to be lurking here and there under the name of James Thomson; and several Catholic noblemen and others got into trouble for "resetting" the fugitive; but it was not until 1608, when he had taken refuge with Lord Ogilvy in Angus, that vigorous measures were taken to arrest him by a party of soldiers. It was a dark and tempestuous night when the soldiers broke into the house, and it seems that Hamilton might have made his escape without difficulty, but the old man, characteristically seizing a weapon, made preparations to resist.¹ He was, however, secured and sent to the Tower of London; and there by a strange hazard he found a fellow prisoner in Andrew Melville, the former antagonist of Father Tyrie. Their common misfortune brought the Presbyterian leader and the champion of the Catholic League into friendly intercourse.² The precise time of Hamilton's death is not known, but it must have been before April 1611, for Melville, who attended him in his last moments, and endeavoured unsuccessfully to convert him to the Protestant faith, was released from the Tower at that date.

Hamilton's first book, Ane Catholik and Facile Traictise, is divided into two parts, with separate titles and dedicatory prefaces, the first to Queen Mary and the second to King James. The first part, consisting of ten chapters, has the head lines throughout "Of the Lordis Supper." It contains 116 leaves all numbered, the register running

John Hamilton. A-O⁸, P⁴. The second or additional part, "Certain Orthodox and Catholik Conclusiones," has no head lines, nor are the leaves numbered, but the register continues regularly from the former part (exclusive of the second title-page), the signature of the preface to James being P⁵⁻⁸, and the text Q¹ to V⁶. Then follow two leaves, completing the sheet, "Certane Quæstionis," ending, after the thirteenth Quæritur, with "Finis."

But it is curious to note that many copies, e.g. those in the British Museum and Signet Library, and others in private hands, have no second title-page, and as the register is complete without it, its absence would not generally be detected. The title here reproduced in facsimile (infra, p. 93) is from a fine copy in the Drummond collection of the Edinburgh University Library.

Lord Hailes remarks on the "casuistical distinction" with the help of which Hamilton at the same time addresses Mary as "his Soverane Marie the Quenes Maiestie of Scotland," and James as "King of Scotland"; but this was doubtless in view of the desired Association which may have been then regarded by him as virtually accomplished.

Hamilton's second Scottish book, with a title which is inconveniently similar to his first, A Facile Traictise (1600), treats mainly of the marks of the Church and the nature of the seven sacraments. The epistle to King James is followed by "Certaine Prayeres to excitat the devotion of trew and constant Catholiks." Of these prayers, Hill Burton, who was much impressed by them, remarks, "Words came to him at his bidding—words expressive of Christian meekness, humility, charity, and all that might seem appropriate rather to the secluded anchorite than to the man of storm and strife" (Hist., vi. 271). The head lines of the first seven chapters of the text are "A reul to knav trev religion." Then follows Chap. viii., "The markes of the trev Kirk," and on page 203 comes a division, not numbered as a chapter, "Of the nvmbre, natvre and effect of the Sacramentis in the Euangelical law," subdivided into sections, having for their head lines, Of the Sacraments; Of Baptisme; of Penitence; &c. The text ends on page 444, with Finis. The register runs, (Epistle and Prayeres), ¹², *⁶; (text) A-S¹², T⁶, followed by "A Cathalogue of 167 Hæreses," &c., "Corruptione of 23 passages of the scriptures," and "Advertisment to the reiders," all unpagged, V⁶-X⁴, ending with the catchword THE, and followed by two unnumbered leaves, consisting of some verses, "On the trew vse of the crucifix, with a detection of two calumnious lies of the Caluinolatre ministers," with a woodcut of the crucifixion.

John Hamilton.

NICOL BURNE.

Of Nicol Burne we know little but what he tells us himself in his prefatory epistles; and even here the main facts are not very clearly stated. He was brought up from his tender age, he says, in the doctrine of Calvin, which he followed with affection and zeal, till he found by reading some Catholic books that it was but a mass of old and condemned heresies. This, his new position, he then declared himself ready to defend and prove before the General Assembly, or, failing to do so, to suffer any punishment they might be pleased to inflict. He thereupon asked the minister Smeton, in Paisley, if he could have free access to the Assembly which was shortly to be convened in Edinburgh. This offer was made probably some time after July 1580 (when Nicol Burne. the Assembly was held in Dundee) in view of the next meeting which was to take place, in the October following, at Edinburgh. Smeton, it seems, thought the request a fair one, and gave his word that it should be granted. Thereupon preparations were made. Twelve judges were chosen; three noblemen and three ministers by Smeton, and three bishops and three lawyers by Burne. The subjects of discussion were arranged, and the agreement was subscribed in the presence of the Master of Ross and the lairds of Caldwell, Blackhall, and Johnstone, by Burne, who seems to say that he thereupon departed in peace to await the appointed time. But Smeton, without any warning, proceeded to excommunicate his adversary, sent to Edinburgh for letters of caption, sought for him throughout the country, until finally he was apprehended and warded in the Tolbooth of Edinburgh, where he remained from October 14 to January 30 of the following year.

Such is the account which Burne gives "to the Christiane reider." In his epistle to the king he enlarges on the injustice and cruelty done to him. We learn here that he was imprisoned first in the castle of St. Andrews and next in the Edinburgh Tolbooth, not for any evil-doing, but for open profession of his religion; and it remains doubtful whether he had been merely transferred from the one prison to the other, or whether the imprisonment at St. Andrews was not on some previous occasion, that is, prior to the engagement with Smeton. It also appears that he had made open profession of his faith "be plaine disputation bayth at libertie and in presone, to the oppin confusion of the ministeris," who conspired cruelly against his life, accusing him of high treason before the King's Advocate and the Lord-Justice Clerk. The Assizes were twice summoned; but the king, moved by Burne's letter of humble supplication, commanded that no injustice should be done to his "auin schollar." The ministers however, thirsting for his blood (so we are told), invented a new stratagem, by which he was to be starved to death in prison by being deprived of all access to friends who were willing to supply his necessities.

Burne now hung a purse out of the Tolbooth window, craving alms for Christ's sake. His enemies cut down the purse, and gave orders to the gaoler to hinder him sending out any more letters of supplication. But Burne was able to persuade him to carry a petition to the Provost and Town Council for license to beg, and this license he obtained. The ministers, however, obtained an order forbidding him to affix any letter to his purse, or to solicit alms in the name of a scholar. Yet, in spite of all this, charitable persons gave him alms abundantly by way of expressing their ardent desire for the extirpation of heresy and the restoration of the Catholic religion. His enemies now, foiled in their attempts on his life, and fearing that if he remained in the country he would expose their errors, procured his "unnatural banishment," and caused him to find surety in £500 not to return. Further, to bring him into contempt they spread the report among the people that in such conferences as they had with him "in presone" they were entirely victorious. It was in order to expose this fraud, and to show how frivolous and impertinent their reasonings were, that Burne briefly collected his "hail discours and disputation with the Ministers and vther Protestaons in Scotland," and boldly ventured to dedicate his book to the king.

The records of the Church of Scotland do not give us much additional information. The forty-first General

Nicol Burne. Assembly met in the "Ovir-Tolbuith" of Edinburgh on October 20, when Burne had already lain there in prison six days. In their first session the Assembly petitioned the king for some order to be taken with their victim, and in the thirteenth and last session, John Brand, a former monk of Holyrood Abbey, was ordered "to delyver to my Lord-Justice Clerk the kingis majesties command, givin in wryte, for raising of letters against Mr Nicoll Burne."¹ The king may have changed his mind or had the proceedings quashed, for it seems clear that Burne was never brought to trial.

The caution in £500 which Burne was required to give was found for him by Mr Andrew Burne in Leith, George Burne, a brother of Nicol, in Gogar, being cautioner in relief. It is dated 29th January 1587, and bears that he, Nicol, "shall within a month hence depart this realm, and in the mean time do nothing in prejudice of the present religion presently professed" (Register of Privy Council, iii. 328, 355).

It is difficult to gather from the prefaces or the text of Burne's book how much of the dispute was carried on within and how much without the gaol; and it would be interesting to know with certainty who were the ministers who, in the intervals of the business of the General Assembly, adjourned to the prisoner's cell to there discuss theology with the unfortunate man who must have argued at a great disadvantage, as long, at least, as the purse hanging from the window was empty or his dinner doubtful.

Burne tells the reader, "In the beginning of my Conference, being onlie examinat be Maister Andro Meluine, gif I had bene groundit in the Catholik religion or nocht, I anserit according to his interrogationis, and sua I hae put Nicol Burne. the mater in vritt rather in maner of ane Catechisme nor disputatione, euin as it proceidit in verie deid." The first question in the book is, in fact, put by Melville, and throughout the first ten chapters the conference on the side of the ministers is conducted in the same brief catechetical, rather than argumentative, form. We may conclude that this was in the Tolbooth. In Chapter xii. a Mr Blackwood intervenes. Though Melville's name is not repeated, it would appear that he is intended by the initial 'M.' Walter Balcanquhal, minister in Edinburgh, takes up the discussion in Chapter xxi. on the Pope's authority, and John Brand in Chapter xxii. on the succession of Popes. A "Protestant," unnamed, intervenes in Chapters xxiii. and xxiv., and then to our surprise we are told "Heir Smeton tuik on him the disputatione in Paislay in audience of the most honorabil the Maister of Ross, the lairds of Caldual," &c. From the narrative in the preface we should have supposed that Burne, after signing his agreement with Smeton in the presence of these gentlemen, had left Paisley without public parley, but it is evident that at some time there was further dispute at Paisley, and that our book contains record of more than one such dispute; and these are probably not set down in their chronological order. Evidently, too, we do not know all the facts necessary to form a judgment as to Smeton's alleged treachery in the matter of the excommunication and the breach of his compact.

Smeton's part in the discussion occupies about forty pages, dealing with the Judge of Controversies, the Visibility of the Church, and the Calling of John Knox. A "Minister" and a "Protestaon" follow (see note, infra, p. III), and no other disputant is mentioned by name.

Nicol Burne. Sufficient reference is made at p. 144, infra, to Burne's reprint and audacious paraphrase of a poem written by Beza in his unconverted days. Further information will be found in the little volume of Alexandre Machard, Les Juvenilia de Theodore de Bèze; Texte Latin complet, avec la Traduction des Épigrammes et des Épitaphes, et des Recherches sur la Querelle des Juvenilia, Paris, 1879.

Burne's book is printed in good, clear type. The first sheet, a⁸, includes title and prefaces. The text occupies A–Y⁸, Z⁴ (the folios numbered 1–190). The sheet Z is completed by two leaves containing table of contents, a third with some verses of scripture, and on the verso "Imprentit at Pareis, the first day of October, the zeir of God 1581"; and a fourth, with an ornament only.

ADAM KING.

Adam King, a native of Edinburgh, and, as he tells us on his title-page, a professor of philosophy and mathematics at Paris, gives no further account of himself. A Latin "epigram" of ten lines is all that he writes by way of preface to his book. Here he describes the contents of the volume, and shows himself particularly pleased with his Kalendar, and its tables which indicate the changes of the moon, &c., the saints' days, and the holy seasons, "quales Hæresis haud vnquam Caluiniana dedit." This is signed "Ada. Regivs Edimb." This prefatory epigram is followed immediately with "The table of the mouable festis according to the awld Kalendar for 48 yeirs to cume."¹ In the Kalendar

the greater feasts and saints' days are printed in red Adam King. letters (Gothic letters in the reprint). Between sig. i, 6 and 7, should be found "the table of the full seys," which is wanting in many copies. It has been supplied here (between pp. 203-4) by the kindness of Mr John Scott of Halkshill, from a perfect copy in his possession. The whole of this preliminary matter relating to the Kalendar occupies 156 pages. It has evidently been compiled in imitation of, or as an improvement upon, the tables and their explanation, including a tide table for Leith, prefixed by Robert Pont to the Arbuthnot-Bassandyne Bible of 1579,¹ which attracted much attention from Catholic controversialists.

Adam King was most probably himself the translator of the Catechism of Canisius which he prints, though from the wording of the title-page this must remain somewhat uncertain. Mr King Hewison called attention to the fact that Father Dalrymple, in a note to his version of Leslie's History of Scotland, attributes a translation of Canisius to Ninian Winzet. Mr Hewison, however, thinks it possible that Dalrymple may have and Wednesday before Ascension day) was 'Gang days,' that is, Procession days; and the week in which these days fell was called 'Gang week.' "They haue vsed in Rome in their generall processions in gang week to goe to these seuen hils," wrote Jewel in 1611 (Murray's Dictionary). But the form 'Gandokis,' in which okis stands for oulkis or oukis, i.e. weeks, is strange. It is not mentioned by Jamieson, but he gives 'Gandays' as a Sutherlandshire term for certain days or weeks in winter and spring, which do not correspond with the Rogation days. King refers of course to the ecclesiastical Rogation week only.

lam King. mistaken the "Four Scoir thre Questions" for such a translation. In any case, the language of King's edition is very unlike that of Winzet.

Peter Canisius (Van Hondt), the author of this famous Catechism, was a native of Nimeguen, born in 1521. He entered the Jesuit noviciate in 1543, was called to Vienna by Ferdinand I. in 1551, and it was by his labours mainly that the progress of the Reformation was checked in South Germany. His Summa Doctrinæ Christianæ appeared at Vienna in 1554, preceded by an edict of Ferdinand I. ordering its use in the schools of Austria. Canisius died in 1597, and was solemnly beatified by Pius IX. in 1864. The Catechism was disseminated in innumerable editions and abridgments, and was translated into almost every language of Europe. In King's volume it occupies 464 pages.

To the Catechism King adds 84 additional pages, containing "Ane Schorte Vaye," in preparation for Confession, from which some extracts have been here made; and "Certane Deuot Prayers" for various occasions.

ANE SCHORT CATHOLIK CONFESSION. MS.

This manuscript, which was intended to be, as its title shows, a counterblast to Craig's "Negative Confession" of 1581, is preserved in the Barberini Library at Rome, where are found several other valuable documents relating to the Scottish Catholic mission. Cardinal Francis Barberini had been nominated Protector of Scottish Catholics by Pope Urban VIII. in 1623, and exercised that office for more than fifty years, during which time it was his habit to give hospitable entertainment to Scottish pilgrims to Rome;¹ thus many documents relating to the affairs of their country would naturally come into his hands. Cardinal Maffeo Barberini had been Protector before him, 1605. Barberini MS.

The manuscript, which is unfinished, occupies about ninety folios, and is written in a late sixteenth-century court-hand. The first half of the manuscript is written in a different character from that of the second, which is a smaller hand, though of the same school. The paper is also different. The second writer has re-copied, and put in another place, the whole of the chapter "That the Catholik Kirk cannot erre," &c.

There is nothing to indicate the author of this treatise or the exact year of its composition. The quotation from the posthumous tract of Molanus, De Agnis Dei, shows, however, that the "Confession" cannot have been written earlier than 1587. The author also quotes some verses on the Agnus Dei, apparently unpublished, by William Estius, the well-known commentator on the Pauline Epistles. Estius was made Doctor of Theology at Louvain in November 1580, and soon afterwards went to the University of Douai, where he taught for over thirty years. The Scots College of Pont-à-Mousson, before finally settling at Douai, migrated there for three years, 1593 to 1596.

A copy of the Confession, made by Father Stevenson, berini MS. is among the Roman Manuscripts in the Public Record Office, London; and another copy made from the Barberini MS. is in the Signet Library, Edinburgh. Attention was first called to the work in 1883 by Dr Bellesheim in his Geschichte der katholischen Kirche in Schottland, vol. ii. p. 19 (English translation, iii. 22), where a few sentences are quoted; and some notes upon it, communicated by Mr Wood Brown, were read to the Edinburgh Bibliographical Society in 1898.

The treatise begins with a Catholic confession of faith in direct opposition to the Scottish Negative Confession (infra, pp. 249–252). Then comes what is in effect an exposition or defence of this Confession, divided into sections with separate headings, as follows:—

That the Catholik Kirk cannot erre in deciding thinges apperteaning to faithe, fol. 6.

PATRICK ANDERSON, S.J.

Patrick Anderson, a nephew of John Leslie, Bishop of Ross, was educated at the Grammar School of Elgin and at the College of Edinburgh. He went abroad, joined the Jesuits in 1597, and in 1609 was sent on the Scottish mission. But he left Scotland again shortly (1611), and was for some time rector of the Scots College at Rome. He subsequently returned to Scotland, and, in August 1620, was captured in Edinburgh and imprisoned in the Tolbooth, where, like Nicol Burne, he had to undergo several examinations in theology. He was at one time threatened with the torture of the boots, but, after nine months' imprisonment, he was liberated at the intercession, it is said, of the French ambassador. He died in London, September 24, 1624, in the forty-ninth year of his age.

"The Ground of the Catholike and Roman Religion," which was published in 4to, 1623, consists of three parts, each with its own title-page and preface, and with separate pagination. The first part or Introduction consists of 60 pages; the second part dealing with 'the first age or century' of 552 pages; and the third or second century, 174 pages. Father Anderson also compiled "Memoirs of the Scottish Saints," which were preserved, until the French Revolution, in the Scots College at Paris. (Oliver's Collections, p. 16.)

ALEXANDER BAILLIE, O.S.B.

Alexander Baillie entered the Scots College at Rome in 1612, and afterwards became a monk of the order of St. Benedict. He published his "True Information of the unhallowed Offspring," &c., in 1628, the preface being dated from Würzburg 13th January of that year. This work, which consists of 226 pages, 8vo, is divided into three books, the first of which is almost wholly devoted to the lives and morals of the early reformers, to the career of Knox, "his lechorous marriage and execrable death," to Archbishop Hamilton, Queen Mary, and the state of St. Giles and other churches in Scotland. Very curious is the note on the back of the title-page calling attention to the passage in which the author discourses upon the Queen.

The printer was sadly deficient in type, and in the early part of the volume was compelled to use an italic h for the roman h. In the first sixty-three pages w is represented by vu, thus 'vue novu' for 'we now'; but as we are told in the 'Advertisement' at the end of the book, the printer was subsequently able to procure the letter from Frankfurt.

Alexander
Baillie

Baillie does not appear to have visited Scotland since he was a boy. In 1634 he became Administrator of the Scots monastery at Ratisbon, and in the following year, on the death of William Ogilvie, Abbot of Würzburg (to whom his book is dedicated), he went to Würzburg as Administrator of that house. In 1636 he was elected Abbot of Erfurt. In 1639 he was again at Ratisbon as Administrator, and was elected Abbot of that monastery in 1646. He died April 7, 1657, in his sixty-sixth year.

The epitaph on his tomb in the Church of St. James', Ratisbon, is as follows:—

"Admodum reverendus et religiosus Dom Alexander Baillæus, hujus monasterii Abbas bene meritus, qui cum xix annis summa cum laude præfuisset, tandem aere alieno ferme ab ipso soluto, temploque nitide ornato, pie et placide in Domino obdormivit vii Idus Aprilis, Anno Domini MDCLVII, ætatis suæ lxvi."¹

In the reprint of these Selections the spelling of the original editions has been adhered to, with the following exceptions: y has been substituted in the text for z in all cases where the z is an obsolete typographical representative of y. Similarly, th has been substituted for y, initial or medial, where the y stands for th, and is so pronounced. Thus in place of ye, vyer, zeir, I have printed the, vther, yeir. These alterations present no difficulty, while they prevent misconceptions as to the pronunciation of the letters in question. The use of vv (or of vu in Baillie's book) for w was a necessity forced upon the Parisian printer by the want of sufficient type for the letter rarely used in French. There seems no need to perpetuate in a reprint a typographical irregularity, the result of an accident which is plaintively deplored by the author himself, as in the "Advertisement" of Baillie, p. 278. The ordinary w has been, therefore, everywhere substituted for the vv. No other change has been made in this respect, but the reader must be prepared for an endless interchange of u, v, and w throughout. It seems as if the printer was so pleased with his device for representing w, that he continually introduces vv, where there should be a single u or v, or indeed where w or its equivalent is altogether redundant. Thus we find vv for u in vvse, vvsurpes, assvvrit, brvvtuell, ivvgeade, bvvylde, bvvikes; vv for v in vverrie, vvoce, vvoue, evvir, evvin, havve, movvead; and vv redundant with f or u, as in *selfvvu*s and natifvvu. By way of compensation v frequently appears in the place of w, as in varld, varkis, volfis, vylie, vill, vitt; and with these may be compared as a curiosity in spelling vyyues, the plural of vvyf (p. 58, l. 21).

Abbreviations have been extended. The punctuation has been corrected only where the pointing of the original may be misleading. Many possible errors of the press have

be betuix the simple and strenthte defence of ane iust caus, and the craftie coloring of ane lesing.

Be this I may hoip in God that sum reading this my censure of the aduersars writting may perchance lerne sumthing, quhilk of befoir, other thay misknew. or that had foryet efter thay had 5 knawen it and other be lerning or remembrance thair of, cum also to the knaulage of thair dewitie toward God his spous the halie Catholick and Apostolick Kirk, and thair awin saluation. Now gude reader I haue proposit God willing sa schortlie,¹ that I sall nocht be eirksum, and sa modestlie, that nane of the 10 aduersaris fauorers quhow affectionatlie that euer thay embrace his doctrine, sall haue iust occasione to be commouit be ony asperitie of wordis I sall vse. And to begin from the beginning of his buke, quhair of his accustomit modestie, he dois call me ane fule in thir wordis. Ansuer nocht ane fule according to 15 1 Cor. iii. his folishenes. To the quhilk iniure and contumelie I say no thing bot that, quhilk says the Apostle S. Sua to the effect I may be participant of the trew wisdom, quhair of the Apostle meanis, I nocht onlie heir with patience Schir Iohne Knox call me ane fole,² bot alsuay inwartlie in my hart and conscience knawis my self to be ane fole : haueand na mater to gloir in ony wisdom that I haue 25 of my self : bot that I am ane of the weak membris of Jesus

² The text, Prov. xxvi., appears on the title-page of Knox's answer, as follows : " Answer not a foole according to his foolishnes least thou be lyke him ; answer a foole according to his foolishnes least he be wise in his owen conseat," with the following comment : " The contrarietie appearing at the first sight betuix thir twa sentencis stayit for a tyme baith heart to meditate and hand to wryte any thing contrair that blasphemous letter. But when with better mynd God gaue me to consider that whosoever opponis not him self bouldly to blasphemy and manifest leis, differis lytill fra tratouris ; cloking and fostering, so far as in them ly, the treasoun of tratours, and dampnable impietie of those, against whome Gods iuste vengeance mon burne without end, vnles spedie repentance follow : To quyet therefor my owne conscience, I put hand to the pen as followeth."

Christ, participant be his grace, efter the measure of my capacitie of sic wisdome, as he hes teachit his maist deirlye belouit spous the halie Catholick and Apostolick Kirk, be the continuall assistance of his halie spreit according to his promis. Efterwart he

"I have added vnto this preface a meditatioun or prayer thrawin furth of my sorrowful heart and pronounced be my half dead tounge, befoir I was compelled to leaue my flocke of Edinburgh, who now ar dispersed, suffering lytill les calamitie then did the faithfull efter the persecutioun of Steaphen."

 5 liknes nor similitude, bot couered with the scriptures in thair wordes and speaking, or sum othar externe liknes of the Apos-tolis, and trew seruandis of God. And as euerie ane of thame is the mair wicked or author of ane doctrine maist far from the veritie, suay is he in his behalf man craftie to couer him self 10 with sic ane mantill, and thairby maist impudent to vsurp it, that na wais appertenis to him. We knaw weill, that the Apos-tolis, espetialie S. Petir and Paul vsit sic titles, but for certane causes, and of gude richt: lyk alsuay as efter thair days sum doctours of the Catholik kirk, bot with greit humilitie and 15 modestie, and verray seindill, suay that in S. Augustenis epistolis it is neuer found bot anis. And the Papis callis thame bot seruandis of the seruandis of God. Be the contrar all heretikis almaist of all tymes hes vsurped impudentlie the titles of the Aposteles, suay did Manes (as testefies S. Augusten) author and 20 beginner of the Manicheans superstitioun, suay hes done all the fals doctouris of our dayes. Heirfoir gude reader, I beseik the,
 for the affection and zeall thou hes to thy awin saluation, quhair euir thou sall heir or read sic vantouris, nocht to trow hastelie, that thairbie other thay be lyon or scheip, quhobeit thay 25 weare thair skinnis: for in veritie it is great barnelines to be sa hastelie seducit and begylit, especiallie in ane mater of sa greit importance. And the Apostle doith admonis ws to be barnes 1 Cor. xiv. in malice, bot nocht in wit. To this heid apperteanis also, quhilk he writtis, that his followars of Edinburgh sufferit litill 30 les calamitie for his departing, than did the faithfull efter the persecutioune of S. Stephan. For wnto he proue that he defendes that same caus, quhilk S. Stephan did defend and tholit deith for, he will neuer caus me to belue nor grant that other his followars of Edinburgh be lyk the faithfull of Hierusaelem, 35 or thair calamities, quhilk thay sustenit throch his departing, lyk to the affliction of the faithfull of Hierusalem efter the death of Stephan. ³Yit dois he nocht stand in ony way content, haueand cled and habilieth himself with the mantell of the Apostles, and haueand also comparit his affliction and persecution to the persecution of S. Stephane: onles moreouer he declair him self indewed with the spreit of prophecie in thir 5 wordes: The Romane Antechrist salbe destroyet in dispyte of all thois that labour in the contrare. In the quhilk he dois follow the futstoppis of his forfather Martin Luther, quha afor his death desyred this verse to be put on his greaf. Pestis eram viuus, moriens tua mors ero Papa. In veritie he wes 10 ane pest quhen he leuit, nocht onlie becaus he said suay, bot becaus it wes suay in dide be all mennis iugement that knew him weill: suay it wes nothing difficill to him to speik prophecie of that quhilk wes passit in the sicht of all men, bot quhen he com to schaw the thing that wes to cum, the spreit of 15 prophecie falit him. For, quhat euer the Deuill be the ministrie of Luther persuadit to the cuntray of Almanie in his lyf, it hes had bot litill succes efter his death, suay that thair is few cuntrais presentlie in Almanie, quhilkes retenis nocht in sum part the Catholick religioun, quhilk the kirk of Rome professis, 20 and ane greit part of thame quha wes seduced be him, hes verray greit desyre to returne to the Catholick kirk, albeid thay be impeschit be warldlie impedimentis alluterlie contrar to the trew faith and religioun according to the word of Christ, quhilk

John iii. he spak lang tyme ago. Quomodo potestis credere qui gloriam 25 queritis ab inuicem. Suay we may hoip that this prophecie of Sr. Johne Knox, sall cum to the same effect be schort proces of tyme.

As concerning his forme and maner of ansuering, quhilk he vses in all his discurs, I may assure the in feu wordes, that 30 he neuer ansueris to that quhilk was demandit of him: bot euer seikand refugis and bygets, castis in mony other maters by it quhilk is in question, to distrack the readars intentioun and spreit, that he neuer perseawe it quhilk is in controuersie, nor quhou slaulie he ansueris thairto. Moirouer, agains all law of 35 gude resoning, he dois euer bring for probatioun that quhilk is in questione as quhair he will proue that he hes the trew kirk, he vsis this ordinalie for ane probation. We haif the trew kirk, says he, becaus we ar assurit to be mantenit be God, and that we ar gadderit in his name. Now all man may se, that the 5 question betuix him and ws is, quhether thay be gadderit and mantenit be God or nocht. In lyk maner, quhou oft that euer he callis the Pape the Romane Antechrist, or the Messe Idolatrie, he fallis almaist in the lyke falt, to vsurp that as certain, quhilk of it self is maist fals, and repugnant to all veritie, and as con-10 cerning the present disputatione, at the leist, in controuersie.

 To his vanitie appertenis also, that he execratis and condemnis his aduersaris with maist horribill execrationis, bosting the wraith of God to cum on thame, onles that hastelie thay returne to repentance of sic thingis, to the quhilkis (as the discours of his 15 letter schawis) he can nocht ansuer. Gif he wald haue had ony credeit or autoritie, he suld haue first ansuerit sufficientlie to all thinges, quhilke wes obiectit aganis his doctrine: and thairefter he micht haue had sum iust occasione to call his aduersar ane liar and ane blasphemour, bot onmyndfull of his awin dewtie, 20 he can nocht foryet his accustomat modestie to blaspheme and execrat, quhasoeuer opponis thame to his new inuentit euangell.
 As quhair he reproches my language and orthographie,¹ I wald require sum iugement and circumspectione of him and his ministers in that behalf, for quhow impropir that euer my lan-25 guage be I am verray excusabill, be resson of my lang absence from my awin cuntray and hanting of the Latine tounge and vther languagis mair nor my awin. Alwais God willing, I sall speik sua, that I salbe easalie vnderstand. I reid in S. Augustein, that a mannis language is lyk vnto ane plait, or ane vther veschall, 30 and the mater that he proponis to be vnderstand be his language, is lyk the meat that is proponit in the plait: and euin (sais he) as ane hungrie man will litill regard of quhat mater

¹ The reference is to Knox's remark in copying Tyrie's letter, "We keip his awin wordis and ortographie." Also in his preface Knox wrote: "But because in wryting he appeareth to vs, rather scabrushly to haue translatit that which he wrytis furth of Latine, or of sum other forane tounge, then frely to haif expressit his awin mynd."

the plait be, or quhether it be craftelie maid or nocht, bot rather desyris to assuage his hunger with the meat that is proponit: sua a man that hes desyre to feid his spreit, with the weritie, will litill regarde the maner of the language, be the quhilk the veritie is proponit to him, quhether it be polite or eloquent, 5 or simple or rude. Bot Sr Iohne Knox in dide and his ministers hes mister of sum eloquence, that thairthrow thair fals and erronius doctrine quhilk thai defend, being craftelie buskit with polite and exquisite termis appier nocht in the awin forme nor liknes, bot in ane fals and deceatfull garment, that thairthrow it 10 be nocht incontinent espyet, suay that I may say iustlie of thame, quhilk S. Augustin sais to the Manicheans, Superbi loquaces et deerrantes nimis, in quorum ora laqueus diaboli, et viscum confectum ex dulcissimis syllabis nominis Dei Patris et Jesu Christi filii eius redemptoris nostri, et paracleti consolatoris spiritus 15 sancti. Hæc enim non recedunt de ore eorum sed sono tenus et strepitu linguæ. Cæterum, cor inane est veritatis, et dicunt nobis veritas et veritas, et multum nobis eam dicunt et nusquam est in eis. As to me I mak na professione of eloquence, nor yit the caus quhilk I defend hes mister ony wais thair of, becaus 20 the veritie is beautifull aneuch of it self and misteris no uther mantill nor fard to be acceptabill and agreeable to thame, quaha with ane vpricht hart desiris to cum to the vnderstanding of it. Now gude reader to pretermit mony vther thingis, quhilkes of thame selues ar easie to be perceaued be ony man 25 that considderis his haill discurs, I will pas to the mater, first proponand my lettre, thairefter his ansuer, nother eikand nor pearand ane word, last of all I sall subione the refutatioun, quhilk salbe ordourlie obseruit to the fol. 4 r. ALL this discurs is sa vane and sa litill to the propos, that I wat nocht weill at quhat pairt I suld begin. First he sais, that of 15 tuay propositiones quhilkis ar verray trew, I collect ane conclusion maist fals and repugnant to all veritie. Ane Dialectitian wald ansuer, that schir Iohne Knox hes nocht weill considerit the rewlis of Dialectik, to affirme ane fals conclusion to follow of trew premissis. Bot becaus I know his greit occupationis 20 and sollicitude he hes of his wyf and childrine, that he culd nocht tack tent to sic trifflis, I will pas this with silence, and will enter schortlie in the mater. He domandis ws two thingis,

gif we wald establiss the Romane kirk to be the trew kirk. The first is that we schaw quhatsumeuer wes promised to Ierusalem to appertien onlie to the Romane kirk: I ansuer that the promiseis appertenis to ane kirk quhilk suld be Catholick or vniuersall: 5 lyk as we say I beleue the halie Catholick kirk: suay gif na kirk or congregatioun of men quha professis the name of Christ at all tyme hes bene Catholick, nor yit is Catholick except the Romane kirk (quhilk dois nocht onlie comprehend the toun of Rome bot alsuay the haill warld, quhilk in vntie of doctrine 10 dois aggre with it) it followis necessarlie, that quhatsumeuer wes promised to Ierusalem, dois onlie appertene to the Romane kirk. And this to your first demand.

The secund demand is that albeid the promiseis be maid to the Romane kirk we schaw mairour that it hes remanit in the 15 first couenant with oure Saluour. This demand contenis in it ane maist wicked blasphemie: for Schir Iohne Knox supponis that God nicht promiseis that quhilk he wald nocht accomplis, quhilk is no thing els bot to mak him ane liar. Thairfore it requiris na new ansuer, becaus the promiseis of God 20 is ferme and certane, that gif he hes promised to mantene his kirk be the assistance of his holie spreit to the end of the warld, we aucht to be assured thair of quhatsumeuer Schir Iohne Knox say: quhais impudencie and arrogance is so great in this behalf that he apperis mair wicked nor Sathan him self, 25 his Maister. Becaus albeid that the Romane kirk haue the promiseis of God to be mantened, yet onles it proue that it hes bene, and is as yit mantenit, he will gif na credence nor authoritie thairto. And be the contrar albeid he and his ministers be destitute of all promiseis, yet he will quhatsumeuer he says to be 30 embraced as the trew and sincere word of God. Gif his arrogance be greit, I leif the iugement to the reader. As to the place of Hieremie the propheet quhilk ye cite, it makis no thing for your opinione, bot reather is aganis yow, becaus as the text schawis manifestlie, he spak nocht onlie to the preistes bot to 35 the haill multitude, quhome he accusis that thay had maist enormlie transgressit the commandimentis of God, bot becaus the people vsit to obiect to the prophetis, quhen thai wer admonised be thame that thai had the temple of the lord, euin as thairbie thai had bene in greit securitie, and na euill culd befall wnto thame. Hieremie¹ dois reiect sic obiectionis, sayand that sic vane persuasionis will no wais auale thame onles be 5 sincere and onfenyed repentance thai turne wnto God, and leue accordinglie to his law. He denyed nocht as ye affirme that thay had the trew kirk of God and that God was treulie worschepit in the synagoge, bot admonised the people to gloir nocht in that as that thairthrow onlie thai micht pleis God lyk 10 as we say now that it will nocht be proffitable to ws that we haue the trew kirk and the trew doctrine, onles oure lyf and maners correspond thairto. Bot lat ws pas fordwaird.

Ane argument quhilk uset euer to be obiected be Catholick men aganis your new inuented kirk is this, the trew kirk of God 15 aucht euer to be catholick or vniuersall: your kirk hes nocht euer bene vniuersall: thairfore it can nocht be the trew kirk of God. Ye ansver, that quhatsumeuer is vniuersall is nocht consequentlie good, as ye deduce be mony exemples. Quhilk ansuer as euerie man may sie is naway to the propos. Becaus 20 albeit it wer granted to yow that it war nocht sufficient to the trew kirk to be vniuersall, yit ye can nocht denye bot it is necessare. Thairfoir gif ye hed ansuerit to the propois, ye suld haue schawin your kirk to haue bene vniuersall at all tyme.
Bot apperandlie conuicted be your conscience, and be experience 25 it self ye confesse allradie the contrar, and thairfoir reiectand that mark, quhilk of it self is maist euident, and approuit be all scriptures, ye seik refuge to ane vther mark, quhilk is far mair obscure, and onknawin, quhilk is, that the trew kirk of God aucht to be halie. For the halines of the kirk is onlie knawin to 30 him quha doith vnderstand the secretis and heartis of men, and thairby being only knauwin to God it can on naways be ane taikin to ws of the trew kirk. Bot gif ye wald affirme the halines of the kirk to consist in the dew and lauchfull administratioun of the sacramentis and condigne professione of the faith, as ye 35

appeir to allege, ye nicht alsuay thairby perfytlie vnderstand that it is in lykmaner obscur and ane ondecydet controuersie.
 For all heretikes hes continuallie vnto this present hour vsurped that as ane taikin and note for approbatioun of thair kirk. As 5 to the notis and taikines of the trew kirk, thay suld be sua appropriat to it, that thay may nocht be vsurpet be fals propheites be onie meanis, as that the kirk is vniuersall, and that it hes continewall successioun of pastoures: quhilk tuay markis did neuer as yet aggrie to onie assemblee or congregatioun of here-10 tikes. Becaus that all heretikes hes decayet from the trew kirk, suay thair sinagoge at all tymes culd nocht be vniuersall, and be that same resson thay culd neuer be able to schaw contineua-tioun of thair pastoures. Bot did euer gadder to thame selfis, ane ordour of ministeris without onie lauchfull beginning, as 15 testifeis S. Augustin in his questionis of the auld and new testament, saing, quhasoeuer hathe collected thame selfis ane seit nocht in the kirk of God, we affirme it to be the cheir of pestilence. In respect thay do cummer and molest the ondouted ordour begun at Petir, and be continuall successioun of pastoures 20 deducet vnto this present hour making to thame selves ane ordour without beginning, and ane bodie without ane head.
 Quhairfor in respect thais infallible and suir notes of the kirk of God can nocht be no meanes corespond to your sinagoge, it is maist notoriouslie knawin that ye and the remanant of your 25 propheites ar alluterlie separat from the trew kirk. Yet pretermittand that of fiftie sectes quhilkis dois regne this day, euerie ane of thame dois attribuit to thame selfe the rycht administratioun of the sacramentis and the confessioun of faith, and beleues, as ye do, that thay teche na thing bot the sinceir word of God.
 30 To preif that this mark dois on na way conuein to your kirk, for the present I will vse bot ane argument. The richt administratioun of the sacramentis and the confessioun of faith ar onlie notes of the visible kirk: your kirk afoir Iohne Caluin, was inuisible as ye confesse all reddie: Thairfor it culd nocht be 35 knawin be the formar notes, and consequentlie the kirk of God hes bene destitute this monie hundreth yeiris of hir maist certane and infallible markes, quhilk is ane great blasphemie. As quhair ye say that it wilbie verray hard to me and to all thame quhome ye call Iesuists to preif that the Romane kirk onlie is halie, it is nawais hard bot verray easie. Becaus that the halines of the kirk is suay conionet with the forsaid notes, that is, with the 5 vniuersalitie and lauchfull succession of pastouris that it can on na ways be separat. Thairfoir considdering that amangis all congregationis quha profes the name of Christ, thai onlie quha dois adheir to the Romane kirk can be able to schaw sic successioun with vniuersalitie, it followis of necessitie that 10 trew halines dois onlie appertein to thame. And as your sinagoge is destitute of the formar notis, sua of necessitie it is destitute of all halines. Bot Schir Iohne Knox to seduce the semple people dois argument sua, as gif the halines of the kirk culd be separat fra the vniuersalitie thair of, and the lauchfull 15 succession of Paustouris, quhilk is maist fals, erroneus, and repugnant to all scriptures. For the Apostoles did conione thais tuay notes together, I beleif the halie catholick kirk. Becaus the kirk of God, as it is halie, sua it is catholick or vniuersall, and onles Schir Iohne Knox proue his kirk to be catholick, it is 20 impossible that it be halie.

fol. 20 r. Now to cum to the conclusioun of my argument, quhilk wes that gif ye culd nocht schaw in quhat place of the warld your kirk wes, immediatlie afoir this thre hundreth yeir, that it culd nocht be the trew kirk. Ye ansuer it was Hierusalem ane thousand and 25 fyve hundreth yeir syne. Quhilk gif it be direct, ony man may cleirlie vnderstand: for ye do tak and assume that for probatioun of your caus quhilk is in gretast controuersie. Marouer, ye war nocht domandet quhair it wes afoir ane thousand and fyue hundreth yeiris, bot quhair it wes immediatlie afoir threhundreth 30 yeris. Suay as yit, ye haue ansuerit nothing to the propos.
 Thairfoir I will persist in my former demand, and gif your ministers can nocht schaw in quhat place the kirk of God wes immediatlie afoir thir last thre hundret yeiris thai ar constrainit to grant that the inheritance of Christ, quhilk dois comprehend ewer ane greit part of the warld according to all scriptures, was allu-terlie inuisibill and vnknawen, quhilk in it self is repugnant. To be schort I wald domand thame, quhether gif during the tyme of 5 the conceill of Nice, thay quha was estemit for pastouris of the kirk, wer pastouris in verray deide or nocht: for gif thay wer pastoures, the ministers and pastouris of our kirk (considdering thai profes the selfsame doctrine with thame, and is chosin be ane lyk maner of vocatioun to the ministerie of the kirk) ar in 10 lyk wais to be estemit as pastoures. Gif thai quha was in the conceill of Nice wes nocht trew pastouris, I beleue that thay sall nocht be able to name ony trew pastour of the kirk, afoir Iohne Caluin. Quhilk gif it be according to Goddis word (in the quhilk ye appear to gloir) I leue the iugement to the readar.

 kirk of Schir Iohne Knox, be the quhilk he is constranit to grant, that the Doctours and pastouris cited of befoir, dois na way appertene to the kirk of God: for it is maist certane that that kirk, quhilk thay acknowleget wes visible, and manifest to the 20 world. Morower the kirk to be inuisible it is maist erronious and repugnant to all scriptures: for quhat can be more manifest and clier, nor that, quhilk of befoir wes cited of Isaias, the portes of the kirk sall euer be patent baith nicht and day. And that, quhilk almaist all the prophets with ane voce dois testifie, that 25 the kingdome and inheritance of Christ salbe mair triumphant and glorious, nor euer wes ony empyre or kingdome afoir him, and that it sall continew in the former magnificence, to the end of the warld. Bot Sr. Iohne Knox, of lait illuminat be sum new enthusiasme or reuelatioun, will be the contrar, that Sathan his

 Christ for his inheritance hes reserued onlie to him self, ane as being constitute in sic preeminence, and prerogatiue aboute the rest, quhair thay culd nocht at ony tyme be onknawen, and thair- 5 foir he dois call thame the licht of the warld. Quhilk wordes in respect thay ar iustlie referret to the pastours, we do consequentlie imbring that the pastours being knawen, the kirk necessarlie man be visible: and as the licht can nocht be in the darknes, suay the pastours of the kirk can nocht be inuisible. He testifies alsuay, 10 that na man doth licht ane lanterne, putting it vnder ane firloft bot in ane chandler, to the effect the haill hous may haue licht:

 suay gif the euangell of Christ be the lanterne, be verteu of the quhilk the haill warld is illuminat, gif the kirk this mony hundreth yeris hath remanit inuisible, Christ hath collocat his euangell 15 vnder ane firloft, quhik to allege, is ane maist abhominable impietie, and repugnant to Christ himself. He saith alsuay, gif ony man offend you, accuse him to the kirk: than he supposed his Math. xviii. kirk necessarlie to be visible. And as this precept and comand of Christ, can nocht expyre afoir the end of the warld, suay euer 20 to the end of the warld his kirk mon be visible. Moreower, in the fundatioun and beilding of it he certifies ws, that on naways it salbe suppressed or ourcum be ony maner of tribulatioun or Math. xvi. persecution, quhik the experience it self dois maist fullerie de-clair: for in the greuous and horribill persecutionis of Nero, 25 Domitianus, Decius, Diocletianus, and the rest, his kirk nocht onlie wes nocht obscured, or in ony way inuisible, but be the contrar mair declarit and publisht to the warld, in safar that Diocletianus and Maximinianus, throch desperatioun that thay culd nocht exterminat, and abolisse the name of Christ, de- 30 posit thair empyris, suay that we may iustlie affirme with al christiane men that hes bene afoir ws, sanguis martyrum semen ecclesiæ. Sathan your maister be this assault perceauend him self of les strenth, nor that he culd euert the hous of God, did excogitat ane vther assault, na les dangerous and heuy 35 to the pure stock of Christ, that becaus he culd nocht bring thame fra the professionne of the name of Christ, to maist abhominable idolatrie, he did call vp to him self sum extraordinar prophetis lik you, quha in deid wer alluterlie separat frome Christ, bot in externall apparence, apperit to be christianis, to 5 the effect, that mair easalie the pure and simpill people, vnder the pretext of the name of Christ, micht be seduced. Sic extraordinar prophetis hes bene callit heretikis, as we do call you for the present, bot the hous of God, is sa weill beilded, and vpon ane sa firme and sure ground, that this assalt of 10 Sathan, quhou dangerous that euer it be, may na mair nor the former assault. For as testifies Sainct Paul, heresies are permitit, to the effect that thay, quha ar prouin be maid manifest: as he wald say, that be heresies the kirk is mair illustrat, and the veritie is mair tryet, and notoriouslie declaret vnto the warld.

 15 Quhilk in lykmaner, is confirmit be the experience of all agis.
 To begin at Symon Magus, to Martin Luther and Iohne Caluin.
 And in dide we may loue and glorifie God, that for correctioun of his kirk, he hes permittit sic heresies as we see to ryse in our days: for nocht onlie be thame, the Catholick kirk is on na 20 ways ourcum, nor the veritie obscured, that it is maid mair cleir and euident, nor euer it wes afoir. For as to the multitude of Christiane men, it is gretumlie increased sen Luther begouth to preche his fift Euangell, as concerning doctrine and eruditioun, alsueill in scripturis as in histories, antiquities, and all kynd of 25 writtars: it is sa flurishand in the catholick kirk for the present, that, gif we wald compair thir days with thais in the quhilkis Luther begouth, for ane that wes ony way lernit, we ar able to produce ane thousand. As to correctioun of maners to pretermit ane infinit nombre of thame quha from thair Idolatrie ar con-30 uertit to the faith of Christ in sindrie cuntrais, quhair the name of Christ wes nocht afoir acknawlegit, we see sic reformatioun of all kynd of estait, that we haue greit occasioun to loue and glorifie God of his benefites.

As concerning the religioun now professit be the catholick 35 kirk, it is sa tryed be deductioun of all agis, histories, writters, to be that same self religioun, quhik euer hes bene embraced be

Christian men, sen thay begouth, that na man, quha is nocht alluterlie reprobate, or blindit in his awin fantasies, dar deny it. Suay we may easalie perceave, that the force and strenth of Sathan, sall neuer be able to ourthrow the hous of God, nor his ministeris the lauchfull pastouris of the kirk. Quhairthrou it is maist cleir, that the kirk of God, lyk as it wes visible quhen it wes foundet be Christ, and be his Apostolis, suay in dispyte of Sathan and all his accomplexis, quhou greit that euer thair vproir or thundering be, sall romane visible to the end of the world, and the spous of Crist sall euer be able to sing the triumphand and gloriou sang of the quhilk David makis mentioun in hir persone. Sæpe expugnauerunt me a iuuentute mea, etenim non potuerunt mihi. Thairfoir the halie and glorious Doctour Chrysostome says, that it is easier the sone to be priuat and destitute of licht, nor the kirk to be ony wais obscurit. S. Augustene alsuay, quha euer says he dois nocht see the kirk, he is blind. And in ane vther place, the propheites, says he, hes spoken mair cleirly of the kirk nor of Christ, becaus thai knew be the spreit of Prophecie, that amangis thame quha suld profes the name of Christ, thair wes to be mony controuerseis of the kirk, and for that caus, that na man suld be begylit in sa wechtie a mater, thai did speik sa cleirly of it. And albeid the prophetis had nocht forspoken sa euidentlie, that the kirk at all tyme suld be visible, nor yit Christ him self, nor his apostolis had left sa certane and ondoubted testimony thair of: nochtwithstanding the kirk of it self is of sic nature, that it is nocht possible, that it be ordourly continewit and conseruit, onles it be in all agis visible. First becaus it is requisit to the conseruatioun of the kirk (considering it is composed of mortall men) that sum men quha did nocht of befoir appertene vnto it, adione thame thairto than I domand quhow can it be possible, that in all age thair be sum quha do adione thame to the kirk, onles in all age it be visible. Moreower, it is requisit in lykmaner that the pastours of the kirk haue sum power and ordour, be the quhilk thay may be acknowlegit as lauchfull ministers: gif the kirk at ony tyme had bene inuisible, it followis necessarlie that the ministers, quha

10 dois immediatlie succed thairefter, because thay have nocht 15 ressaut thir power and authoritie be the kirk (considdering it wes as than inuisible) be destitute of all authoritie of lauchfull pastoures, suay that na man can be bound or obleist be the 20 law of God, to obey thame, of the quhilk the extreme ruine and exterminione of the kirk dois necesserlie follow. And to be schort I wald demand, gif your kirk, this mony hundreth yearis hes followit, and embraced that maner of wirschiping of God, and administratiune of sacramentis, quhilk the catholick 25 kirk, or as ye call it the papisticall kirk, hes followit or nocht.
 Gif ye ansuer, that it hes followit sic maner of wirschiping of God as the catholick kirk, then I collect necessarlie that your haill kirk wes composet of hypocritis, that is, of thame quha exteriorlie professit ane religione, and inwardlie ane vther, and 30 suay it could nocht be the kirk of God, becaus in our beleif we say, I beleue the catholick kirk. Gif ye ansuer that your kirk hes wirschiped God in ane vther maner, that is, as ye do now, and followit the lyk administratiune of sacramentis as ye do: than I collect necessarlie, that it wes visible: becaus 35 it is nocht possible, that in ane assemblee or congregatiune of men, thay be diuers maners of worschiping of God, and of the administratiune of sacramentis, onles the ane pairt be knawin to the vther: suay of necessitie thay aucht bayth to be visible. I premit, that in all contrais quhair the name of Christ euer hes 40 bene professit, thair is historeis maist faythfullie contenand the beginning, cours, and continuall progres of the kirk, euin vnto this present aige: bot quhow ony historicall narratioun culd haue correspondit to ane inuisible kirk, I can nocht fullalie perceaue.
 As to the authoritie of the ancient fateres, pastoures, counsels, 45 or assembleis of Christian men as said is, be ane vniuersall consent thay confirme this to be trew: in sa far, that all ministers of the world can nocht be able to produce ane in the contrar, quha in ony aige hes bene estemit as ane lauchfull pastour of the kirk. This is the trew citie collocat on the montan, quhilk can 50 nocht be hid. This is the bricht lanterne, quhilk can nocht be in the darknes bot in the sone. This is the hous of God, in the quhilk magnificens and halines or to be found, euin to the end. Lat you nocht heirfoir sa gretumlie be abused, in your awin phantasticall imaginations, as to beleue that quhilk is repugnant to sa manifest scriptures, and cleir testimoneis of the maist ancient fathers: and to conclude contrar to the vniuersall consent of the haill warld afoir you.¹ Bot perchance Schir Iohne Knox hes sum demonstratione, or necessar argument, be the quhilk he is mouit to say the kirk to be inuisible, thairfore

I thocht expedient to adduce his resson, and motiue in that part:
We beleue, says he, the kirk to be catholick, thairfoir it is inuisibill. Thus is ane argument treulie maist subtile and strenthie, be the quhilk Schir Iohne Knox prouis necessarlie (gif he prouis ony thing) that his kirk is as yit inuisible. Becaus gif he wer domandit, quhether gif he beleuis the Catholick kirk or nocht: Gif he ansueris he beleuis nocht, than he wantis the maist chief article of his beleif. Gif he ansuer that he beleuis it, than according to his argument it followis necessarlie, that it is as yit inuisible. Thairfoir he is constrainit to grant that of the forsaid article of the faith, it can be naways prouen the kirk at ony tyme to be inuisible. For quhen the apostoles authoriset, and set furth thais articles, thay did acknowlege the kirk: Bot gif Schir Iohne Knox had bene in thais days, be this argument he wald haue necessarlie collected the contrar, euen aganis the apostolis thame selues. Bot to proceid I will declair the ground quhairupon your ignorance is foundet. We beleif the catholick kirk, and neuertheles we see the pastouris of it, we see the externall administratioun of the sacramentis, we see the outward signes and ceremoneis of religioun: yit to acknowlege thame quho vsis sic exercise of religione, to be the trew kirk of God, and gouernit be his halie spreit, it is necessare we haue fayth: suay at all tyme we beleue the halie and catholick kirk, nocht obstant all exterior appareill, quhilk is obiected to oure senses.
As for exemple, the heretikes seis eidentlie the pastours, quhairof the Catholick kirk consistes, bot in respect al together thay inlaik the verteu of faith, beleuis it nocht to be the trew kirk : thairfoir necessarlie fayth is requesit to beleue the kirk, euin quhen it is maist visible. Nor yit (as ye do maist freuolie and falslie affirme) Thomas beleued that quhilk he saw, bot that quhilk he saw nocht :

 5 he saw Christ as concerning his humane nature, bot be faith he beleued him to be God. Quhairfoir it is manifest, that your argument adduced to prief the inuisibilitie¹ of the kirk, is vane and of na strenth, quhair ye conclude the kirk of God to tak the wingis of ane Egle and flee in the desert, ye cleirlye declair your 10 self ane fals propheet : in respect that Christ hes commandit ws expreslie, to seik him in his kirk, and hes na les expreslie forbiddin to seik him in the desert. Thairfoir his kirk can nocht be in the desert. Bot grantand to you that it had bene in the desert, ye suld haue schawin at mair lenth, quhow lang thair it 15 hade remanit : and maist cheiflie of all, ye suld haue declarit be quhome as principall instrumentis it had bene brocht furth of the desert. For as to ws, we haue sene nane of thame, quhome ye say to haue bene in the desert, bot ane forloppen companie of monkis and freris, nocht out of the desert ; bot of 20 the closter to embrace the libertie of your euangell : suay I feir grethumlee, that in quhatsumeuer desert your kirk wes afoir you, it do as yit thair in remane. Thus I am constranit to say, becaus thair is na thing in the quhilk ye vant mair, nor that Christ hes reseruet to him selfe mony thousandis, quha hes nocht bowit 25 thair knie to Baal. As to you all, considdering ye haue embraced sum tyme our religioun, gif it be fals, ye haue all bowit your knies to Baal : thairfoir of necessitie ye mon all pas to the desert to serce and inquyre thame, quhome Christ hes reserued to him self, and quha hes nocht bowit as yit thair knies to Baal.
 30 Forther, gif your kirk afoir Iohne Caluin wes in the desert, and alluterlie inuisible, ye can nocht be assured in ony ways, quether gif it vsed sic scriptures as we vse or nocht : thairfoir ye haue na iust title (considering ye reiect the autoritie of oure kirk) to vsurpe oure scriptures in ony ways : for lyk as your kirk wes in 35 the desert, suay wes your scriptures, and becaus that na man hes

brocht thame furthe of the desert as yit, we may iustlie suspect that thay be sumpart discrepant from ouris, at the leist ye can nocht be assured in the contrar. Thairfoir of necessitie ye mon proue (considdering the scriptures can nocht be acknawlegit bot be the trew kirk) ether that your inuisibill kirk hes vsit sic scriptures as we vse, or ellis ye can haue na iust title, nor authoritie to vsurpe oure scriptures. 5

As quhair ye say, that Elias be his exempill, dois confirme the kirk at sum tyme to haue bene inuisible: gif we wald grant vnto you that thing quhilk ye maist ernistfullie desire, to wit the kirk during the tyme of Elias to haue bene inuisibill, yit ye war no nerar your propos. First becaus that in the self same tyme, we haue for oure part at the leist Elias, quhome we may produce as witnes aganis yow: ye be the contrar can nocht be able to name ane during the tyme of the inuisibilitie of your kirk. Secundlie the kirk of God hes at na tyme bene sa obscurit nor hid, bot he of his prouidence hes reseruit sindrie, as ane seminar, be quhome he hes prerogat his doctrine to the posteritie. Thairfoir gif ye wald haue followit the exempill of Elias, ye suld haue produced ane at the leist, indewit with the trew wirshiping of God fra quhome it had ordourlie cum vnto yow, and the remanent of your prophetis. For in this maner we reid, that Elias did anoynt, and constitute Heliseus ane propheet. And gif ye wald considder the hail histories of the auld testament, ye sall nocht be abill to find, that in ony tyme the trew wirshiping of God did sa perische, in the quhilk he hes nocht reseruet sum, as said is, as ane seminar to the posteritie. Quhilk, gif we see to haue sa preciselie obseruit in the synagoge, quhik wes bot ane schaddou and vmbre of the trew kirk, and at sum tyme wes to haue ane end: quhat than suld we beleif of the kirk Christ, quha for inheretance hes receaued the hail warld. And as he testifies himself, the seid quhilk he hes plantit, that is his word, sall grow and multiplie euin to the end of the warld. For albeid that it, be persecutioun, heresies, or vther meanis may decay in sum part of the warld: yit vniuersalie it sall nocht decay befor the letter day, quhairfoir the exempill of Elias doth na ways help you. Bot quhat gif I preif euin during 10 15 20 25 30 35

the tyme of Elias, the kirk to haue bene visibill, mycht nocht the haill warld be iust occasioun call you ane maist impudent man, and worthie of all¹ punitioun, quha dois abuse the simple and ignorant people be sic forgett and fals persuasions. Thairfor, 5 that your impudencie be knawin to the haill warld, I ansuer resolutlie, that in the tyme of Elias, and in that self same tyme quhilk ye allege, the kirk of God was visible and manifest in the haill kingdome of Iuda, the sacrifice wes offerit in Hierusalem, the ceremoneis and exercise of religioun wes practised : Iosaphat 10 quha wes than king, was ane of the maist Godlie princes, that euer rang in Iuda : and to be schort, throw his haill empyre, all thing wes to be found quhilk wes ony way requisit to the visibilitie of the kirk, as is manifest in the buikis of the kinges. It is trew, that in the kingdome of Israel the persecutioun wes greit, in sa 15 far, that Elias beleuit that amang the prophetis of God he wes left his alane, bot S. Iohne Knox, other be extreme ignorance, or extreme malice wald collect vniuersallie, that the haill kirk wes than inuisibill, becaus Elias mening of the persecutioun of Achab onlie, and on naway of the kingdome of Iuda did say that he wes 20 left his alane. Thairfor to conclude this argument quhilk vsis to be the cheif ground of the inuisibill kirk of Iohne Caluin, and S. Iohne Knox is alluterlie aganis thame : that onles thair ministeris had lang syne tint all schame, they suld be eschemit of sic vane and fantastical doctrine, contrar to all scripture, to all 25 othoritie, to all resson, foundit on sic freuol and vane imaginations reid S. Augustene, Optatus Mileuitanus, S. Hierome, Tertullian, S. Cypriane, and thair ye will find at lenth, quhatsueuer I haue brocht aganis you. Quhilk I say to that effect, that the reader perceauie that ye haue vsit na vther argumentis, for the confirma- 30 tioun of the maist cheif ground and pillar of your religioun, that is to establis your inuisibill kirk, nor thay quha in all agis hes bene estemit as heretikis : And that I, be the contrar to proue the kirk to be visible in all age, and to haue continuall successioun of lauchfull pastours and doctouris, do vse na vther argumentis

fol. 56 v. It hes bene commone to all fals prophetis sen the beginning of the kirk of God, to haif coloured thair venome with sum honest denominatioun: for thay did maist cleirlye vnderstand, 5 gif thai had professit oppinlye thame selues to be sic men as thay war in deid, thay wald haue bene destitute of all concurrence and audience. Quhairfoir willing to clock thair impietie, thay altogether allegit, as ye do presentlie, that thay professit onlie the pure and sincere word of God, as to begin at Symon 10 Magus, quha callit him self the veray verteu of God. Manicheus in lykmaner did call himself Apostle of God. Mahometus affirmeth him to haue receaued his law out of the hand of God. And laitlie Luther and Caluin, with thair accomplies dois maist arrogantlie vant thame selues, that all thair doctrine 15 proceedis from the instinctioun of the halie spreit. Suay ye schaw cleirlye, that ye do follow in this behalf the futstoppes of fals prophetis that has bene afoir you, quha euer without all probation (as ye do presentlie) did maist arrogantlie vsurpe to thame self that quhilk ye vsurp. 20

As quhair ye allege, the man of sin to be reuelit in the seat of Rome, it is sa far repugnant to the veritie, that it is maist cleirlye, and euidentlie prouen be the word of God, and continuatioun of Pastoures of all agis, the bischop of Rome to be the successour of Petir, and pastour of the vniuersall kirk: that na man, quha 25 wald nocht schaw utter ignorance conioyned with extreme malice, dar deny it. Gif ye wald haue had ony authoritie, or credit, ye suld nocht haue spoken in sa wechtie ane mater, without all probatioun as ye do, euin as your authoritie wer sufficient, to persuade to all man, all to be trew, quhatsoever apperis to your 30 phantasticall brane. Thairfoir quhomekill that euer ye gloir in your awin vanitie and foleschenes, it is easie to euerie man, quha will diligentlie inquire your authoritie, and vocatioun to the preching of the word, the continuatioun ad successioun of your allegit kirk that ye do naways appartene to the kirk of God: bot that ye ar of this prophetis, of the quhilkis S. Paull makis mentione writtand to Tymothie in this maner. 2 Tim. iii.

- 5 Consider, and acknowlege that in the last days thair sall cum perrolus tymes, in the quhilkis salbe men, luffars of thair awin selues, couatous, presumptious, proud, blasphemours, inobedient to thair parents, onthankfull, onhalie, without mutuall affectioun, trucebrekers, fals accusars, palliards, rude and onmeik, 10 despysars of the gude, tratours, hedic, vantars, luffars of thame selues mair than of God, hauand outwardlie ane colour and apperance of halines, bot inwartlie reiectand the verteu and strenth thair of: Turne away thairfoir from suche.

- This gude reader, I haue written schortlie, according to my 15 promis, quhairby I beleue all thing to be suffitientlie refuted, quhilk Sr Iohn Knoxe hes ansuered to my letter. As to his Ministers I will thay vnderstand that thay haue ado with ressonable men, and with men quha hes als great desyre of the kingdome of heuin and lyf euerlesting, as thay haue (to say na 20 forther) sua I dout na thing, gif (all contentioun and vane multiplicatioun of wordis being put asyde) thay ansuer directlie without all subterfuge, to that thing, quhilk is in questione or controuersie, that it salbe easie to euerie man to espy quha defendis the richt caus, and quha intentis the wrang. Vther 25 wais, it wilbe mair expedient to thame to keip silence, and ansuer no thing at all, nor to expose thame self troch sic wane subterfugis as thay ordinarlie vse, to be mocked an scorned be all men quha readis thair writtingis.

There must be heresies that they quha are approued may be knowen among yow. 1 Cor. ii.

I beseik yow brethren that ye marke them quha causis dissension and offenses contraire the doctrine quhilk ye haue learned, and auoide them, for sick serues nocht Christ oure lord, bot their owne bellie, and with faire speeche and flattering seduces the hartes of the innocents. Rom. xvi.

I knowe, that efter my departing sal grievous wolues entre in among yow, nocht sparing the flocke, and of yowr owne selues sal men arise speaking peruerse things, to drawe disciples after them. Acts xx.

To the Nobilitie of Scotland Iohne Hay wisheth grace and peace.

THE humanitie quhilk it pleasit yow to schaw me quhen I was in Scotland, hes mowead me to tak the bawldness to wreat wnto yow, that I swild nocht appear to be onthankfll of the said benefeit, quhilk I aucht iustlie to esteme sa lang as I liwe. For 5 being in that contrie onlie for the releafe of my helthe, and that, be the adwyse and iwgeament of the Phisicians in thir partes, qwha iwgeade that there was no other way to releafe me, yit I fand so greit inhumanitie in theam, quha callis theame selfws Ministers of Goddess word, that thaye wald nocht permit wnto me the use of my 10 naturell and natifwe aire, quhilk they denye nocht ewin to the brwtuell bestes, and wald nocht refuse to ane Turk or pagane : quhairby I wald hewe hed iuste occasione to lament the great wnkyndnes of my natifwe contrie towart me war nocht on the other part I did experiment quhow there proceadings aganest me 15 was on no waye aggreable wnto yow perseawand that in yowr hartes the awld and accwstomett cowrtisie dois ewir remane (quhilk I desyre of God to increass from daye to daye) and that all inhumanitie and barbaritie quhilk swme tyme is schawen to theam that deserwes it nocht, proceades onlie from theam quha 20 wsurpes to there selwues the tytle of ministres of God, albeitt in werrie dead they aucht no way to be nummerit in that rang, quhilk quhen I was thaire I was radie to declare : for suppose by all ordre of lawe I was swmonde (being in the northe partes of Scotland) to compeare in Striueling with in thre dayes, yit I pre-25 sentead my self at the tym prefixed. And efter that I hade conferred with thame I schew planelie that I was contente to giwe reason of my faythe afoir oure yowng maesters maiestie and yow quhilk na way thay wald accorde to, as being asswrit that ye seing the eqwitie of my cawse, ye swld perseawe that the Ministers head nocht ane so asswrede groound of there doctrene as thay profes thame selfwes to hawe: for the qwhilk caws thay wald on na wayes entre in sic reasoneing and conference qwhilk thay did 5 forsie to be maist preiudiciall to there doctrene. Therfore nocht heffand the moyen be there refwse to giwe reason in your presence of sik thinges as concernes the controwersie of religion in thir dayes, I am constranead, for the discharge of my conscience, to propone ane certaine nommer of qwestiones or demandes vnto 10 thame, to the ende that efter¹ ye heawe read and considred the said demandes, and cawsit the Ministers ansowr directlie therto ye may easelie persawe that the doctreine quhilk is professed in Scotland is na other thing bot other the inuention of Iohne Calvin, or ane rapsodie of awld condemned heresies manie hwn- 15 drethe yeares afoir, quhilk I hoip in God ye sell do, and prayes him to illwminet yowr hartes to acknowlege the treuthe and to assist yow with his holie sprit, that ye fwlfilland his holie com-mandementes may be participant of the lyiff eternell. At Pariss,

Yours most humble and obedient Seruiteure, Iohne Hay.

I DEMAND in the first of the Ministers of Scotland, that thay schaw the confession of faith, vsed in the Inglishe congregation at Geneua, receaued and approued be thame in thair new erected kirk of Scotland, and prefixit and set furth in the beginning of 5 thair psalme buik, to haue bene acknauledged be ony christian people, at any tyme before Ihone Caluin.

Quhether gyf the Euangell of Christ was preached in the realme of Scotland, at any tyme before Paull Methven,¹ and schir Ihone Knox, or nocht.

10 Sen na man aucht to preach any doctrine, bot that quhilk he hes learned in the kirk of God, becaus (as testifies saint Paull) Rom. x. fayth commes of heiring, I demand fra quhat doctors or pastours, Ihone Caluin, and Schir Ihone Knox, lerned thair new doctrine, quhilk is preached in the realme of Scotland.

¹ Paul Methuen, originally a baker of Dundee, was one of the early Reformers. In July 1560 he was appointed minister of Jedburgh, and in that and the following year was a member of the General Assembly. His name is perhaps mentioned here because of his subsequent disgrace, which must have been still fresh in the memory of the Scottish Church. In 1563 he was deposed and excommunicated for adultery with his servant. The terrible punishment to which he was sentenced in 1566 on his repentance and humble request "to be receaved as a poore sheep in the bosome of the kirk" is described by Calderwood (Wodrow Soc., vol. ii. 322), who, as if thinking of the derision of Catholics, remarks in reference to Methuen's summary deprivation (p. 210), "How manie of the Popish rable have beene and yitt remaine knowne whoormongers, adulterers, violators of virgins, yea, and committers of suche abominatiouns as we will not name, and yitt are called and acknowledged bishops, archbishops, cardinals and pops."

Rom. x. And seeing it is wretin that na man preach except he be send,
I demand be quhat power Schir Ihone Knox, with wtheris Apostats, Preistes, Monkes, and freirs, tuke wpon thame sic vocation.

Sen ye acknowledge in your confession of fayth, that the 5 sacramentz aucht onlie to be ministred be such as be ordinarie vocation are thervnto called, I demand gyf your vocation wnto the ministerie, be lyk wnto the calling of all wthers, that hes preceidit yow in Christes kirk sance the Apostles quhome ye and we bayth, reputes and haldes to be lawfull pastours and 10 teachers of his flok, as Cyprian, Athanase, Augustin, Ambroise, and diuers vthers, and wishis yow to schaw in all points, the conformitie of your vocation with thairs.

Seing efter the discours of the election of your Ministers, Elders, and Deacons, ye acknowledge that the scriptures makes 15 mention of a fourt kynd of Ministers, left to the kirk of Christ, quhilk also ar werie necessare an profitabill, and ar called Ephes. iv. teachers or doctors, quhais office is to instruct and teach the I Cor. xii. faithfull in sound doctrine, providing with all diligence, that the puritie of the gospel be nocht corrupt, either through ignorance, 20 or evill opinioun, I pray yow to schaw at quhat tyme any doctors of sic calling hes bene in your kirk afore Caluin: becaus the places of Scripture notet be yow, declares and teaches God to have appointed sik meanes in his kirk, that it sould not be left desolate, nor yit his doctrine decay, for default of doctors and 25 teachers.

Also seing ye confesse in the same place, that men can not so weill profite in the foresaid knowledge, except thay be first instructed in the touniges and humaine sciences (for now God wirkes nocht commounlie be miracles) and therefore it is neces- 30 sarie that seid be sawin for the tyme to come, to the intent that the kirk be not left barren and waist to the posteritie, and also that for this effect scoles be erected quhairin youth may be trained in the knowledge and feare of God, I demand quhy ye 5 admittit at the first entres of your doctrine in Scotland, and yit dois, tailyeours, skinnars and wther artisans and workmen, quha war newer instructed bot in thair awin craft and wocation, quhilk thai left and abiured, and at thair awin hand without any farder calling to the ministerie, begouth to teache the people, 10 hawing for all learning ane onlie protocole of thair preachings, some Inglishe buikes, quhilks skairslie thay wnderstude thame selwes.

Seing amangs wther heids of your alledgit faith, this be the principall, that na thing sould be belewed, bot that thing quhilk 15 is in the wretin word, I demand quhat testimonie ye haue in the same for assurance of your faith in this point: And quhether the fayth of the Apostles was grounded on the wretin wourd or nocht.

Gyf ye beleve that the infants aucht to be baptised, and that 20 the Sounday in place of the Sabaothe aucht to be keiped, and that the blissed wirgen Marie did forevir remain a virgen: Quhat wretin wourd have ye for establishing your faith tharin.

Quhair is it wretin that thair is onlie four Evangelistes? and that the Evangell of saint Matthew vith the wther thre aucht 25 to be receaved, and not the Evangell of saint Thomas? Or quhat autoritie moved yow to receave any canonicall scripture and refuse the wther? Or gyf ony man deny ony buik of the new testament (as Martin Luther dois the Epistle of saint Iames) quhat argument have ye of the scripture to condamne him?

30 Sen ye gyf so gret autoritie to the Sinagogue of the Iewis, that according to thair canon ye admit and reiect the buikes of the scripture, Quhy gyf ye not the lyk authoritie to the Christian kirk, quhilk hes preceidit yow, in receaving sic buikes as ar approved be it for canonicale scripture.

Seing your maister Caluin doutes nocht the epistle to the Hebreus to be Canonick, albeit he affirme, that nather be Paull, 5 nor be ony Apostle it was wretin, and werie laetlie received amangs the bwikes of the new testament, Quhy will ye nocht admit all these bwikes, quhilk be the lyk authoritie, hes bene admitted and approwed for Canonick scripture. As Esdras, Tobias, Iudith, Wisdome, Ecclesiasticus, Macabees, and wthers, 10 albeit thay be nocht contened in the Canon of the Hebreus. And gyf the onlie caus that mowes yow to reiect thir bwikes, is becaus thay war not approved be the Sinagogue of the Iewis, Quhy be the same raison reiect ye nocht Christ, seing the said Sinagogue wald nocht admit him for thair Messias? 15

13.

Gyf it be the office of the kirk to decerne betvene Canonick scripture, and not Canonick, as Luther, Brence, and some wthers of your awin maisters dois confesse, Quhy sould nocht the same self kirk be hard in gewing interpretation of ony doutfull place 20 called in controuersie? Or quhy call ye mair in dout the interpretation of the scripture gewin be the kirk, nor the buikes thame selves. Or quhy prefer ye the priuate opinion of Caluin, and of your selwes, to the wniuersall and wniforme consent of all Christian people afore yow? Seing the sprite of God is promised 25 to the wniuersall kirk, and to nan of yow in particulare.

Quhy esteme ye that ye have ane infallibill mark of the trew religion, becaus ye cite onlie the wretin wourd? Sen that hes bene commoun to all heretiks from the beginning: Or quhat have ye mair for you nor thay had in this point.

15.

Gyf the scripture be so facill as ye teache it to be, quhat hes moved your wretars to make sua mony commentaires, and that sua repugnant and contrarious, thairvpon. Or quhat is the cause of sua gret controuersies in religion, as ar presentlie in our dayes, 5 yea evin on the expresse wourdes of the testament of our lord, quhilks according to the nature of ane testament aucht to be maist cleir.

Gyf the priuate iudgement of everie man, conferring scripture with scripture, be ane certane and infallibill reull of rycht inter-10 pretation as ye say, Quhow is it that sua mony contradictions ar found in your wrets? ganesayng nocht onlie ane, ane vther: bot also your selves, as in your buikes is euident.

Seing the Lutheran, the Zuinglian, and the Caluinist, by ane infinite number of wther sectes, alledges everie ane the wrettin 15 wourd, for confirmation of thair contrarious opinions: whow sall it be knawin to any man that wald resolue him self in maiters of religion, quhilk of thame hes the trew wourd? Considering it is the trew intelligence that makes the wourd, and nocht the outward sounding of the woce: As testifies Christ quha obiected 20 to the Saduces that thay misknew the scriptures becaus thay Mat. xxii.

Quhy deny ye ony credite to be given to Traditions, contrare the expresse command of the Apostle, quhen he wryttes to the Thessalonians in this maner: "Stand and keip the traditions 25 quhilk ye have learned ather be wourd, or be our epistle:" And 2 Thess. ii. also contrare the doctrine of all the ancient doctores, of Christes kirk. Or quhow haif ye the scripture it self bot be Tradition, and sen ye wil gyf na place to Traditions, quhat assurance can ye have that sen the natiuitie of Christ, thair is onlie 1580 yeiris, 30 or quhether gyf it be leasome to christian men to call this in dout or nocht.

1 Cor. xi. Gyf na Traditions aucht to be receaved, schau me quhair these things ar wretin, quhilk saint Paull promised to set in ordour at his comming to the Corinthians. For gyf al things was contened in the wretin wourd quhilk the Corinthians had resaved, quhat mistered saint Paull to promise to put the 5 rest in ordour at his comming, cheiflie concerning the lords suppar.

20.

Of the Kirk. Sen Christ sayes gyf thy bruther wil not heer the, tel it wnto the kirk, and gyf he refuse to heer the kirk also, lat him be to the as ane heathen and publicain, and therefore willis his kirk 10 to be iudge in controuersies concerning doctrine and maners, quhow sall a man find the kirk gyf it be invisible, and quhy affirme ye it so to haue bene, seing na recours can be had to ane invisible iudge.

Quhow lang esteme ye that your kirk hes bene invisible, and 15 gyf induring the tyme of this invisibilitie thair of, thair was ony Ministers that preached the wourd of God, and administrate the sacraments, as thay ar now in the realme of Scotland: and quha war thay that during that tyme opponed thame selves to all heresies, and confuted the same, seing ye acknowledge with vss 20 sindrie heresies to haue bene almaist in all aiges.

22.

Quhair reid ye that the Evangell of Christ Iesus, sould be at ony tyme sua suppress, that na man publiklie sould professe the same, induring the space of sua mony hundreth yeires, as ye 25 alledge it to haw bene: sen in the contrare we find that Christ 25 calles the ministers of his wourd the lycht of the world, and commandes thame to preach in publick, that quhilk thay hard in priuie.

Mat. v.

23.

Quhy spoilye ye Christ Iesus of his inheritance quhilk was promised to him be his eternall father, and forespoken be the 30

Prophetes, affirming with the Donatistes ane vniversal defection Ps. ii. from Christ, sua that na contrey of the warld thir mony hundreth yeires by past hes outwardlie professed his Evangell.

Sen Christ hes reiected the Sinagogue of the Iewes, and erected 5 and builded ane kirk of the Gentils wnto him self, quhilk he hes promised to assist and meantein to the end of the warld : Quhow can it be possible that the kirk of Christ against his said promise hes beine swa mony yeires invisible as ye suppose : seing that the said Sinagogue nochtwithstanding the reiection thairof, hes ever 10 bene visible, as it is yit presentlie in diuers contreys. Swa that be your fals alledgence, ewin efter the reiection of it, it hes further prerogatiwe, nor ye gif to the kirk of Christ.

Seing ye confesse with your maister Caluin, the Romane kirk some tyme to hawe bene the trew kirk : in quhat tyme and aige 15 suppose ye that it decayed sua that the adherents thairof, be raison of idolatrie, could nocht be saued.

Quhat is the cause that in your kirk ye wil haue na bishops 1 Pet. v. seing from the Apostles dayes to this present, the bishops hes Tit. i. had the cheif place and administration of the kirk of God : and Heb. xiii.
20 ar so cleirly recommendit be saints Petir and Paul. Acts xx.

Seing God hes given some Apostels, some Prophetes, Euan- Ephes. iv.
gelistes and pastours, for the gathering together of the saints, and for the edification of the body of Christ (quhilk is his kirk) to the end of the warld : I requyre yow, gif ye be members of the 25 said body of Christ, to schaw your doctours and pastours quha hes succedit sen the Apostles with continuation of ane vniforme doctrine ? As the Catholiks has done alreddie.

Gyf ye esteme the ancient Fathers, as Irineus, Athanasius, Chrisostomus, Hierosme, Ambroise, Augustin and the rest, to have bene trew pastours and doctours of the kirk of God: Quhy esteme ye not vss also to be trew Christians, sen we professe the same doctrine quhilk thay taught? Gyf ye esteme 5 thame to have bene fals doctours and pastours, I desire that ye declare the same in plain wourdes.

Quhether is the generall assemblie subiect to the king, and sould be called in his authoritie, or nocht, Gyf it be subiect, quhy refuse ye your statuts to be examined be his counsell? Gyf 10 ye say it is not subiect, Quhy deny ye that to the king of Scotland, quhilk your brethrene of England grantes wnto thair Quene.

Sen swa mony Papes of Rome hes tholed and suffered martyrdom for the Euangell, and war lawfull bischops as ye confesse your selwes: I demand quha was the first idolatour that 15 sat in that seate as ye suppose, and fra quhilk pape call ye ws Papistes?

Quhy rail ye swa mekle against the seate of Rome, sen be that seate all heretiks hes bene convict and condemned? quhilk is ane euident taken that it is of God: And gyf ye hawe the trew 20 kirk as ye alledge, schaw that ewer ony of yours hes opponed thame selves to ony heresie afore our Dayes.

Quhy fallow ye the fustestepes of the Donatistes, quha called the Cheare of Rome the cheare of pestilence, or quhou could it have bene possible that the seate of Rome could have gainstand 25 and preualed against all kind of persecutions sen the beginning, and against swa mony infidels and heretiks, gyf it had bene the cheare of pestilence as ye say.

Gyf the sacramentes be onlie outvard taiknes and seales, as ye Sacramentes.
 teache, quhat prerogatiue gyf ye to the sacramentes of the Euangell, above the sacramentes of the auld law?

Seing ye teache that fayth assures you of grace receaved before 5 the reception of the sacramentes, quhow can ye say bot thay be altogether invtile, and can gyf na further confirmation, forsmekle as quhair assurance of grace is alreddy, na confirmation is requyred.

Quhy affirme ye the sacramentes to be of na valoure, except Baptism.
 10 thai be receaved be faith, and nocht withstanding baptises the infantes quha can receive nathing be faith.

Quhy affirme ye contrare the doctrine of our lord Iesus Christ quhen he sayes: except that a man be borne againe of water, Joh. iii. and of the haly spreit, he can nocht enter in the kingdome of 15 God. And also against the vniuersall tradition of the haly kirk, that the infantes may be saved without baptisme.

Quhy abuse ye the people, teaching that the infantes without baptisme obtaines remission of thair sinnes be the faith of thair parents? Sen the faith of parents can not impesche thame to be 20 borne in originall sinne, and the sones of wraithe as witnesses

Quhy affirme ye that the Sacrament of Baptisme can nocht be Rom. iii. and 1. administrate without ane sermon or preaching, seing that saint Ephes. ii.
 Paul separats the office of the administration of Baptisme from 1 Cor. i.

the office of preaching of the Euangell. Or quhat auailes preaching maid to ane infant quha hes nocht wse of iudgement and raison.

Sen your principall Ministers doutes gyf the Baptisme administrat be wnlawfull ministers be trew baptisme, and ye your selves denyes the catholick preistes to be lawfull ministers of the kirk, quhou can ye quha ar baptised be thame compt your selues in the number of these that ar treulie baptised.

40.

Sen baptisme as ye teiche, can nocht consist without preaching and na preaching was maid at the' tyme ye war baptised, Quhat assurance can ye have that ye ar yit baptised?

41.

Quhy affirme ye with your maister Caluin that the Sacrament of Baptisme aucht onlie to be administrat to thame, quha hes alreddy obtained remission of thair sinnes? Sen thair of fallowes maist euidentialie, that the infantes begotten of infidele parentes, sould nocht alutirlie be baptised, becaus thay can nocht resave remission of thair sinnes be the faith of thair parentes, quhen thay ar infideles or wnfaiethfull.

42.

Quhy reiect ye the ceremonies of baptisme, quhilk at all tyme hes bene vsed in the Kirk of God sen the Apostles dayes, name quhat aage ye please? Or whou can ye defend your maister Caluin, quha is nocht escheamed to affirme that in the primitiue kirk, the rycht and lafull administration of baptisme was alreddy corrupted.

43.

Confirmation. Quhy deny ye the sacrament of confirmation? Sen it is sua cleirlye expressed in the actes of the Apostles quha be the imposition of handes gave the haly ghost, and also confirmed be all anciant wrytters, yea reteined yit in the kirk of Ingland.

Quhether aucht we to beleif rather our lord Iesus Christ quhen he said in the latter supper, tak eat, this is my body, quhilk salbe gevin for yow: or Caluin your maister, quha sayes that he gewen onlie ane signe or figure of his body? Or quhair reid ye that 5 thir wourdes, this is my body, sould be vnderstand, this is ane figure of my body.

The lordes supper.

Mat. xxvi.
Marc. xiv.
Luc. xxii.
I Cor. xi.

45.

Gyf the body of our lord Iesus Christ be nocht realie in the sacrament of the alter, quhy affirme ye with your maister Caluin, that in this sacrament, be the spreit of God, these thinges ar 10 conjoined together, quhilks ar separate, that is the body of Christ quhilk is in hewin, with wss quha ar in earthe.

Quhy affirme ye that we receawe the body of Christ realie be faith, gyf it be nocht realie present in the sacrament, sen our faith can nocht mak that thing to be, quhilk is nocht, swa gyf his 15 body be nocht thair realie, we can nocht beleve that we receave it realie, except we dissave our selves.

In quhat scripture reid ye that quhilk ye profes with your maister Caluin, that quhen ye receave the sacrament, Christ is maid verelie present wnto yow, nocht that he sould be on the 20 earthe quhair ye ar, bot that ye sould be lifted wp to the heavin quhair he is. And to quhilk of the heavines was the Apostels lifted, quhen thay hade our lord Iesus Christ present in the latter supper with thame.

Quhy attribute ye mair to your faith, nor to the omnipotent 25 powar of God? sayand that be your faith ye ar treulie lifted wp to the heavin, (and swa at ane tyme ye ar in heavin and earthe) and denyand that Christ may mak his body realie present in earthe and heavin at anis.

Quhair reid ye that quhilk your maister Caluin affirmes?
Mediator noster in cæna speciali modo præsentem se exhibet, sic tamen ut totus adsit, non totum: that is, Our Mediator in the supper after a speciall maner geueth him self present: but yet so that whole he is present, nocht the whole that he is.

Sen before ye pas to your communion, ye confesse ye eate the body of our lord Iesus Christ be faith, Quhat auailes the suppar wnto you? Or is it nocht better aluterlie to abstein, sen in the receaving of it thair is na farder profite, and gyf ye receive it wnworthelie, ye receive your avin condemnation, as testifies

51.

Penitence.

Quhy deny ye the sacrament of Penitence, be the quhilk the lawfull Ministers of Gods wourd, as instrumentes of his maiestie, gives remission of sinnes, according to the wourde of our lord Iesus Christ: quhais sinnes ye remit, thay ar remitted wnto thame, and quhais sinnes ye retein, thay are reteined.

52.

Ordoure.

Mat. x.

Luc. ix.

Marc. vii.

Joh. xvii. and xx.

Acts xiii.

Tit. i.

Quhy deny the ordoure to be ane Sacrament, sen your maister Caluin dois confesse maist evidentlie it to be ane Sacrament, as is also maist manifest in Godes wourd.

Extreme

Vnction.

Epist. i.

Quhy deny ye the Sacrament of extreme vnction, sen the Apostle saint James speikes sua manifestlie of it, sayand: Is any seake amang you lat him call for the preistes of the kirk, and lat thame pray wpon him annointing him with oyle, in the name of the lord.

Quhy deny ye the Sacrament of Mariage, sen saint Paul Marriage. testifies in plane wourdes that it is a Sacrament, and quhy lies Caluin your maister, affirming that na man wntil the tyme of Ephes. v.
 Gregorie first of that name, Pape of Rome, ever saw that it 5 was given for ane Sacrament, seing saint Ambroise, saint Augustin, and wther doctors lang afore Gregorie in maist manifest wourdes affirms it to be ane sacrament.

Quhou can ye in thir pointes purge you of extreme sacrilege and impietie, that ye have taken away the Sacramentes quhilks 10 our lord Iesus Christ hes appointed in his kirk, for remission of sinnes, consolation and sanctification of the faithfull.

Quhy permit ye any man to marie, his first wyfe being alyve sen S. Paul writes, The woman quhilk is in subiection to ane man, hir husband being on lyve, is bound to the law, bot gyf hir 15 husband be deade, she is delivered frome the law of the husband, thairfore quhill hir husband leveth, gyf she tak ane other man, she salbe called ane adulteresse.

Sen S. Paul testifies thame quha maries efter the woue of 1 Tim. v.
 Chastetie to incurre damnation, quhat hes moved your apostats, 20 preists, monkes and freres to attempt mariage efter solemne promise of Chastetie and so to wilfullie condemne thame selves.

Sen the cheif wirschipping of God standes in Sacrifice, quhat Sacrifice. is the caus, that ye deny ony trew and perfyte Sacrifice to be amangs Christians? and quhy deny ye that Christ offered ane 25 Sacrifice in the latter supper, efter the ordour of Melchisedech, Luc. xii.

1 Cor. xi.
Ps. cix.
Heb. v.

sen he is called ane preist efter that ordoure, and swa behuved to fulfill that sacrifice quhilk was prefigure be Melchisedech in bread and wyne, as the vniversall kirk of God wnto this tyme hes wnderstand.

59.

Sen the ancient doctours of Christes kirk be the cleane sacrifice 5 quhilk Malachias did preunuce and forespeake, that sould be offered frome the rysing of the sunne vnto the going donne of the same in everie place hes ever wnderstand the Sacrifice of the body and blude of Christ, quhilk is offered in the Messe wnder the formes of bread and wyne, quhat assurance can ony man have in 10 his conscience to reiect thame all, and follow ony new invented and forged interpretation of Caluin in the contrare, or to beliue Caluin quhen he sayes in maist expresse wourdes that the ancient wryters, Irineus, Athanasius, and Arnobius, quhen thay interpret sua the sacrifice of Melchisedech, and the oblation of the quhilk 15 Malachias speakes did contravein to the institution of Christ.

Iustification. Quhy affirme ye that our sinnes ar never remitted to wss bot ewer dois remaine still in our heartes, contrare the article of our beleif, quhair we say we beleve the remission of sinnes, and against the merites of the blude and passion of our lord Iesus 20 Christ, quhilk wald be of na strenth gyf we thairbe obtained na remission of our sinnes.

Quhy affirme ye that we ar maid iust be faith onlie, be the quhilk we persuaid our selwes that our sinnes ar nocht imputed to wss, throu the werty of the blude of Christ, sen na sic thing is 25 found in Godes wourd.

Quhy affirme ye that ye ar so assured that your sinnes ar nocht imputed to you, as ye ar assured that God is in heavin? becaus ye beleve the ane and the wther be ane faith as ye say, and yit nochtwithstanding ye pray daily in the lordes prayer that your 30 sinnes be forgevin to yow, quhen ye say, forgeve vs our trespasses, as we forgeve thame that trespasses against wss, quhilk prayer is nocht necessare gyf your alledgence be treu.

Quhy affirme ye that we ar rather iustified be faith, nor be 5 Charitie, sen Charitie is mair perfite nor faith, as witnessis saint Paul, saying: Nou abydeyth faith, hoip, and Charitie, evin thir 1 Cor. xiii. thre, bot the cheifest of thame is Charitie.

Quhy affirme ye that the workes quhilks proceides of the grace of God, makes nocht vss iust in his sycht, contrare the expres 10 wourd of God: ye sie quhou that of workes a man is iustified and nocht of faith onlie, as sayes saint Iames. Jas. ii.

Quhy deny ye our workes quhilks proceides of the grace of God to merite ony thing at his hand, contrare the expres wourd, in the quhilk he promises the kingdome of heavin for the revaird 15 of gude workes and at the latter day sall pronounce his sentence othir of eternall lyfe or damnation, according to everie mans workes.

Quhy affirme ye that all our workes quhou gude thay appeare to be, ar nathing bot sinne in the sicht of God, sen it is impos-20 sible that any worke be gude and evill at aines, and in the scripture we reid of sindrie that hes bene commendit be thair gude workes. Or gyf all our workes be sinnes, it is alyke to spoilye ane pure man and to gyf him almes, except that the ane is les sinne nor the wther.

68.

Free Will. In taking away frie wil, and inducing absolute necessitie, quhou may ye delyver your self of that poysanabill erreure first induced amangs Christians be Simon Magus, and efter him fallowed wnhappellie be the Manicheens and sindrie wthers.

69.

Quhhou expone ye ane infinite number of scriptures in the 5 quhilk we reid that it is gevin to man to his chose, gyf he vil do gude or ewill, or quhat auailles the commandementes gevin be God, and your daily preachings and exhortations, gyf ane man have na frie will bot be constrained be necessitie to do quhat somever he dois, and quhat difference make ye betuene the action of ane 10 man, and of ane beast, gyf the will of man be subiect to necessitie as is the appetite and inclination of beastes.

Quhy wse ye the Pillar of repentance, and does punishe the transgressours of your lawes, sen ye teache that thay ar predestinate and constrained be necessitie to transgres the same. 15

1 Jo. v. Seing that saint Ihone testifies that quha ever hes Charitie keipes the commandementes of God, saying: This is the Charitie of God, that we keip his commandementes, and quha sayes that he knowes God, and keipes nocht his commandementes is a lier.
And sen we reid in the scripture that the Apostles and sindrie 20 wthers hes aknowledgit God, and had charitie, and consequentlie hes keiped the commandementes: Quhy say ye against the maist expres wourd of God, that na man may keip his commandementes.
Or quhy said Christ gyf ye wil enter in the lyf ewerlesting, keip Mat. xix. the commandementes, gyf it be impossible to any man to keip 25 thame.

Quhy affirme ye with Caluin your maister that quha so ewer hes aines imbraced the lycht of your Evangell can never perishe, considering that mony quha hes bene of your secte, yea ministers of the first rang, hes retourned and ar deid in the catholik faith, 5 and sua according to your doctrine aluterlie perishis.

Seing on the ane pairt ye teache that the spottes of sinne Purgatorie.
 remanes sua lang as men leveth, and on the wther denyes bayth place, and tyme of cleanging efter thair departing: quhow can ye eschew to declare manifestlie, that nane at all enteris in 10 heavin, or elles that thay quha enteres, remanes with thair spottes of sinne, quhilk is expres against the haly wret.

Sen our lord Iesus Christ sayes that he quha sinnes against Mat. xiv.
 the haly ghost, sall nocht obtain remission of his sinnes, nother in this world nor in the world to come, quhy deny the remis-15 sion of sinnes in the world to come, and that the prayer for the deid auailes nathing, contrare the wniversall consent of the ancient Doctours of the kirk of God.

75.

Sen ye can nocht deny bot the historie of the Macabees is ane trew historie, quhy deny ye the prayer for the deid quhilk is 20 rehersed thairin, as ane confirmed and wndouted sentence of religion.

Quhy reiect ye the invocation of Sainctes as idolatrie, sen it hes bene ever sen the beginning imbraced be the kirk, and confirmed be sua mony miracles.

Quhy say ye that we are iniurious to Christ, quha is onlie mediatour, quhen we desyre the Sainctes quha ar glorified in heavin, to help wss with thair prayers, sen saint Paul did na iniurie to him, quhen he desyred to be helped with the prayers of the Romans and Corinthians, quha war than sinnars and mortall 5 men.

Quhy say ye againes the scripture, that the Sainctes heires Mat. xxii. nocht our prayers be raisone thay ar deid, sen Christ sayes that God is nocht the God of the deid, bot of the leving, and quhow can the Sainctes in heavin be blythe of our repentance and con- 10 version, as our lord Iesus Christ affirmes, except thay aknow-Luc. xv. ledge the same.

Eschame ye nocht to foster the people in sindrie wyild re-proches agains the blissed virgin Marie moder off God, or can it be supponit that ye lwif the sone, quhen ye speik sua con- 15 temptouslie of the moder.

80.

Gyf all thay that hes erected images in the temple of God be idolators, quhou can ye delyver Moyse of that spote, or defend that God him self was nocht authour of idolatrie sen he commandit images to be maid for that effect. 20

Quhy sall the images of our lord Iesus Christ, of his glorious mother, and of the Apostles, be compted wnleasome and wncleane, contraire the accustomed vse of the kirk, and the images of Caluin, Beza, Jupiter, and Venus, quhilks some of yow hes in your cabinets, be compted lawfull. 25

Quhy have ye renewed sua mony auld heresies, condemned sua mony hundreth yeires be the vniuersall kirk of God.

And namelie, quhy have ye renewed the heresie of Simon Magus, denyand the frie will of man.

84.

Quhy have ye renewed the heresie of the Pepuzians, affirming that distinction of ordour and degrie aucht nocht to be obserued 5 in the kirk of God.

85.

Quhy have ye renewed the heresie of the Novatians, denyand that be the sacrament of penitence all sinnes ar forgevin.

86.

Quhy have ye renewed the heresies of the Manicheans, denyand the watter of Baptisme to avall ony thing to our Saluation.

87.

10 Quhy have ye renewed the heresies of the Donatists, teaching that the kirk of God hes perished in the haill world, except in some obscure corners, and that saint Ihone the Baptists Baptisme, was nocht different from the Christian Baptisme institute be our lord Iesus Christ.

88.

15 Quhy have ye renewed the heresies of Aërius teaching that it is nocht leasome to offer sacrifice for the dead, and that thair is na difference betwene ane bishop and ane simple preist, and that the fasting dayes appointed be the kirk, aucht nocht to be keiped, bot that everie man sould fast ac-20 cording to his avin wil and pleasure.

Quhy have ye renewed the heresie of Eunomius, that be faith onlie, man may obtien lyfe everlasting.

90.

Quhy have ye renewed the heresie of the Pelagians, teaching that the infants may be saved without Baptisme.

91.

Quhy have ye renewed the heresies of Jouinianus, teaching mariage to be als acceptable to God as wirginitie, and that it is leasome to monks and nonnes to marie.

Quhy have ye renewed the heresies of Vigilantius, deniand the invocation of Sainctes, and the honoring of the reliques of the martyrs.

93.

Quhy have ye renewed the heresie of Eustachians affirmand that it is nocht liesum to gang in Pilgramege to halie and deuot places.

94.

Quhy have ye renewed the heresie of the Iconomachians, breking doune the Images of our lord Iesus Christ, and of his Sainctes.

95.

Quhy have ye renewed the heresie of Berengarius, deniand the body and blude of our lord Iesus Christ, to be realie in the Sacrament of the altar.

Quhy have ye renewed many wther heresies, of the Albigenses, Waldenses, Wiclefits, Hussits, of Abailhardus, of Almaricus, and of wthers detestable heretiks condemned many yeires sence be the kirk of God.

Quhy have ye followed the foresaid heretikes in these points onlie in the quhilk thay have dissented from the haill kirk of God, and reiected the rest of thair doctrine.

98.

Quhy is your maister Caluin nocht content to have re-5 newed sua mony damnable heresies, bot also hes invented mony wther blasphemies of his avin.

Blasphemies
 of Caluin.

99.

Is nocht Caluin your maister blasphemous, contrare God the 5 father, quhen he denyes the omnipotent pouer of God, wryting that God may do na thing by the established ordour of the world, and that he may nocht do ony thing by that quhilk in the haly wret, he hes promised to do, quhilk doctrine is contrarious to the first article of our beleif, and to the expres wretin 10 wourd.

Is nocht Caluin your maister blasphemous contrare God the sone, quhen he wrytes that it is aluterlie absurde to say that God the sone takes his essence from God the father, or quhow can ye purge hyme of the maist detestable heresie of Arrius in 15 this point.

101.

Is nocht your maister Caluin blasphemous contrare the haly ghost, quhen he wrytes that the holy ghost takes nocht his essence nother of the father nor yit of the sone, or quhow can ye purge hyme of the heresie of Macedonius in this point.

Is nocht your maister Caluin blasphemous contrare the holy ghost, quhen he wrytes that the povar of the holy ghost was restricted to teache the Apostels that thing onlie, quhilk thay had hard afore of Christes avin mouthe: sen Christ him self affirms the contrare, saying to his Apostles, I have mony 25 thinges to say vnto yow, bot ye can nocht beare thame now, quhen he is come quha is the spreit of weritie, he sall teache Jo. xvi.

Is nocht Caluin your maister blasphemous contrare the holy Trinitie, quhen he teaches the personnes of the Trinitie to be onlie properties subsistens pute in ordour in the essence of God, and quhat differs Caluin in this doctrine fra Sabellius, quha estemed the thre personnes to be thre proprieties in the nature 5 of God, and nocht thre existences distinct the ane from the wther.

104.

Is nocht your maister Caluin blasphemous contrare the holy Trinitie, quhen he findes falt with the Catholiks becaus thay invoke the holy Trinitie, saying: Holy Trinitie ane God have 10 mercy wpone wss.

105.

Is nocht Caluin your maister blasphemous against the gudnes of God, quhen he teaches that God hes created some men to that end, that he may condemne thame eternallie: and that Adam becaus he was predestinate to sinne, he could nocht auoid 15 sinne.

106.

Is nocht Caluin your maister blasphemous contrare the gudnes of God, quhen he makes God authour of sinne, in sic maner that he mowes and inclines the heartes of men to sinne, affirming that the incest of Absalon was the werie 20 worke of God: sen the scripture testifies that the wiked and his wikednes ar both lyke hated of God, and that he hates
Sap. xiv. na thing, quhairof he is authour and maker.
Sap. xiii.

107.

Is nocht your maister Caluin blasphemous contrare Christ, quhen he teaches that Christ was ane ignorant, and that as he 25 grew in aige, sua increased he in gyftes of wisdome and wnderstanding.

108.

Is nocht Caluin your maister blasphemous quhen he affirms that Christ in the twelf chapter of saint Luke did nocht prove be ane firme and solide reasone, bot onlie be ane probable coniecture, that he eieted nocht the devillis be the powar of 5 Sathan.

109.

Is nocht Caluin your maister blasphemous contrare Christ, quhen he teaches that he merited na thing till him self, contrare the expres wourd of God.

110.

Is nocht your maister Caluin blasphemous contrare the blude 10 of Christ, quhen he sayes that Christes passion and deathe had availed ws na thing, except in the saul he had suffered the terrible tourmentes of ane damned and forsaken man.

111.

Is not Caluin your maister blasphemous against Christ quhen he sayes that he pronounced the horrible wourdes of desperation 15 being on the crosse.

Is nocht Caluin your maister blasphemous quhen he denyes that Christ descendit to hell, contrare ane article of our beleif.

Is nocht Caluin your maister blasphemous against Christ quhen he reiectes the interpretations of the passages of the auld 20 testament, maid be our lord Iesus Christ and his Apostles.

Is nocht Caluin your maister blasphemous contrare Christ, quhen he sayes that Christ efter his resurrection wanted some thing necessare to the perfyte glorie of the resurrection.

115.

Is nocht your maister Caluin blasphemous against Christ quhen he sayes, that he hes nocht the markes of his blissed fyve woundes, maid in his syde be the speir, and in his handes and feit be the nales.

116.

Is nocht your maister Caluin blasphemous contrare the Angels : 5 quhen he sayes that the thre hierarchies and nyne ordours of the Angels is vanitie, and that the blissed Angels serues nocht God perfytlie and without sinne.

117.

Is nocht your maister Caluin blasphemous contrare the Apostles saying that thay war commandit to teache onlie that thing, that 10 thay hed hard before of Christes mouthe, sen it is certaine that thay have teached sindrie wther thinges.

Is nocht Caluin your maister blasphemous contrare the Euan- gelists, quhen he sayes that thay haiff nocht schavin cleirlie and wndouttedlie, that our lord Iesus Christ is come of the seid of 15 David.

119.

Is nocht Caluin your maister blasphemous contrare the Patri- archs Abraham and Jacob, quhen he sayes that Abraham contrare the will of God, and the lawfull ordour of nature peruerted the law of matrimonie, quhen he tuke Agar to his wyf, and that ane 20 of Jacobs vyfues was ane brigseister till hir seister.

120.

To conclude. Is nocht your maister Caluin blasphemous contrare the haill faithfull, quhen he denyes contrare the word of Ps. xxxiii. God, everie ane of thame to have his Angel keiper.
and xc.
Mat. xviii.

121.

Quhy is nocht Caluin content to have renewed auld condemned heresies, and to have blasphemed God and his creatoures as said is, bot also for forder confirmation of his errours lieth mair impudentlie of the Catholiks, nor ever did Jew or Turke:
 5 alledging that the first and principall article of the secret diuinitie that reigneth amangs wss, is that thair is no God, and that the secound is, that all thinges that ar wretin and taught concerning Christ ar lies and deceits, and thridlie that we affirme that the doctrine of the lyfe to come, and of the last resurrection 10 ar mere fables.

Quhy ar ye nocht esscheamed (fallowing the futesteps of your said maister Caluin) to lie on wss in your preachings, saying: that we put all our confidence in our gude workes, that we mak na accompt of the gyft of faith, that we attribute na 15 thing to Christes passion and merites, that we prefer saint Anthoine, or saint Frances to Christ, that we honour the Pape of Rome for ane God, that we tak na compt of the holy wret, that we wirschip stanes and deade men for Godes, and that we adore ane peace bread for God, and that we say that ane man be 20 his avin free wil without the grace of God may keip his comandementes, and that we teache many wther absurdities quhilks with thir now reheirsed, aluterlie we detest and abhorre.

Quhether gyf your reformation, quhilk ye have maid in the Reformation. realme of Scotland, in pulling doune of the kirkes, is lykar to the 25 reformation of Turkes and Paganes, nor to ane reformation maid be Christian men.

Quhat moved you to abolish in all pairtes the signe of the haly crosse, quhilk ever hes bene the signe and mark of all trew Christian men, and is so fearefull evin to the devill him self, or 30 quhow ar ye nocht his Ministers in this behalff?

Seing the Donatistes in the dayes of Constantinus the gret war esteemed be the wniversall kirk to be maist wicked men for the wesching and scraping of the altars on the quhilks the Catholiks had offerred sacrifice, quhou can ye purge your selves of gretter cryme, sen he have aluterlie pulled doune and abolished the 5 same.

Quhether in making stables of the kirks of Scotland, sua that the hors war stabled on our kings graves, and in raising vp the bones of Christian men, resembled ye rather to be Christians, or infideles and paganes. 10

127.

Quhy distroyed ye our kings graves and monumentes, as wngodlie and wnleasome, and now hes erected some mair somptuous in your cheif kirk of Edimburgh to inferiours and subiects?

Quhat moved yow to birne the holy reliques of Saints, quha war temples and tabernacles of the holy ghost quhen thay war on 15 lyve, quhilks amangs all christians sen the Apostles dayes hes bene haldin in honour and weneration.

129.

Quhy brint ye the wretings of the doctours and fathers, as of saint Ambroise, saint Augustin, saint Hierosme and wthers, and yit esschames nocht to say that ye professe ane faith with 20 thame.

130.

Quhair is the weritie and effect of your solemne protestations, promising that your reformation was nocht to disposses ony Magistrat, quhen nocht onlie ye have raisit wprore in the contrey, and expelled the cheif Magistrats, bot in your preach- 25

ings plainlie wald thrall all kings and kingdoms, and have thame subiect to election, and punisment of the people, setting furthe your buikes thairvpon.

Quhy in the beginning of your new Euangell preached ye 5 libertie of conscience, and now constraines all men to subscriue your new doctrine, yea thame quhome ye know to belewe the contrare.

132.

Quhy preached ye quhen ye first vsurped authoritie to preache, that the Ministers of the wourd aucht to profess 10 and observe povertie, as the Apostles did, and presentlie nane in the realme ar so covetous as ye ar, nocht onlie to give money vpon land, bot also for ockre.

Quhy pretend ye to have the benefices and patrimonie of the kirk, sen ye can nocht schav your selves laful heires and suc-15 cessours to thame, quha war rychteous possessours thair of afore you, and quhy have ye reiected as idolatrie, all that appartheneith to thame quhome ye call Papistes, except onlie the patrimonie and leaving of the kirk. Or gyf thair was na kirk in Scotland afore your comming, quhy pretend ye as patrimonie ony wther 20 thing nor hes bene given to your congregation alreddy.

Quhy have ye given the patrimonie of the kirk in few to your wyfes and bairnes, and quhether do ye any preiudice or nocht to your successours in this point.

135.

Seing quhair ordour is nocht, behuveth to be confusion: be 25 quhat schift can ye eschew the same quhen everie ane of yow wilbe equall to ane wther.

Quhat scripture or historiographour, or authentike writer have ye for your yeirly election of Superintendents, Elders, and wther officers in your congregation.

137.

Sen that the name Superintendent is drevin from ane Latine wourd, and the name Bischop from ane Greek wourd, quhow is it that ye admit the ane, and refuses theȝwther maist wsed, seing thay tend baith to ane effect. 5 138.

Quhy mak ye difference betwene the Ministers and Deacons sen baith the wourdes signifies ane thing.

139.

Quhether gyf ony of yow quha hes aines accepted the office of ministerie, may embrace any seculare vocation or nocht. 10

140.

Quhether it becomes ecclesiasticall men as Ministers, Elders, Deacons and Readers, to have ane certain apparell quhairbe thai may be knawin be the laical people, or to be cled as wanflars.

141.

Gyf it be expedient that the Elders and Deacons be participant of the rentes of the kirk, sen thay ar participant of the paines and trawell in governing the same. 15

142.

Sen everie subiect is oblished in his conscience, as witnesses saint Paul, to obey the iust lawes of his Magistrat, quhy with your ewill exemple of eating flesche on Frydayes, Saterdayes, and in Lentren contrare the lawes of the realme, move ye the people to transgres the same. 20

143.

Quhy punish ye onlie the pure be your stuill of repentance, and quhy punish ye nocht blasphemie, slauchter, and wther sinnes, als weill as fornication.

Sen ane spreit could nocht move king David and wther Godlie 5 kings of Scotland to big sua mony kirkes, Colleges and Abbayes, and you to distroy the same, quhilk of the tua iustlie may be estemed to be moved be the gude spreit, and quhilk be the evill.

Quhov mony kirkes, Colleges, Hospitals, brigges and wther 10 sic workes, have ye erected, founded or bigged in the realme of Scotland for the comon weill as did our kirk men.

Quhat consent of doctrine have ye keiped, ather with your nychtbours round about you, or yit with your selves, sen the beginning of your preaching.

147.

15 As for exemple, gyf ye sing all ane sang concerning the iudiciall lawes of Moyses, quhether thay obliss Christians or nocht.

Concerning the question of Superioritie and ordour in the kirk, ar your bischops and ye accordit?

149.

20 Gyf Charitie hes the lyk effect into you all, in sic sort that ye compt it altogether wngodlie and wneasome to forgive the slauchter of the fater and neir freind. Or gyf some of you remaines yit convict be the expresse wourds of the Evangell in the contrare sentence.

Gyf with ane consent ye grant the lyke authoritie vnto the ciuil Magistrat, in to ecclesiasticall maiters, as in temporall: or gyf in this point ye remain as yit in difference, and dissention amangs your selves?

151.

Dar ye as yit continow to fallow the horrible imprecations maid in particular be schir Ihone Knox against the Quenes maiestie and some wther of hir trew leiges, or gyf thair be some of you that desistes thairfra, thinking the desyre of condemnation of ony saul to be altogether wnleasome.

152.

Concerning the sleiping of saules vnto the day of iudgement, have ye as yit taken ony wniuersall resolution to defend, that it is ane heresie, or in the same remanes still sua ambiguous, that some of you knauin to be Ministers of the best learned, and nocht in the lawest rang, publickly professes that errour for treu doctrine.

Gyf ye have ony certain nombre of causes of diuorcement in mariage, or gyf ye feinye and practise new causes, approved be some and improved be wthers?

154.

Seing everie ane for the defence of his opinion (quhou erroneous that ever it be) alledges the wretin wourd, is it nocht evident that of the wourd ye mak ane neis of walx, thraving it to quhat contrarietie or absurditie ye list.

Quhether maa pure was nurished daylie be almes of Abbay places? Or maa householders maid beggars this day be your preaching?

Gyf all that was in the auld catholike kirk was compted idolatrie, and thairfore aucht to be castin away, quhy brigue ye sua extremle against the secret counsell, and the courteours for procuring of the teinds, and of grettar benefices wnto your selves.

- 5 Quhether is thair gretar troubles for the teindes presentlie, nor was in the catholiks tyme, and gyf the commouns hes obtained ane perpetuall discharge of thair teindes conforme to the Ministers promise at the first setting furthe of thair new Evangell.

158.

- 10 Quether sen the Ministers of this new Evangell obtained place to governe the realme, thair is amangs Scottismen gretar charitie, lautie and treuth nor was befoir.

159.

- Quhair reid ye that it is leasome to¹excommunicat the father for the sone, as ye wald practise, sen Ezechiel wrytes that the 15 sone aucht nocht to be punished for the fateres sinne.

Quhair reid ye that it is leasome to pronounce the sentence of excommunication against thame quha never communicat with you, and was never subiect to your iurisdiction.

161.

- 20 Quhy admit ye to your communion sic as ye know to have disiuned largelie before, the same sua drunken that they know nocht quhat thay do, and wthers quhome ye know to be adulterars, menslayers, and gyltie of wther maist hainous crymes, of the quhilks thay have nocht schavin na repentance.

162.

Quhy wesie ye nocht ye seik efter your maister Caluins ordinance, and gevis thame nocht the Sacrament at thair departing.

163.

Concerning your publick fasting, quhy ar ye sua bakvard, that contrare the ordinance and observation of the ancient kirk ye institute the same on the Sounday as did the Manicheans, quha 5 thairfore be the haille kirk war estemed to be execrable.

164.

Quhy have ye reiected the observation of thay dayes, quhilks for the remembrance of the benefice of our redemption, hes ever sen the tyme of the Apostles bene observed amangs all Christian people: as of the natiuitie of our lord, of his resurrection, and 10 wthers?

165.

Quhy constraine ye the people to labour on sic dayes, and appearandlie wald abolish in thair heartes all memorie of the benefices of Christ, or quhair reid ye that in ony aige the Ministers of Gods wourd hes ever commanded ony sic thing, and 15 quhou aggree ye with your bretheren the Ministers of Ingland in this point, quha yit keipes the haly dayes?

166.

Quether gyf this your doings tendes to the abolition of all memorie of our lord Iesus Christ or nocht? sen alreddy some of yow doutes in quhat tyme of the yeir he was borne, quether in 20 winter or in sommer, sua that appearandlie your nixt dout salbe, quether he was borne or nocht, quhilk appears to be the end and conclusion of your new Evangell.

Conclusion.

Christien reader sen be thir demandes thow perceaves alradie that the religion quhilk at this present is professed in the realme of Scotland, is nocht so soleid and trew as perchance afoir thow beleawed, and therfoir wald be glaid to vnderstand be quhat way
 5 thow mycht establis thy conscience in this maist dangerous days: I can gewe the na better consell nor that quhilk saint Augustin gewes in the leik cas wreatand to Honoratus in this maner. Sell we feir to repois our selves in the bosoom of that kirk quhilk hes obtaned the swpreme authoritie be the succes-10 sion of bischops from the cheare of Petir, nochtwithstanding the barking of heretiks againis it, quha partlie hes bean condemned ewin be the iwgeament of the people, paertlie be the authoritie of coonselles, and paertlie throw the strenthe and force of miracles. Of the quhilk succession of bischops he makes mention in his
 15 epistle ane hundrethe sextie fyve wreatand, Our lord said to Petir, vpon this roik I wil bwyld my kirk, and the yettes of hell sell nocht owrcome it. To Petir succeded Linus, to Linus Clemens, to Clemens Anacletus, to Anacletus Euaristus, to Euaristus Alexander, to Alexander Sixtus, to Sixtus Thelesphorus, to Thelesphorus Iginus, to Iginus Anycetis, to Anycetis
 20 Pius, to Pius Soter, to Soter Eleutherius, to Eleutherius Victor, to Victor Zepherinus, to Zepherinus Calixtus, to Calixtus Vrbanus, to Vrbanus Pontianus, to Pontianus Antherus, to Antherus Fabianus, to Fabianus Cornelius, to Cornelius Lucius, to Lucius 25 Stephanus, to Stephanus Xystus, to Xystus Dionysius, to Dionysius Felix, to Felix Enthichianus, to Enthichianus Gaius, to Gaius Marcellinus, to Marcellinus Eusebius, to Eusebius Miltiades, to Miltiades Sylvester, to Sylvester Marcus, to Marcus Julius, to Julius Liberius, to Liberius Damasus, to Damasus Siricius, to 30 Siricius Anastasius. In this ordour of succession there is no Donatist to be foond. So gwid Reader giwe thow will follow S. Augustins consell thou may bawldlie repoise thy selfe in the Romain kirk quhilk was dwrande his aage. And giwe in that aage thow findes the contraire confession of faythe to that quhilk presentlie is professed in Scotland behwethe that thow reiecte the confession of fayithe of Scotland is fals and perniciowse. Bot giwe perchance thow wil nocht follow saint Augustines coonseell for the estableness of thy conscience, bot rather the coonseell of Ihone Caluin, or Schir Ihone Knox, I pray the at the leist 5 considre diligentlie that quhilk Ihone Caluin wraites in the fourt buik of his Institutiones quhair in maist expres wordes he testifies that in S. Augustines dayes there was na thing cheangeat in the doctrin of the Apostles, so that that Religione quhilk S. Augustin professed and the vniuersall kirk in that aage was maist trew and 10 sinceir, and Schir Ihone knox in his appellatione to the nobilitie of Scotland testifies the same: and theirfore albeit thou wald ollow the iudgement of Ihone Caluin, and Schir Ihone Knox for to resolwe thy self in all controuerseis quhilks ar in thir dayis, yit it behowis the according to thair doctrine to inquire diligentlie 15 quhat was professed in the kirk of God durand S. Augusteins dayis, and to embrace it with all humilitie as the trew religione of Christ. Bot becaus perchance thow hes nather commoditie of buiks, nor leasor to mak sic inquisitione I will releave and help the in that behalff and in soume cheaf materes of controuersie, I 20 will schaw quhat wes in S. Augusteins aage the sentence of the kirk.

In S. Augusteins dayis the sacrifice of the bodie and bluid of our lord Jesus Christ, quhilk in the same tyme wes called the Messe, wes vsed in the kirk of God, as hie testifeis, sayand: The 25 sacrifice eftir the ordre of Aaron is takin away, and the sacrifice eftir the ordre of Melchisedec in the bodie and bluid of Christ is vsitt in everie place. The quhilk sacrifice (as hie declaris in the sewinttein buik of the Citie of God) succedit to all the sacrifices of the awld testament.

In the dayis of S. Augustein the trew Christians beleved that the bodie and bluid of our lord Iesus Christ wes reallie in the sacrament of the aulter as testifeis S. Augustin in this maner wretand: Christ twik his flesche of the Virgine Marie, and that 35 same flesche hie geawe wss to eatte for our saluatioun, and no man eates that flesche excepte hie first adore it.

In the dayis of S. Augustin, the kirk of God beleved that the sacrifice of the Mess was propitiatoir as S. Augustin testifies, sayand, quhan the sacrifice of the aulter is offrit for thame quha ar nocht alluterlie ewill, it is propitiatoire and obtains remissione 5 fra God to thame for quhilks it is offred.

In the dayis of S. Augustin it was the custume of the kirk to say Mess for the dead, as S. Augustin testifies wretand that his mother Monica desyred that efter hir deceiss the Sacrifice of the bodie and bluid of Christ suld be offered for hir.

10 In the dayes of S. Augustin the kirk of God beleaved that Purgatorie was, in the quhilk the saules that depairted from this lyiff, nocht haiwand obtained full remissione of thair synnes, was purgeat befor thay entret in the kingdome of heawin, as testifies S. Augustin quhen he wreates. Quhasoewer depairtes frome this 15 wardle withe ony spott of synne, other is eternalie condemned, or elles he most be purged with the fyre of Purgatorie.

In the dayes of S. Augustin the inuocation of Sainctes was used in the kirk of God. The Christian people, sayes he, keapes and obserwes the halie dayes of the Martyres, to that effect, that 20 thay may be walkned to follov thair fuitsteps, and be maid participant of thair merites, and helpit with thair prayers, and [in] the twentie twa buik of the Citie of God he confirms the same be experience, writtand quhow hyme self being present, ane yowng called woman Palladia was miracolouslie delyveret from ane 25 Parlesie be the inuocation of saint Stewean.

In the dayes of S. Augustin, the Images of our lord Iesus Christ was in use, for saint Augustin testifies that the Gentiles feingyeit that oure lord head writin some epistles to S. Petir and S. Pavl, as to theme quha was familier with hyme, and that the 30 caus of this errowr was becaus thay head sein in mony places the images of Petir and Paull painted with the image of Christ.

In the dayes of S. Augustin, the lentren was keiped, as testifies S. Augustin wretand, be the obseruation of the lentren, the ewill ar discerned from the guid, the Pagane frome the Christian, and 35 the heretike frome the faythfull. In lyik maner the haly dayes as Yuill, Pasche, Witsonday, and wthers was obserued as is manifest in sindrie places of his vuarkes. And in the same aage it was iugead be the kirk off God wnleasome and sklanderous to command or ordain ony fasting on the Sounday as the Ministers of Scotland hes done. The lyik I mycht easelie schaw of all other maters called in controuersie be the Ministers, bot be 5 reason I fear to be fascheows vnto the, I will mak ane end, exhortand the to wye and considder this mater as maist vychtie and important that can be in this wardle, and gywe thy awin iudgeament is nocht sufficient to resolwe thy self be sick meanes as I haiw declared, to emploie the Ministers, and to caus thame 10 ansowr direklye to the Demandes, all contention and malediction being pwt a syde, and swa I dout nocht, bot efter thow hes seane and considret thair ansowr, bot thow sall easelie perceawe quha defendes the rycht caus, and quha defendes the wrang, to the quhilk end I will nocht desiste to pray the Almychtie God to 15 assist the with his holye spreitt that thow may know the trew Christian Religion, and directe thy actiones conforme therto.

Quhow long will ye halt on twa sydes? Gyf the lord be God, followe hyme, bot gyf Baal be he, go efter hyme.

¹ There were two Scottish colleges projected about this time. A small seminary was established in 1576 at Pont-à-Mousson in Lorraine by Dr. James Cheyne, canon of Tournai, formerly parish priest at Aboyne. It was placed under the administration of Father Edmund Hay and other Jesuits. Queen Mary, in a letter to Archbishop Beaton in June 1576, promised to contribute to the support of this institution, which she calls "seminaire de Cheyne." Gregory XIII. extended his patronage to it so far that George Thomson attributes its erection to him: "a Gregorio xiii. felicis memorie Mussiponti in Lotharingia pro Scotorum gente erectum fuit seminarium" (De Antiq. Christ. Relig. apud Scotos, Duaci, 1594). It was afterwards removed to Douai.

But Hamilton seems here to refer rather to the extension or renovation of the endowment made by Andrew, Bishop of Moray, in the fourteenth century, for the support of Scottish scholars at Paris. In 1571, and again in 1574, Mary established bursaries in connection with this foundation. And it was in its favour that the Bishop of Ross, writing to Dr. Allen in October 1579, asked for the rules of the seminary at Rheims in order that he might model upon them what he calls "the new seminary of his nation which he and the bishop of Glasgow had already begun at Paris" (Douay Diaries, i. 157). Beaton subsequently, in a will made in 1603, bequeathed to these "poor scholars" a house in the Rue des Amendiers, and made them heirs of his residuary property. (See Tierney's Dodd, vol. iv. pp. 123, 124, but note the correction in p. cclxvii.) The Scots College at Rome was not founded till the year 1600.

and Catholik conclusiones, with thair probationes, quhilx Iohne Hamilton regent in the Royall college of Nauuarre, in name of the Catholikis proponis to the ministeris in the deformit kirk in Scotland. To be disputit before the kingis Maiestie and his honorable counsall.

The first conclusion.

Thair is onlie ane halie and Catholik kirk dispersit on the face of the hail earth, out of the quhilk thair can na man be sauit.

Probation.

This conclusion is prouin be S. Paull saying, Christ hes luifit his kirk, and hes geuin him self for hir, to mak hir haly thairby, Ephes. v.
 5 vesching hir with the lauer of valter in the vord, that he might exhibit and fourthschau to him self ane glorious and excellent kirk, not haifing ony spot, runkill or ony vther sic blot, bot that scho mycht be halie and immaculat. And be S. Peter quhair he comparis the kirk to the ark of Noe : for euin as all thaj perishit 1 Pet. iii.
 10 in the deluge quha var out of the ark, sa sall thaj perishe in the inquensibill fyr of hell, quha ar and remanis to thair lyues end, out of the Catholik kirk : and generallie it is prouin be al the places of the scripturis quhair the kirk is callit the bodie of Christ. Ephes. v.
 Becaus na man can be coniunit with Christ the heid, and be Apoc. xxi.
 15 separat from his body the kirk : for this caus S. Augustin vryttis Ps. lxxix. that ane heretik may haif out of the kirk all thingis except his saluation : he may haif (sayis he) the Sacrament, he may sing alleluya, and answer, & Amen &c. bot onlie in the kirk he may obtein his saluation. And S. Cyprian martyr testifies that quha hes not the kirk for his mother, can not haif God for his father. Seing than thair is na saluation out of the Catholik kirk it follouis necessairlie, that ather the present kirk of Scotland, laitlie erectit be

or ellis all our foirfatheris quha vas baptisit and deid in the Romaine kirk, euer sen Christis euangell vas first prechit in our contrie, and gentelisme expellit, mon be necessairlie condemnit in saul and body to the æternall fyre of hel : becaus neuer ane of thame imbrasit sic ane religion as this Caluinisme. 10

² The "King's Confession," or first National Covenant, sometimes called the "Negative Confession," designed as a "touchstone to try and discern Papists from Protestants," was composed by John Craig, and signed by James and his household, January 28, 1580-81. A facsimile of the original with its signatures (including that of the Catholic Earl of Lennox) is given in the National Manuscripts of Scotland, vol. iii. A license was granted, Jan. 10, 1581, to Robert Waldegrave in London to print "The confession of the faith and doctrine believed and confessed by the Protestants of Scotland," and this publication, of which there are copies in the British Museum Library, may have appeared before Craig's Shorte Summe of the whole Catechisme, to which the author himself added the Confession in question, printed in Edinburgh by Henry Charteris in that same year, 1581. See the facsimile reprint of the rare first edition of the Shorte Summe, with Introductory Memoir, by T. G. Law, Edinb. 1883.

varkis of Pœnitence, as testifeis S. Paull, ve suffer with him that 15 ve may be glorifeit together with him, that the temporal pane quhilk ve villinglie sustein for our synnis committit, is in this respect callit satisfaction to the iugement of God. Becaus heirby

Attour gif ye vil tak vpon you to examine the vrittingis of the fathers be the tuichestane, do ye not think it als resonable that the Fathers examine your opinions be the tuichestane, quhilk thay haue done before ye var borne, and condemnit 5 you all for heretikis. Bot to cum to your obiection, ye sould haue schauin that Christ callit that quhilk vas in the chalice, his blude be ane figurat loquution, and then ye vald haue prouin sum thing. Bot sen ye can not schau this of ony place in the hail scripture, your reason is impertinent: becaus 10 albeit the chalice is tane improperlie for that thing quhilk is contenit thairin, yit the blude is tane properlie, and according to that quhilk I spak before, this figurat loquution (This coup is the neu testament in my blude) is declarit be ane proper and plane loquution baith be S. Marc and S. Mattheu, This is 15 my blude quhilk sal be sched for you and for manie. And sua the chaleis is callit the neu testament in Christis blude, becaus it contenis in it the blude of Christ, quhilk is the blude of the neu testament. And thairfore of that figuratiue loquution ye sould rather haue gatherit that the treu blude of 20 Christ is in the chalice. My reason is, becaus that na vther reason maj be geuin, quhy the chalice sould be callit the neu testament in the blude of Christ, bot that it contenis in it the blude of the neu testament; for gif it contene na vther thing bot vyne, as ye allege, it could not be callit the coup of the 25 neu testament, mair nor the coup quhairin vas contenit the blude of beistis that vas ane figure of Christis blude could be callit the coup of the neu testament, quhilk is ane gret blasphemie, and makis Christ inferior vnto Moyses, and derogatis to the estait and perfection of the neu testament: yea quhilk 30 is maist horribill of all, makis Christis vord to be fals, quha in place of the blude of the auld testament and of the coup quhilk contenit the same, assurit his Disciples that he did giue thame his auin blude in confirmation of the neu testament. And this may be maist cleirlye prouin of the vordis be sched for vs, bot becaus that quhilk is in the coup is sched for our synnis, sua gif that quhilk vas sched for the remission of synnis vas his auin blude, it follouis necessarlie that it vas his auin blude quhilk vas in the chalice: the quhilk argument is sa cleir and manifest that your paraclet Theodore Beze is constranit to deny this pairt of the scripture, and to say that it vas eikit to the text. 5

fol. 49 v. And hou sall he quha suppleis the place of the Idiot ansuer Amen to thy benedictione, gif he vndirstand the not?* 10

S. Paul. 1 Cor. 14. 15

B. Thair be tua kynd of prayeris in the kirk, the ane is priuat, quhilk euerie man sayis be him self: the vthir is publik quhilk the preistis sayis in name of the hail kirk. As to the priuat prayeris, na Catholik denyis, bot it is verie expedient that euerie man pray in his auin tounge, to the end he vndirstand that quhilk he sayis, and that thairbie the interior prayer of the hairt may be the mair valkinnit, and conseruit the bettir, and gif onie man pray in ane vther tounge, it is also expedient that he vnderstand the mening of the vordis at the lest. For the quhilk caus in the Catholik kirk the parentis or godfatheris ar obleist to learne thame quhom thay hald in baptisme the formes of prayeris, and Beleif, and instruct thame sufficientlie thairin, sua that thay vndirstand the same: Albeit the principal thing quhilk God 20 25 30

requiris is the hairt, that suppois he quha prayis vndirstand nocht perfytlie the vordis quhilk he speikis, yit God quha lukis in the hairt, vill nocht lat his prayer be in vane. As to the publik prayeris of the kirk, it is not necessar that the pepill vndirstand 5 thame, becaus it is nocht the pepill quha prayis, bot the preistis in the name of the hail kirk, and it is aneuche that thay assist be deuotione listand vp thair myndis to God or saying thair auin priuat oraisonis,¹ and that be thair deuotione thay may be maid participant of the kirk. As in the synagogue of the Ieuis, the 10 peopill kneu not quhat all thair cerimoneis signifeit, quhilk vas keipit be the preistis and vtheris in offering of thair sacrifices and vther vorshipping of God, and yit thay did assist vnto thame; ye, sum of the preistis thame selfis miskneue the significatione of thir cerimoneis. Than gif it vas aneuche to the pepill to vndirstand 15 that in sik ane sacrifice consisted the vorshipping of God, suppois thay had not sua cleir ane vndirstanding of euerie thing that vas done thairin, sua in the catholik kirk quhen the people assistis to the sacrifice of the Mess, thay acknaulege that thairbie God is vorshippit, and that it is institute for the remembrance of Christis 20 death and passione. Albeit thay vndirstand nocht the Latine

 And it is nocht vithout greit caus that as in the inscriptione and titil quhilk Pilat fixed vpone the croce of Christ Iesus, thir thre langage, as ye may se be experience, gif ye vald confer the prayeris of your deformit kirkis, togidder with the innumerabil translationis of the psalmes, quhilk ar chaingit according to euerie langage in the quhilk thay ar turnit. It is not than without greit caus, and ane special instinctiōne of the halie Ghaist that 5 thir toungeis foirspokin hes bene retened as thay vil be retenit to the end of the varld. And quhen the Ieuis sall imbrace the Euangel, than sal the sacrifice, and vther publik prayeris be in the Hebreu tounge, according to that quhilk I said befor, that on the Croce of Christ thaj thrie toungeis onlie var vrittin, to signifie 10 that the kirk of Christ suld vse thay thre toungeis cheiflie in his vorshipping, as the neu and auld testament ar in thir thre toungeis in greitast authoritie amangis al pepill.

Nou to cum to the first pairt of your obiection, ye proue na thing except onlie that he quha prayis suld nocht be 15 aluterlie rude or ignorant of that tounge in the quhilk he prayis, quhilk I do alreddie grant to you. As to the vthir pairt of your argument, I confess indeid that that place aucht to be vndirstand of the publique prayeris of the kirk, bot yit it seruiss nathing to your purpose, bot is rather repugnant to 20 the same, and prouis that the common seruice of the kirk vas nocht than in the vulgar langage quhilk euerie man vndirstude, bot in ane vthir langage quhilk vas nocht sua commune to euerie man. For the vndirstanding of this I reid in Chrysostom, and vther ancient vryttaris that amangis vther giftis quhilk vas in the 25 primitiue kirk, thair vas also the gift of prayer, quhilk consisted in this, that quhen the Christianis var gathered togidder, thay quha var indeued with this gift kneu quhat thing vas maist expedient to be asked at God, quhilk thay craued in name of the haill kirk.
 Nou becaus it vas expedient to the haill kirk to vndirstand that 30 quhilk thay prayed for, S. Paul desyris him quha ressauiis this gift, to craue at God the grace of the interpretatione of the same, for the quhilk caus he sayis that he quha spekis vith ane tounge, he spekis to God, and nocht to men, and eftiruart, he quha pro-pheceis is gretar nor he quha spekis vith toungeis except that he 35 interpret him self, that the kirk may be edifeit. Nou sen this necessar that he quha prayis in name of the kirk, declair his prayer at that tyme to the pepil. Bot it is aneuche that it be 5 declairit be ordinar sermonis and exhortationis, and vthir sik menis, to the effect that the pepill be instructed quhat ar thay thingis quhilk the kirk in hir publique and ordinar prayeris crauis at God, quhilk is done at all tymes in the Catholique kirk. As in the tyme of Pasche the pepill knauis that all the prayeris tendis 10 to louing and thankesgeuing to God for the benefeit of the redemption of the varld : at Vitsonday, that the praying tendis to the inuocatione of the halie spirit, and sua furth of the rest of the seasonis of the hail yeir. Nou that S. Paul forbiddis nocht the publique seruice of the kirk to be done in ane tounge quhilk is nocht 15 vulgare to the haill pepill, ye vill esilie vndirstand gif ye pleis to note diligentlie this distinctione that almaist in euerie natione thair vsis to be ane vulgar tounge quhilk euerie man speikis, and ane vther tounge quhilk is nocht commone to all bot to the maist learned, as testifeis S. Hierom in his commentaris on the epistle 20 to the Galatianis that the Galatianis had thair auin vulgar tounge, and by that the Greik tounge, and throuche the haill Orient albeit thair vas ane greit number of vulgar tounGIS, yit the Greik tounge vas commone to thame all. And Beda in the descriptione of Britanie vryttis that thair is fyue tounGIS in it, the Inglishe tounge, 25 the Britonis tounge, the Scottis tounge, the Pichtis tounge, and the Latene tounge ; not that the Latene tounge vas vulgare to onie pepill of Britanie, bot becaus it vas commone to thame all ; and for that caus it is callit thair tounge. Sua Sanct Paull quhen he vill that the seruice of the kirk suld nocht be in ane strange tounge, he 30 menis that it suld nocht be in ane tounge quhilk is alluterlie strange and barbar, bot in ane tounge quhilk is nocht aluys vnknauin to the pepill, as throuche the haill Orient vas the Greik tounge, and the hail Occident the Latene tounge. The quhilk interpretatione is gathered maist cleirly, becaus that euin in S.

 35 Paulis dayes throuche all the Orient the publique prayeris and seruice of the kirk vas in the Greik tounge. Albeit thair vas innumerabill vulgar toungeis amangis sa monie pepill, and thair is na probabilitie that euerilk cuntrey did thane turne the scripture quhilk vsed to be red in the publik seruice of the kirk in thair auin vulgar tounge, not yit can thair be onie argument produced that sua hes bene done. In lyk maner in the Occident 5 sen the fayth vas first planted, ve find na vthar tounge to haue bene vsed in the publique prayeris of the kirk bot the Latene tounge, albeit euerie natione by the Latene tounge quhilk is com-mone to all, haue thair auin vulgar toungeis. And S. Augustine testifeis that in his dayes throuch al Afrik the commone seruice 10 of the kirk vas in the Latene tounge, and hou be the changeing of ane vord quhilk befor vas accustomed ane greit sklander, and tumult of the pepill did vpryse.

Mairatour, quhen S. Paull sayis, he that supplis the place of the Idiot hou sall he ansuer Amen to thy benedictione, gif 15 he vndirstand the nocht, he schauis that sic benedictions vas not accustomed to be in the vulgar tounge considering S. Paul callis him ane Idiot quha vnderstandis onlie his auin vulgar tounge; and requiris, or rather supponis that in the seruice of the kirk thair suld be ane vthir to supplie the place of 20 the Idiote, that is that suld haue farder vndirstanding and intelligence of that tounge in the quhilk the seruice of the kirk is said. Bot giff the seruice had bene done in the vulgar tounge, thair mistered na man to haue supplied the place of the Idiot.
 Than Sanct Paull schauis maist cleirlie that sic seruice vas not 25 exercised in ane vulgar tounge, bot in ane vther quhilk vas not commone to the hail pepil, sik as is the Latine tounge, as said is, in Scotland, and throuch the hail Occident, albeit it vas not in the contrare extremitie strange, or barbaruse. Bot sen ye haue euer mair this place in your mouthe, and dissauis thairbie the 30 pure pepil, I am constrainit to schau that in your neu deformed kirk it is alluterlie peruerted be you, and the rest of the mini-steris, becaus quhair the Greik and Latene text hes, He quha supplis the place of ane Idiote hou sall he say Amen, your ministeris of Geneua in monie of thair Bybilis, hes turnit it maist 35 deceatfullie and malitiouslie, He that is ane Idiott hou sall he say Amen: euin as gif thair var na difference betuix ane Idiot and him quha suppleis the place of ane Idiot. Mairouer the benediction to the quhilk S. Paull sayis Amen suld be ansuered, is nauyse practised in your deformet kirkis and nather 5 your Idiotis, nor thay that suppleis the place of your Idiotis Answeris Amen, as Sanct Paul vill haue ansuered, bot ye haue turnit Amen in So be it, quhilk is plane repugnant to his mening, and the practeise of the haill kirk, sen ye can not excuse your selfis to say that S. Paul vrait to thame quha spak the Hebreu

10 tounge, as Amen is Hebreu, considering he vrait to the Corinth, quha had thair publique seruice in Greik, and not in Hebreu, geuing vs ane sufficient argument, that that vord Amen aucht to be retened in al langages, as it hes euer bene retenet befor you amang all Christian men. And as the Euangelistis quha vrait 15 in Greke and thay quha turned the Euangelis out of Grek in Latene hes in lyk maner retened it, yea, ye your selfis in your bybillis sumtymes persauing that vtheruise ye vald be mockit be all men, ar compellit to retene it, as in the versione of the fourtene chaptour of the first to the Cor., He quha suppleis 20 the roume of the vnlearned hou sall he ansuere Amen, giff ye had turned hou sall he ansuere So be it, all the varld vald haue lachin at you. And quhat thing can be thocht mair vane nor to turne tha vordis of Christ Amen Amen dico vobis, Sobeit Sobeit I say vnto you. Thairfoir ye aucht to beleue that it is nocht 25 vithout ane greit mysterie that S. Paul and the Euangelistis hes euer retened this vord Amen, and that nane vther sen thair dayes hes bene sua bauld as to turne it in onie vther langage, insafar that the maist learnet S. Augustine vryttis that it is nocht lesum to turne Amen in onie vther vulgar langage vithout the sklander 30 of the hail kirk. Hou may ye than purge your selfis, bot in the turning of Amen in your neu (Sobeit) ye vald appeir to haue bene vysar nor S. Paull and the Euangelistis, and that ye haue sklanderit the haill kirk, nocht being mouit thairto be onie resson except onlie to mak professione that ye are schismakis, 35 and vill haue na thing commone vith Christis kirk. For as concerning the vndirstanding of the pepill quhilk ye allege for your defence, thay vnderstud (Amen) als veill as nou thay do sobeit, and albeit thay had nocht vndirstand it, yit thay var nocht of sua grose ane spirit, bot thay micht haue learned it in les nor¹ half ane yeir. Bot to conclud the mater I vil dis-couer the craft of Sathane be the quhilk he hes induced you 5 to turne Amen in your Sobeit. In all the prayeris of the vniuersall kirk in quhatsumeuer pairt of the varld to our dayes, at the end of all oraisonis and benedictionis vsed euer to be answered Amen, quhilk is ane Hebreu vord, to signifie that the Ieuis at the end sall imbrace the Christiane religione, and 10 that in thame the militant kirk in ane certane maner sall be concludit, and endit: quhair of ye mak ane daylie professione, quhen for the conclusion of all our prayeris ve vse euer to say Amen, and protestis that the prophecie of Christ salbe accomplished of ane scheipfald and ane pastore, and that the 15 ad Rom. 11. Ieuis albeit thay be reiectet for ane tyme as vrytis S. Paul, yit thay sal nocht be reiectet for euer, bot at the last salbe gathered in the scheipfald of Christ. Bot ye, as ye haue denyed the fulfilling of the prophecies of the calling of the gentiles, and the vniuersalitie and visibilitie of the kirk and kingdome 20 of Christ, sua be the turning of Amen, in Sobeit ye protest that the prophecie sall not be compleit of the calling of the Ieuis, and conuersione of thame to the Christiane fayth this is the craft of Sathan in you, quhairbie he laboris to mak all thingis fals, quhilk hes bene foirspokin of Christ and his eternal 25 kingdome, that he may thairbie establis the kingdome of the Antichrist. God grant you grace to acknaulege your blindnes, and to deliuer your self out of the snare of Sathan be vnfenyeit

Of the Appareill and Ornamentis of the Kirk.

fol. 57 r. M. Bot quhair reidis thou that it is lesum to the Papistis to adorne thair altaris sa sumptuouslie with precious stanes, with sa monie touallis, and to haue sic consecrat chalices of Gold and siluer, quhilk was abused be the preistis and freris to the greit hurt of the commoneveill. And hou can thou deny bot the Papis of Rome hes borrouit from the gentiles the superstitious maner of adorning kirkis with gold, siluer, and precious stanes, quhilk God hes not 5 commandit nor apoynted in the vrittin vord.

B. Suppois in the dayes of the Apostlis, and during the greit persecutione of the Emperoris of Rome, the Christianis could nocht haue tyme to buyld sua notabill kirkis as thay vald haue desyrit, nor yit to adorne thair altaris with ornamentis of gold and 10 precious stanis, being oftymes constrainit to fle out of ane place to another, and to lurk in couis vndir the erd, and thair to vse the exerceis of thair religione, yit quhen it pleased God to tak auay the persecutione, and illuminat the hart of the Emperore Constantinus Magnus to imbrace the Christian religione and to 15 be ane instrument of the furthsetting of it, than as the Christianis began to big maist magnifict templis, sua began thay to adorne thair altaris vith gold and pretious stanes, and to cleyth thame maist richelie and to mak Chalices of gold and siluer in mair quantitie and aboundance nor befor. For lang afoir Con-
 20 stantinus Magnus the Christianis in thair sacrifices vsed to haue Chalices of gold as amangis vtheris vitnessis the learnet Poet Prudentius descryuand the persecutione of Decius : Soletis (inquit) conqueri, scæuire nos iusto amplius, quum Christiana corpora, plus quam cruenta scindimus. Abest atrocioribus censura feruens motibus:
 25 blandè et quietè efflagito, quod sponte obire debeas. Hunc esse vestris orgiis, moremque et artem proditum est, hanc disciplinam fœderis, libent vt auro Antistites. Argenteis scyphis ferunt fumare sacrum sanguinem, auroque nocturnis sacris adstare fixos cereos. Ye use, sayis the cruell Emperore Decius, to complane that ve ar mair 30 cruell than becummis vs, quhen ve caus ryue and destroy the bodeis of Christiane men vithout mercie, ve vil nocht vse sa exorbitant and horribil crueltie, ve craue vith plesandnes and tranquillitie, that quhilk ye suld do villinglie : Thay say that this is the maner and fassone of your sacrifices thay say this is the coupis of siluer, and that in the euening or nichtlie seruice the torchis ar set in chandeleris of gold. Reid gif ye pleis Ruffinus, and thair ye vill find hou Constantinus Magnus did erect sa monie notabill templis and adorne thame with all kind of rich and pretious ornamentis, ye vill find hou that the halie voman 5 Helena his mother did decore the Altaris vith maist riche touallis and pretious stanes, and chalices of gold and siluer. Reid S. Chrysostome, and thair ye vil find also hou that the altaris vas vont to be ornit vith veluot, and silkis and vith touallis of clayth of gold, and vith chandelaris of gold. And Optatus Mileuitanus 10 vritand aganis the heretik Parmenianus, the kirk sayis he, hes monie ornamentis of gold and siluer: and obietis to the Donatistis, that thay had committed ane maist horribill cryme that thay had brokin the chalices quhilk did contene in thame the blude of Christ and dissoluit thame in peces, sua that the gentiles 15 did by thame to mak veschellis in the quhilk thay nicht offer sacrifice to thair Idolis, ô, sayis he, ane cryme quhilk vas neuer hard befor, to tak from God, and to giff to ane Idole.

And S. Augustine vrittis that ve haue monie veschellis, and instrumentis quhilk ve vse in the administratiōe of the sacra- 20 mentis, the quhilkis ar consecrat and halie, becaus of the halie ministerie to the quhilk thay serue: And S. Ambrose vrittis that in sum caices ve may breke and sell euin the halie veschellis quhilkis ar consecrat and hallouit: The kirk hes gold sayis he, nocht to keip it, bot for the necessitie of the pure. (Tunc enim 25 vas Dominici sanguinis nosco, cum in utroque video redemptionem vt calix ab hoste redimat, quem sanguis ab hoste redemit) that is, than I acknauledge the veschell that contenis the blud of the Lord, quhen in thame bayth I behald the pryce of redemptione, that the chalice may redeme him from the ennemie, quhom the blude hes 30 redemit from the ennemie. And Athanasius vryttand of the persecution of the Arrianis, vittnessis that the Arrianis had tane away all the vestimentis, and vther ornamentis of the kirk; and that thair persecutiōe and violence vas sua greit that thay prophaned the halie veschelis and Chalicis be the polluted handis of 35 the gentiles. And Gregorius Nazianzenus being accused be the

Arrianis, Schau me, sayis he, quhais blude I haue mixed with the blude of Christ? mening of the Arrianis quha in the tyme of the sacrifice was the caus of sa monie murtheris in the kirk, and of the spilling of Christis blude out of the Chalices, in the quhilk it 5 was offerit sua that the blude of thame quha var slayne was mixed with the blude of Christ be thair persecutioun, Schau me, sayis he, quhair I haue exposed the Chalices quhilk ar depute to the sacrifices, quhilk, it is nocht lessum to the pepill to tuiche, to be tuiched and contaminat be the handis of the infidelis, as ye haue 10 done? Ye quha callis your selfis Protestantis ye se quhais futstoppis ye follou in breiking of the Chalices, and spulyeing of the kirkis. And vnles ye cum to repentance, ye may be assured of na vther reuard nor the Arrianis, and infidelis hes gottin befor, quhilk is the inquenshibill fyre of hell. And in this varld ye vill 15 nocht eschapp the vraith and iust iudgement of God mair nor vtheris quhais futstoppis ye follou. Victor Vticensis descryuand the persecutioun of the Vandalis vrittis that Gensericus king of the Vandalis did send ane callit Proclus to spulye the kirkis, quha obeying his masteris commandiment tuke the coueringis of 20 the altaris, and maid vnto him self of thame sarkis and hoise : bot a lytill eftir he did eate out his auin tounge, and de be ane maist filthie and horribil death. Theodoretus vrittis in lyk maner of ane callit Phymelicus ane danser quha had bocht ane halie vestiment of gold and silk, the quhilk Constantinus had 25 geuin to the kirk of Hierusalem, and did put this vestiment vpone him and danse in it, quha did fall incontinent to the erd and de maist miserabillie be the iust iudgement and punitione of God : quhairof I counsal you to tak exemple in tyme. And sen the Iewis in the auld testament be the command of God, had sua 30 coistlie and riche apparellis in the tempill of Hierusalem quhilk was bot ane schaddou and vmbre, hou can ye eschapp to be iniureous vnto Christ, sen ye vill that the kirkis quhilk ar dedicat to his honore be alluterlie destitute of all precious and riche apparell, and that your auin priuat housis be mair magnifict nor 35 the house quhilk is dedicat to the honoring and vorshipping of God.

Ve haue nocht learned the maner of the apparelling of our kirkis of the infidell Gentiles as ye say, bot rather the infidelis hes lerned that from the pepill of God, as Numa Pompilius did learne ane greit pairt of tha thingis quhilk he ordinit in the Citie of Rome for the vorshipping of the Idolis out of the 5 bukis of Moyses. Ye, of the lau of nature it self, all nationis hes vniuersalie learned that the tempillis quhilk ar dedicat to the vorschipping of God, aucht to be decored with greit magnificence, and exteriour apparell, nocht that God hes mister of onie sic thing, bot for declaratioun and testificatioun of our deuotie 10 and subiectione vnto him, and als to excitate, and valkin our dull nature be sik exteriore thingis as ar subiect to our eis to deuotione and pietie, and euin as the kirk militant is ane certane image and liknes of the kirk triumphant, sua according to our vaiknes and imbecillitie, be the exteriore ornamentis of gold, 15 precious stanes, and vther thingis, quhilkis ar in our kirkis ve do declair the greit affluence and aboundance of all Ioy and consolatione quhilkis ar amang the halie sanctis, and angellis of heuin, quha triumphis in glorie, sua ye appeir to me mair rude and barbare, nor ar the gentiles thame selfis, considering ye vill 20 that thair be na difference betuix your kirkis, and als monie noult faldis, as experience it self dois teache. Nou that this decoring and apparelling of kirkis, hes euer bene accustomed be all Christiane pepill, it is maist cleir and manifest to all thame quha pleisis to reid the ancient vrittaris, as Ruffinus quha vrittis 25 as said is that Constantinus Magnus, hauing obtened victorie ouer the tyrane Macentius did employ him self to buyld maist sumptuous and magnifict kirkis exornand thame vith all kynd of apparell, as also his mother Helena quha gaue sindrie veschellis of gold decored maist richelie vith pretious stanis. Reid Theo- 30 doret, and ye vill find hou richelie the tempillis in that aige vas accustomed to be apparelled. The sam is testifeit be S. Hierom vrittand to Heliodorus, be Paulinus, be S. Chrysostom, be Optatus, be Ambrose, be Gregorius Nissenus, be Athanasius, be Gregorius Nazianzenus, be Prudentius, and all vther ancient 35 vrittaris. And, as is manifest of thir said authoris, ye in spulye-ing, and taiking auay the ornamentis of the kirk, folou the futstoppis of Iulianus the Apostat, of the Arrianis, and of the Donatistis, quha did tak auay the veschellis of gold, and vther precious ornamentis of the kirkis euin as ye do, albeit ye surpas 5 thame sumparte in sic impietie, hauand maid gretar prophanatione of all sic thingis nor euer thay did, as is cleir to all thame quha plesis to compair thair vorkis with youris. I desyre that ye schau me of onie ancient historie, that in onie aige the Christian men hes had sik kirkis as ye haue nou in the realme 10 of Scotland, that is, the bair vallis destitute of all kynd of ornament, vithout dure, vindo or ruffe. I am assurit ye vill neuer be abill to schau onie sic thing: hou can ye thane profes your selfis treu vorshipparis of God, quha vses sua manifest contempt of thaj places quhilk ar cheiflie dedicat to his honore 15 and vorshipping.

 cession of Paipis lauchfullie ordinit and promouit be verteu of 10 Christis promise to S. Petir, and his successoris in name of the hail kirk: Farder the successione of lauchful pastoris, according to the custume and vse of the Romane Kirk, and vther ancient kirkis, hes necessarlie conioynit with it the succession of doctrine in lyk maner, becaus that this vas ane ancient custume maist stantlie to the end remanit in the profession of the fayth, had thair names keipit in the commone tabillis of the kirk (quhilk be

² John Willock, formerly a Franciscan or Dominican friar, in Ayr, became a Protestant, and in 1541 went to London, where he acted as chaplain to the Duke of Suffolk. He returned to Scotland in 1558, and, according to Knox, it was through the influence of his preaching at Dundee and Edinburgh that the brethren began to "deliberate on some public reformation." He was again very active as a preacher in Edinburgh during the occupation of the city by the lords of the congregation in the summer of 1559.

² It is impossible to reprint here Burne's grossly indecent translation of this poem. It has not even the merit of being in good Scots. M'Crie remarks, "In a pretended translation into Scots of a poem written by Beza in his youth . . . Burne has unblushingly inserted some scandalous and disgraceful lines for which he had not the slightest warrant from the original." ("Life of Knox," ed. 1855, vol. i. p. 392.) This curious piece of obscenity has, however, gained for the book an expensive notoriety. A copy of the "Disputation" was sold at the Rev. Fuller Russell's sale on 20th June 1885 for £25.

Of the Estait of Bischoppis.

Protestant. Gif the Authoritie of bischopis var groundit on the vord of God, and had bene approuit in the primitiue kirk, the bischopis quha ar this day in Scotland and namelie the bischoppis of Sanctandrois, Glasgou, and Abirdene vald mentene thair fol. 106 v.

authoritie, and be cheif præidentis thairin, being lykuyse ordinar 10 iudges in deciding al controuerseis in religione?*

B. Ye verelie: and vald thairfoir haue resolutione of one dout.
Gif God sal raise vp in Scotland ane man desyrand disputatione with onie minister concerning ane or ma heiddis of religione, quha is abil to cite the testimoneis of the scripture, and sentences of 15 the doctoris to confirme his part of the controuersie; than I demand gif thair be vithin the realme of Scotland onie Iudge, quha heiring the ressonis of bayth the pairteis, may say to the ane, thou art richt; to the vther, thou defendis ane erroneus opinione; thairfoir ather of you man stand at this decreit, and 20 definitione of the treuth; and incaice of disobedience be autho-ritie of the halie Ghaist, granted vnto me, quhairbie I am constitut iudge in this controuersie, I denunce the disobeyar ane hæretike.

vord and buke of God.

B. I say it is maist fals that the vryttin vord can be Iudge of al controuerseis, becaus ane iudge man bayth heir and speke, bot 5 the vryttin vord is bayth deaf and dume, sua that it may nather heir the parteis, nor pronounce the sentence, quhilk tua thingis apertenis necessarlie to the office of ane lauchful iudge. By that, the office of ane iuge is that nocht onlie he pronounce the sentence, bot put it also to executione, that is, that he puneis 10 according to the lauis thame quha he¹ condemnit of onie cryme, as be death, banishment, or sik punishment, bot the vryttin vord hes nocht sik pouar or strenth, as is maist cleir. Thairfor of necessitie ather hæretikis man be vnpunished according to the lauis that ar maid aganis thame, or ellis 15 thair man be sum vthir iudge, by the vryttin vord. . . . And I meruel that ye, quha estemis your self to be learned, considerder nocht, that the Lauterianis, Zuinglianis, Calvinistis, and Anabaptistis admittis the vryttin vord as onlie iudge, and yit ye can nocht aggrie amang your selfis, euerie ane of you 20 aledging the vryttin vord for his pairt, persuading him self that the vryttin vord aggreis vith that opinione, quhilk he hes alreddie forgit befor in his auin brayn, euin as gif tua men quha var in controuersie about onie mater, vald pas to the greit bellis of the kirk, and decerne that to be treu quhilk the bel sould 25 sounde to thair earis, euerie ane of thame being addictit to his auin opinione, vald say, that the bel did sound according to his imagination; and sua vald be na mair resolut be the iudgement of the bellis, nor thay var befoir. Euin sua do ye vith the scripturis: as for exempil, the Lauterian vil say maist constantlie, that the scripture iudges for his pairt, that the treu bodie of Christ is in the sacrament ioynit vith the breid and vyne; the 5 Zuingliane vil constantlie afferme, that thair is na thing in the sacrament bot breid, and vyn, quhilk ar signes of the bodie and blude of Iesus Christ; the Cauuinist maist bauld of al vil afferme, that the vord of God is for him, that the bodie of Christ is treulie in the lordis suppar, and that ve be certane pilleis, or 10 ingeynis ar liftit vp to heauin be ane incomprehensibil maner.

¹ be.

 Quhat vald ye nou that ane pure man, quha can nather reid nor vryt, and suppoise he could, hes nocht sufficient literatur to vndirstand the scripture sould do in this caice? I dout nocht bot gif ye be nocht aluterlie obstinat, ye may persauie that he 15 vald be in ane veray greit perplexitie; and that he hes na sure moyen quhairbie he may resolue him self, and consequentlie gif thair be na vthir iudge by the vryttin vord that Christ hes nocht sufficientlie prouydit for his kirk, nocht leuing in it ane esie and infallibil reul, quhairbie euerie ane quha plesis may discerne the 20 treu religione from the fals, as euerie man in the day of iudge-ment man gif compt in particular of his auin religione and fayth.
 Than my argument is this, that ve aucht to haue ane iudge, quha sould pronounce the sentence in sik maner, that he may put end to al controuerseis, and quhais sentence euerilk ane of 25 the flok of Christ, hou simple that euer thay be, may cleirly vndirstand: bot the vryttin vord hes neuer yit put end to onie controuersie, euerie hæretik allegeand it for him self, as said is, nor yit pronounced the sentence sa cleirly that it micht haue bene persauit be euerie ane. Thairfoir by the vryttin vord, necessarlie 30 thair man be sum vther iudge, as in al commoneveil by the lauis that ar vryttin, thair is sum iudgis apoynted, quha sould haue pouar to interprete the lauis, and in al controuerseis of thame, pronounce thair sentence, and declair the treu mening thairof.
 Vtheruise na controuersie could euerbe endit; as in the realm 35 of Scotland gif thair var na Iudge apoynted for ciuil actionis, and it var permittit to euerie man of lau to interpret the lauis and ordinances of the cuntrey according to his auin phantasie, thair vald neuer ane process be endit befor the day of iudge-ment. And yit ye vil be sua ingrate to Christ, as to think that 5 he had les prouidence of his kirk and saluatioun of saulis, for the quhilk he sched his maist precious bluid, nocht prouyding ane sufficient iudge, for the controuerseis that nicht vpryse, nor ane secular king or prince hes of the Ciuile administratioun of his commoneuil. And for conclusioun, ye can nocht deny, bot the 10 vryttin vord it self, may be callit in dout be heretikis; as the Marcionitis, and Manichæanis denyit the hail auld testament, vtheris the tua hinmaist epistlis of S. Iohne, vtheris the Apocalypse, and vtheris, vther pairtis of the scripture. Nou I demand of you, quha sal be iudge in this controuersie? For the vryttin 15 vord can nocht be iudge, as ye persauie your self: than necessarlie ye man acknauledge sum vther iudge: And to enter in particular, Lauter denyis the epistle of S. Iames, quhat argument haue ye, and al the ministeris of Scotland, to conuict him? For be the vryttin vord ye vil neuer proue that sanct Iames vrait ane 20 epistle. Castalio denyis the buik quhilk is callit [Cantica cantorum] saying that it is ane buke contenand ballatis of luf. Gif onie in Scotland defendit this opinioun, ye vald neuer get tham conuict be the vryttin vord? yea your paraclet Theodore Beze, sayis that the Historie of the adulteres in the aucht chaptore of 25 S. Iohne vas eikit to the text, and in the Euangel of S. Luc, thir vordis [quhiik salbe sched for you] is eikit to the text, quhais sentence gif ye follou nocht, quhou vil ye get him condemnit be the vryttin vord? I mycht schau hou Calvin your maister hes eikit and paired fra monie places of the scripture, and yit be the 30 vryttin vord it is hard to conuict him of sik eiking and pairing. Sua I vil gather my argument in feu vordis: The iudge quhilk is appoynted be Christ to his kirk, may iudge of quhatsumeuer controuersie dois occur, and condem for hæretikis, quhasoeuer aucht to be condemnit, bot this can nocht be done be the vryttin 35 vord, as is prouin; thairfoir the vryttin vord is nocht the iudge quhilk Christ hes left to his kirk.

Sm. I persaeue of thy ansuer, thou vald refer this Authoritie of decision to the general Concilis, ouer quhom the Paip is præident as Christis vicar, as the Papistis sayis. Yit the varld is nocht in sik ignorance nou as befoir ; for the langagis and diuerse toungis, the philosophie, and al sciencis, ar accuratlie taught, quhairfor thair is na doubt bot ane man natural veil instructed in philoso- 5 phie, hauing knauledge of the langages, quha hes studeit lang to the text of the scripturis, and red the vorkis of the doctoris, is abil to expone onie passage of scripture contening onie quæstione or heid of Doctrine necessar for our saluatiōe. 10

B. Than supponand your self to be sik ane man : gif ane vthir man instructed in the sam schuillis, quhair ye learned, als perfyt in al thay thingis as ye are, vald cum in Scotland, and sustene disputatione aganis you, mentening ane sentence contrare to youris, concerning onie cheif head of religione, according to your reul, he vilbe als abil to interpret the scripture as ye, and al men suld gif als greit credite to him as to you ; and sua his sentence being repugnant to youris, it is necessar that tua contrare and repugnant sentencis in interpretation of Goddis vord be imbraced togidder. This is your neu Theologie, quhilk ye haue brocht in, 20 in the kirk of Scotland. To pas forduart, gif ane priuat man, being indeuit vith tha thingis quhilk ye prescryue, may vith assurance, vithout onie error or deception interpret Goddis vord ; quhy deny ye that sam self pouar to the vniuersal Conciles, in the quhilkis thair is sindrie at al tymes, quha ar adornit vith sic giftis ? or schau me gif ye can, that euer onie hæresie hes bene finalie extuinguished, bot ather be the authoritie of the Bischop of Rome, or be the general Concilis, gathered and assembled be him ? I remember that S. Augustine vryttis, hou that Pelagius the hæretike vas condemnit in the Concile of Palæstina be sindrie 30 bischopis, bot at the last quhen he vas condemnit be Innocentius, bischop of Rome he sayis that na farder iudgement aucht to be abiddin : hou var the Arrianis condemnit, bot be the general Concile of Nice ? hou vas Macedonius condemnit bot be the general Concile of Constantinopil ? hou vas the Nestorianis con- 35 demnit bot be the general Concile of Ephesus ? hou vas the Eutychianis condemnit, bot be the Concile of Chalchedon? and siclyk of all vther hæretikis. Vil ye be sua bald as to say that all thir halie fatheris, quha var assembled in the foirsaid Concilis for the extirpatione of erroris var blindit? ye man appardone me gif

5 I say that ye ar rather blindit than thay. Ye, I am assurit, quhatsumeuer opinione ye haue of your self, that ye ar bayth ignorant and blind, as I haif pairtly schauin befor, and vil nou schau at mair lenth. Ye say that ane man instructed in Hebreu, Greik, Latene, and philosophie, quha hes red the ancient vrittaris, may

10 surelie interpret the scripture: I deny it maist planelie to you, and ye and al your ministeris vil neuer be abil to proue it, or to schau me in Goddis vord, that onie sik thing is promised to euerie particular man quha is indeuit vith sic giftis, and thairfoir all that quhilk ye grounde vpone this vaik fundament, man fall

15 altogidder. Sabellius, Arrius, Macedonius, Nestorius, and vtheris var maist learned men, and had red the scriptures veray diligently, and yit becaus thay gaue our greit place to thair auin curiositie, thay did fall in heresie, and var Heresiarchis. Yea generalie almaist al thay quha hes been the beginnaris of hæresie

20 var verie learned men and of gret spirit; vtheruyse thay could nocht haue defendit thair fals opinionis, nor inducit vtheris to follou thame. Bot thir hæretikis according to your saying, did maist surlie interpret Goddis vord, being indeuit vith all tha thingis quhilk ye esteme necessare for the interpretatione of the scrip-

25 ture. Nou quhat vil ye do vith ane man that hes nather Greik nor Hebreu, as sindrie of your faythful brethrene? quhat reull sall thay haue for thair assurance? or quhou dar thay enter in the office of the ministrie? or quhat assurance can thair flok haue to follou thame? sen thay haue nather Hebreu, Greik, nor

30 Latene, and neuer red the ancient vryttaris, neuer studeit ane vord of Philosophie, bot neu cummit fra keiping of the scheip or the geise, as did Brebbenner¹ and Paul Mephuen. Ansuer vnto me, quhat assurance can sic ministeris have or thair flok quhilk follouis thame, sen thay are destitute of al thay thingis, ¹ Patrick Constant, better known by his adopted name of Adamson, was presented by Morton to the archbishopric of St. Andrews on the death of Douglas in 1576. He refused to submit his election to the trial of the Assembly, or to allow them to regulate his episcopal duties and privileges. He was accordingly for the rest of his life in continual conflict with his presbyterian brethren, who in vain appointed commissions "to charge Mr Patrik Adamson to remove the corruptoun of the estat of bishops in his person." In July 1579 he was summoned to answer for having voted in Parliament and for the exercise of several acts of episcopal jurisdiction. Calderwood, ii. 371, 378, 444.

I demandit the Erl of Mortone in Dalkeith, quha vas vpone the Concile, at the making of the act : Quhat vas confirmit thairby, 20 concerning the religione? For ather it behouit to be (said I) the treuth of the Bybil, as it is writtin in the text, or sum certan expositione thairof, or generallie that quhatsumeuer the ministeris preachis, or var to preache efteruart, sould be ratifeit, as Goddis vord. Gif it vas the treuth of the Bybil, as it is con-

For the affirmatiuis ioynt heirvith ar al thisteoulie stollin from the Catholik kirk. Quhairfor, said I, it restis that al quhatsumeuer the Ministeris sal speke in the pulpit is ratifeit be that 5 Act of parliament, quhilk is ane vngodlie thing. For gif the general Conciles of the hail kirk hes errit, as thay falslie alledged quhy may nocht onie particular man of thame, preache erroneus doctrine for the treuth? Nor is it nocht aneuche that ane minister, being iustlie reprotit be onie of his brethrene, mak 10 ansuer, and say : Brother quhatsumeuir I teache in the pulpit, is confermit treu be the act of parliament, quhairbie ye aucht to dea, as ane transgressore thair of, becaus ye say that to be fals, quhilk the act of parliament confermes to be treu. My lord Morton ansuerit, that Sanct Augustine vas als vyse ane man as 15 onie of thame, quha var on the Concile at the making of that Act. Quhairfoir, lyke as he vrait bukes of retraction, sua quhen ve find onie act of parliament sayis he, vranguslie maid aganis God, and gude reassone, ve vil annul the sam and estableis the contrare. And thairfoir your actis of parliament euin according 20 to the iudgement of the vittiaist of thame that vas the diuysaris thair of, can nocht be ane sure ground quhairon onie man may leane his fayth considering the materis of fayth ar nocht subiect to onie retractatione, as ar the actis of your parliament.

Of the Calling of Kmnox and the false ministeris of Scotland.

fol. 128 r. S. Gif thou require ane ordinar calling be onlaying of handis 25 Iohann Kmnox resauit it from your Roman Kirk.

B. Than ye man grant your Maister Iohann Kmnox ane heretik and Apostat quha maid defectione thairfra, and thaireftir denyit his vocation. Attour that the pouar of Ordore is not sufficient to ane man to preache bot he man haue also iurisdictione ouer thame to quhome he preachis. Iohann Knox resauit neuer sic iurisdictione fra the Roman Kirk to preache in the Realme of Scotland, thairfoir suppose he receauit from 5 it the order of preisthead, yit he had na pouar to preache nor to lauchfullie administrat the sacramentis. Finalie ye ar iniurious to Kmnox, affirming that he has enterit anothir vay nor he confessit himself, for he preachit in the toun of Edinburgh that gif Esaias, Hieremias, and vtheris var prophetis, he vas ane

² Burne had printed מרה, which is impossible. It is more difficult to conjecture what was intended here; but a friend, learned in Hebrew, suggested מחה, to wipe out, or destroy, an etymology which is perhaps "not too pedantic or absurd for the author." The word occurs in Deut. xxix. 19, the passage referred to in the margin, and has therefore been substituted in the text.

prophet I knau he vrait his name not onlie Martin Luter fra the Greik verb λουω efter the custume of vther Germane prophetis Melanchton, Dryander, Hosiander, quhais fatheris names var Blak earth, Aikman, Halieman : bot to declair his singularitie haue spokin of the Antichrist in general : lyk as S. Iohne inducis tua beastis to compleit the bodie of the Antichrist, euin sua thair ar tua horribil beastis acknauledgit be the kirk Catholik through the hail varld for notabil persecutaris of Christis kirk. The ane is Mahometis in the Greik impyre, the vther Martin Lauter in the Latine impyre. For lyk as the letteris of euerie ane of the names of thir compleittis exactlie the number of the Antichrist, euin sua it is maist esie to apply to euerie ane of thame al the propirteis of the Antichrist quhilk I haue befoir rehersit. For thair is na doubt bot Mahometis hes bene, and is ane verie notabil ennimie to the kingdome of Christ, quha had for ane of his parentis ane Ieu as treu and faythful men reportis, and ascryuit vnto him self tha thingis quhilk ar propir to the halie Ghaist, lyk as al the rest of the propirteis of the Antichrist may be maist esilie accommodat vnto him. Martin Lauter is the vther beast in quhais name also this number is compleit, And that ve sould nocht doubt bot he is the vther beast, be the prouidence of God in his auin vrytingis he callis him self ane beast, saying, Vos Papistæ ab anteriori parte, vos tumultuosi à posteriori, vos Diaboli ab omni parte incitate, venamini, exagitate alacriter ; veram habetis feram ante vos, iacente Lutero salui estis et victoriam obtinuistis i. ye Papistis ye troublisum men, ye deuillis befoir me, behind me, and on al syd set on me, cal me forduart, and hunt me ; ye haue befoir you ane verie beast, gif luter be overcummit ye ar saif and haue obtenit the victorie. Quhat beast meanit Lauter of in this place, except of that serpent be the quhilk the Antichrist is signifeit in the scripture ? As he declairit maist planelie of him self quhen he first begane to impugne the fayth, that the Catholik kirk sould find him ane edder in the hie vay, and serpent in the rod bytand the hors housis that the rydar may fal bakuart. Quhair of I can collect na vther thing bot as God mouit Cayphas to speik prophecie quhilk he vndirstude not, sua he hes mouit Martin Lauter albeit in general termis, and obscurlie to apply this prophecie to him self as descendit of the tryb of Dan, lyk as verie monie Ieuis mareis vith the Germanis, quhilk mysterie vnles be instinction of that it var almaist impossibil to him to compt al the learned and halie men, and vemen, quha sen the ascensione of Christ, hes cummit in pilgramage to Hierusalem. He testifeis mairouer, that euin from our Ile of Britannie, thay quha var maist halie and 25 deuoit, could nocht be content vith thame selfis, quhil thay had bene in Hierusalem, and adorit Christ in that place in the quhilk he vas crucifeit for the saluatioun of man. S. Chrysost. in his 32 homilie on the Epistle to the Romanis, schauis quhat deuottioun he had to pas to Rome to se the halie chainis quhair vith 30 S. Petir and Paul var bund, and to humil him self befor the bodeis of the halie Martyris. Eusebius in the sext buk and elleuint chaptour rehearses the lyk of the ancient vryttar Origines, quha desyrit to pas in Pilgramage to Rome. Basilius in his homilie of the fourtie Martyris, exhortis al men to pas vnto 35 thame, that hes mister of quhatsumeuer thing. God sayis he, vil refuse na thing to the Martyres, quha hes sched thair blude for him. Theodoretus in the lyf of Simeon geuis the caus, that mouis halie men to pas in Pilgrimage, quhilk is ane treu and ardent loue: For thay, sayis he, quha loues onie man, ar blythe to se the places quhair he hes remanit, or quhair he is bureit, or onie thing that apertenis to him. And siclyk in his aucht buke 5 de Curandis Græcanicis affectionibus, quhilk is almaist al of this argument, quhair he declaris, hou that innumerabil peopil hes obtenit health be the intercessione of the Martyres and halie men to quhome thay did mak thair Pilgrimage, quhair of sayis he, the testimoneis ar maist euident and cleir, be the markis, 10 quhilkis thay quha hes obtenit sic healthe hes left in the kirkis of the Martyris, as Imagis of the membris quhilk hes bene restorit to health. And as tuiching domestik exemplis thair be yit, ane hundreth treu and faythful men in the vest of Scotland, quha can beir gude recorde of the profite of that 15 Pilgrimage, quhilk the peopil maid to S. Ninian of Gallo-uaye, suppois ye quha ar rude and ignorant of al that, quhilk hes bene befor you, leaning onlie vpone your auin vane and phantastical Iudgement, esteme maist fulishlie, nocht without greit iniurie of God and his halie Sanctis, sik thingis to be super- 20 stitious. Thair vas sum four hundreth yeiris syne quha condemnit the ganging in Pilgramagis, as ye do, quha var iudged to be hæretikis, be al the Doctoris, and learned men of that aige, as amangis vtheris vitnessis the maist halie man S. Bernard, and Petrus Cluniacensis, testifeand that the vniuersal kirk hes euer 25 approuit the vse of sik Pilgramagis as maist halie and profitabil, ye that God dois vork monie thingis mair miraculously be his Martyris and Sanctis eftir thair deathe nor he did vork be thame quhen thay var on lyffe. . . .

fol. 183 r. . . . This is the some of my conference with the Ministeris, 30 quhairin I haue dissembled na thing of the force of thair argumentis, as al men, quha vas present, vil testifie. As to my pairt, becaus it var tedious, and our proluxe to rehearse al the reasonis¹ reasnis.

quhilk I vsit for defence of the treuth the tyme of my impresonement, being content to haue schortlie tuiched thir principal and cheif headdis, I desyre maist ernistlie euerie man, as he louis his auin saluatione, to considder of quhat spirit, the reformatione (as 5 the Ministeris callis it) of that deformit kirk in Scotland hes proceidit: quhilk gif he do vithout affectione, I dout nocht bot he sal cleirly persae that al the mischeif, thift, sacrilege, adulterie, incest, contempt of God, violating of his lauis, and commandi-mentis, murther of spiritual magistratis, and pastoris, be felling 10 thame in priuat streittis vnder silence of nicht, casting of rottin eggis and al kynd of filthe at thame in oppin mercat, be banising, impresoning, and harling thame on sleddis, be tramping the memoriallis of al religione in guttaris, be rugging down of kirkis, be spuleying of Abbayis, be transferring the ornamentis and 15 rentis thair of to the vphalding of huris, ignominious vagabundis, or at the lest men vithout al verteu, hes proceidit thair of; sua that gretar abhominatioun may nocht be lukit for, at the cumming of onie vther Antichrist heireftir. As to the Sacramentis, quhilk Christ hes institute as ordinar menis, quhairbie grace necessar 20 for the spiritual and temporal estait in general, lyk as the oynting of Preistis for spiritual regeneratione; the mareing of men and vemen for procreatione of childrene; the promotioun of superioris for regiment, and gouernement; and siclyk ordinar menis, quhairbie grace necessar to euerie particular mannis saluatione is 25 geuin be God, vsand the administratioun of ane anoynted Pastore, ar pairtly vilfullie reiected as Confirmatione, Repentance, and extreme Vnctione; pairtly in vord granted, and in verie deid annullit, as Baptisme, and the Sacrament of the Altar. For the quhilk caus monie regardis nocht quhider thair Childrene be 30 baptized, death approaching, or nocht. Thay cum to thair communione as to ane huntaris bankat. Gif thay fal in deidlie syn, thay abyde continuallie in the net of the deuil, vithout remission of the same, for reiecting the ordinar mene of abso-lutione. The pure peopill deis lyk doggis vithout confort, nather 35 vil the Ministeris dengyie thame selfis to vissie thame, albeit thay vil ryd xx mylis for hoip of ten Crounis to vissie ane lord, that gif he haue leuit al his dayes faythfullie in the feir of God, thay may troubil his conscience with controuerseis of disputationis, quhidder gif the Angellis prayeris be profitabil for vs or nocht? Thair is na thing hard out of thair pulpittis, bot blasphemie aganis God in lauchfullie promouit Pastoris, and Princes, to bring the Pepil 5 in suspitione, that the neu testament of our Saluour, is the in-uentione of the Paip, lyk as thay blasphemouslie speke of his Sacrifice, and Canonis of the Apostlis. Gif onie man feiring God, considering thair beginning and conferring the samyn with hæreseis condemnit in our foirfatheris dayes, offer thame disputa- 10 tione. Thay trauel be al menis to seik his lyf, sua that thay appeir nocht the murtheraris of him: as be experience I knau of my self, aganis quhom, thay, lyk fals traittorous learis, as I tak God to vitnes, inuenit thingis quhilk I neuer thocht, concerning the honore of the kingis Maiestie, nocht vorthie of rehearsal, 15 quhairbie thay laborit my ruine, transferring the caus from professione of religione to lese Maiestie, and treassone, as thay vald haue callit it. Bot yit the eternal God, quha neuer frustrat onie, that vnsenyettlie beleuit in him, in despytt of thair rage, hes preseruit me from danger bayth of bodie and saul. God of his 20 mercie grant the Peopil of the hail cuntrey grace to vndirstand, that lyk as the Ministeris began vith ane fals promise, to vit that the peopil sould haue thair teindis frie, and the teacheris of the Protestaons sould gang in sik simpil pouartie, as did the Apostlis, sua that thay may knau that the lesingis hes na measure, fund out 25 be thame, quha hes succedit to thair leing father Kmnox, and lykuyse persauue the hid abominationis, quhilk lurkis vndir thair negatiues. For gif the Paip of Rome, quha euer hes bene President to Christis kirk sen his ascensione, be thocht the Anti-christ, it follouis consequenlie that nather Christ hes ane kirki 30 nather yit hes cummit in the varld, seing as thay teache be instinctione of Sathan, and contempt of God, that his kirk hes bene inuisibil. The reiecting of the halie dayes, quhilk vas institute be the Apostlis, tendis to na vther thing, bot ane obliuione, and foryetfulnes of al the Ioy, that al mankynd hes 35 obtenit be the cumming of our Saluour, and the neglecting of sik solicit honore of his halie name, as had our foirfatheris, quhom God blissed in thair dayes with al spiritual, and temporal benefeittis. Quhairfoir to the effect the Rottin frutes of thair deformatione may be yet mair manifest to the hail varld, I vil 5 subioyne ane comparesone of the treu religione befoir professed in Scotland, with this diabolical hæresie, quhilk being offerit to me be the Author, efter I had endit this my conference, I thocht gude to subione as maist pertinent to the sam effect and purpose.

The Difference, Comparesone, and Change from the treu Catholique fayth to the treu deformed religione.

10 1. Ane change is maid from ane religione quhilk ye had, Vnto fol. 185 r.
monie diuerse and contrarius sectis and formes of maist damnabil hæresie: from ancient Vnto neu: from vniuersal and commune, to priuāt and singular: from that quhilk had the vniuersal consent of your selfis at hame, togidder with al Christian nationis of 15 Europe, Vnto that, or thame, in the quhilk nather your selfis ar aggreit, nor onie monarchie Christian agreis with you.

5. Ane change from praying for saulis according to the vord of God and custume of the halie kirk sen the dayes of our saluour, To condemning the lyf and conuersatione of our præ-
 20 dicessoris vnto hel, be the verie instinctiōne of Sathan: From geuing of almous To dissoluing of hospitallis: From creiping in conuentis To braggin in courtis: From vouing of Chastitie, To maring of Monkis: From consecrating virginis, To vidding of Nunnis: From promiesing pouartie, To professed vsurie: From 25 volotar obedience, To obstinat arrogance: From fasting on fishe dayes, To gormanding fleshe on frydayes and the halie tyme

of lentearne: From vatching and praying, To sleeping in the kirk: From kirk mennis praying, To layick mennis preaching: From sermonis by doctoris, To wemennis lecturis: From ressoning, To railling: From reuerente speche, To fulische laughing at al halie thingis: From remembring on Sanctis, To burning thair 5 imagis: From going on Pilgrimage, To hanting of harlattis: From penance of Pardonis, To dissimulat fayth and presumption: From veping for vickitnes, To laughing at syne: From scrupil of euil doing in smal thingis, To gloir of mischeuous dealing in materis of gretast vecht and importance. 10

15. Ane change from ane veil ordorit religione, quhairin euerie estait vas knauin seueralie be his ecclesiastical apparel, To ane neu fund, headles, and confused rabil of vitles Bishopis inarmit with tua handit suordis, insteid of blessingis and feiding of thair flokis, quha ather compellis thame to pay doubil teindis, to garneis 15 thair vnsauorie mules that beiris thair croces and bringis furth vther smal conspiratoris aganis the kirk of God, or ellis to deluge and leue the grounde voyd and red to thame selfis. And breiffle sik confusione that na stranger, except he be of continual conuersatione with thame, can discerne betuix the popular and usurpit 20 estait of the daft Abbottis, gukkit Prioris, guseheaddit Personis, asin vittit Vicares and the pretland Prebendaris; for housoeuir the headles Parochinaris be inclynit, sua is he also, that he may be estemit ane gude follou and nathing diferent fra the commone sort.

18. Ane change from that quhais anoynted Bishopis and 25 Preistis in presence of God and halie kirk auoued chastitie and leued continent lyuis, Vnto this quhais usurpit Bischopis, apostat preistis and palliard Ministeris professis procreatione of adulterous childrene, and monie of thame pluralitie of harlattis, falslie callit vyuis. 30

20. Ane change from that quhilk vas serued be the ministrie of thame quha had bene brocht up in learning, ordour and obedience, Vnto this, quhais fals prophetes ar maid of Tinklaris, schocloutaris, soutaris, broustaris, skinnaris, tailyeouris, glaisin vrichtis, and professoris of mechanick artis of the baisaist qualitie and maist mischeuous conditione that could be fund amang the vnreulie peopil, becaus the honestar sort vil nocht accept the vocatione.

22. Ane change from that, quhilk be na penaltie constrainit
 10 onie man to leue the fayth or religione quhilk he imbraced, Vnto this quhilk be feir of authoritie, priuat actis of parliament maid in tyme of Ciuile dissensione, commandiment of commissionaris, banesing from the contrey with souertie nocht to returne; by bandis, infinit vexationis, amerciamentis, baratrie, depriuatione from leuings
 15 and offices, inuy of the cuntrey, putting out of the court, displesour of the king, Tinsal of landis, confiscatione of guddis, personal impresonment, by sindrie deathis, schort and violent, tormentes of hungar, compelling men be vord or deid, mair or les, to fal from the fayth quhairin thay var baptized.

20 27. Ane change from that, quhilk keipit your vomankynd in al vomanlie grauitie, To this that leidis the zelous imbracearis thairof vnto al glaikrie: From that quhilk teached thame madinlie schamefastnes, To this that teachis thame to be eschamit at na thing; and has drauin thame, from sobrietie, To vanitie: From 25 cleyennes be vesching, To vnsauorie painting: From being the exemplis of modestie to al nationis, To be patronis of al lichtnes and instabilitie of vit: From sobir lukis, To licht eyne: From sad and ciuil speking, To bauld babling quhatsumeuier, lest thay sould seme ignorant: From vorking, To playing: From spairing, To 30 spending: From bukis of prayer, To ballattis of luue: From occupeing beiddis, To brydling thair heiddis: From veiring of Christs croce and image, To behalding of thair auin dissimilat visage: From threid, seyme, and neidil, To danse at the feidil:

From blushing to heir of mariage, To lauching to heir of loue:
From the bondage of mariage with ane, To the libertie of mareing manie: From a decent feirfulnes conuenient to thair kynd, To ane vndecent hardines: From modest and pudict behauour cumlie for 5 vemen: Vnto mair nor a manlie audacitie, in vord, deid, and al vther sort planlie repugnant to al halines of lyf and the qualiteis of ane profitabil vyf.

Ane Ample Declaration of the Kalendar and thais thingis quhilk perteineis thairto.

Sig. g. vii. Persawing the kallendar of lait reformeit be the autorite of pape Gregore 13, and aduys of the maist lerneit and expert mathematicians of this age, to be improueit and reiectit be thame quha haiffing altogither castin of the obedience of the Catholik apostolik and Romane Kirk with the trow feir of God, do 5 contempe and negleict quhatsoever do proceid ather from the hail body thairrof, ather yeit ony particular membre of the same.
Nocht considering swa mekil the gowdnes or profite of the worke, as thair awin affection towardis the author thairrof, be ressonne thair will being indewit with ane inueterat malice aganis the 10 Catholik kirk, makis thame to tyne taist, of all that do proceid thairfra. Heirfore to the effect that thay quha ar nocht with-drawin be ane obstinat selfuil may vnderstand the occasion and ressones as also the end quhairto the kallendar hes bene reformeit, I think it sall be acceptable to the vnaffectionat ridar, 15 giff before I declair euerie poynt of this kallendar and vse thairrof, I sall pen summairlie the occasion and ressones quhilk hes moweit the Catholik kirk to take in hand and performe this præsent reformation of the kallendar.

Of the Reformation of the Kalendar.

Amangis the Romanes quhom the Christians haiff followeit 20 thair was thre dyuers sorts of kallendars. The first was ordneit be Romulus before Christ 730 yeres: quhilk according to the quantitie of the yere obserueit in that age to contene 304 dayes, was diuydit in ten monethis, Marche, Apryl, Maij, Iunij, Iulie, August, September, October, Nouember, December. The second 25 was constitut be Numa Pompilius 20 yeres thairefter, before Christ 710 yeres, quha following the Arabs did diuyde the yere haiffing 354 dayes in 12 monethis, adding to the formair ten of Romulus Ianuar and Februar: all reconed according to the cownse of the moone, quhilk do change twelff tymes in the yere. Bot Iulius Cæsar, efter Numa Pompilius 666 and before Christ 44 yeres, persawing the festuall dayes nocht to returne yerlie in the 5 same session and tyme of yere, quhairin thay war constitut in the beginning. Be ressone the quantitie of the yere did nocht accorde to the cownse of the sone, quhilk is mair assureit thane the cownse of the moone. He be the aduys of Marcus Flanius and Sosigenes ordineit it to haiff 365 dayes and 6 houris reconed 10 according to the cownse of the sone, quhilk thay cstimeit at that tyme to be completed in swa mony dayes and houris.

And becaus the 6 houris being yerlie omittit in 4 yeres accompleseit ane day, the same was addit to the faird yere in the moneth of Februar, quhairby the faird yere was maid to haiff 366 15 dayes and callit lepe yere. Bot this calculation nocht being altogither æquall to the cownse of the sone, quhilk sence hes bene obseruit to be accompleseit in 365 dayes 5 houris 10 min. and 16 secondis, maid the æquinox of springe tyme to anticipat swa mony dayes passand bak in the kallendar towardis the beginning 20 of the moneth, as oftymes sence Iulius Cæsar 134 yeres hes passeit. For seing Iulius Cæsar reconed the yere to haiff 10 min. 44 secondis mair thane the iust cownse of the sone, quhilkis in 134 yeres makis ane day, in 402 yeres almaist thre dayes: it behoweit the æquinox, quhilk in Iulius Cæsar tyme did fall on 25 the 23 day of Marche, haiff passeit bak to the 21 day at the consele of Nice, quhilk was haldin efter Iulius Cæsar 369, and efter Christ 323 yeres: as also at this present to the 11 day of the said moneth. Heirfore seing that at the consele of Nice, pasche day was ordineit to be celebratit the sonday nixt after 30 the 14 change of the moone, quhilk at that tyme did fall ather on the day self of the æquinox, ather ellis on the day nixt thairefter. Bot in this our age throwch the anticipation of the æquinox is distant thairfra almaist 4 dayes. It was ordineit thairfore at the last generall consele halding at Trent, the 35 Kallendar to be reformeit to the effect that baith the springe tyme æquinox, and 14 change of the moone micht be restoreit to the same tyme and day, quhairon thay fell at the consele of Nice : as also pasche day celebrat at the same tyme quhilk was prescryweit be the said consele : quhairas the error of Iulius Cæsar's kallendar had maid the same by tymes to be celebrat before the 14 moone. And considdering the said reformation 5 was nocht able to be performeit be the consele, it was thocht expedient to remit the cair thair of to pape Pius Quintus, quha being interuenit by daith, left the same to pape Gregore his successor to be accompleseit. Be quhom was assembleit to that effect the maist lerneit and expert mathematicians of Europe, 10 quha efter lang and diligent inquisition of all thais thingis quhilkis nicht serwe or perteine to the said reformation, thocht it maist expedient to tak away the ten dayes, quhairby the æquinox of springe tyme had passeit the dew tyme of the consele of Nice, swa that the anticipation being subtractit, the said æquinox 15 nicht be restoreit to the 21 day of Marche as it was before. And to eschew seke error in tymes cumming, quhair as euerie hundereth yere was complit lepe yere, thay estemeit necessar to make bot euerie faird hundereth yere lepe yere, to the effect that the thre dayes, quhilkis do ouerrine in 402 yeres being subduceit 20 from the formair thre hundereth yeres, the æquinox sould remane perpetuellie stable at the 21 day of Marche, and 14 moone fall ather on the day of the æquinox or ellis on the nixt following, as also pasche day be celebrat, in dew tyme according to the ordinance of the consele of Nice. Considdering heirfore the præ- 25 sent reformation is nocht only swa astableseit by infallible resones, as may suffice to content ony man quha ather dois vnderstand the same, ather ellis will giff eir to resson : bot also derect to seke ane end, quhilk all gowd Catholikis do imbrace. I dowl nocht bot it sall be acceptable baith to thame quha do 30 liff vnder the obedience of the Catholik kirk, as also to thais, quha nochtwithstanding that thay being deuorcit from the Catholik kirk, do neglect the celebration of the festuall dayes, keipeit be the same, and for that respect do nocht admit this present reformation : yeit is willing to accepte quhatsoever be 35 ressonable and profitable for the commonwelth as in speciall this present reformation quhairby the quantitie of the yere is maid æquall with the iust cowlse of the sone, swa that heirefter the calculation of the Kallendar may answeir to the richt sessones of the yere. And albeit thais ressones may satisfie thame 5 quha ar nocht infected be ane affectionat malice aganes the catholik kirk, yeit knowing how difficile it is to ane Catholik abyding and dwelling amangis thame, quha is addicted to ane particular sect of the pretendi relligione, and do altogether reiect the present reformation : to obserwe the festual dayes according 10 to the institution of the kirk vnles he sowld know the difference betuix the twa kallendars. I thocht it necessar to conionne the awld kallendar with the reformeit, and annexe thairto twa tables of the Mouable festis for 48 yeres to cum, quhairof the ane do serwe to the awld, the vther to the reformeit kallendar. Nather 15 only haif I comprehendit heirin thais thingis quhilkis be vseit in the common kallendars : bot also all thais, quhilkis may serwe to the vse of all sort of men : as heirefter is declarit at lenth.

Last seing the ebbeing and flowing of the sey do depend of the moone, I haiff disposed all the varieties of full sey 20 throwchout all the costes and heweningis of Scotland according to the dayes and age of the moone in this table following. The vse quhairof be this lowke quhat day of the age of the moone it is that day quhairin ye wald know ful sey in ony hewening heir mentioned, and against the same ye sall finde in this table 25 vnder that hewening the hour and minutis of full sey for that day. The lettres D. N. annexed to euerie ranke do distinguis the houris of the day frome the houris of the nicht, compting the day frome 6 of the morning to 6 at euening, the nicht frome 6 at euening to 6 of the morning, and, albeit euerie 24 h.
 30 the sey do fill twys : yeit I haiff reconed only that quhilk do fall the moone being in our hemisphere becaus the vther may be easelie collectit thairof, for quhen the ane fallis on the day the vther do fall vnder nicht at the lyk hour.

Heir is takin in the table of the full seys.

The Second Part of the Kalendar contening the catalogue of the Sanctes.

Sig. i. viii. As concerning the vther part of this præsents Kalendar quhairin is comprehendit the Sanctes and martyres with the tyme of their death or suffering I haue compyled the same mair exactlie to the effect the vulgare peple and thais quha geues mair place to reasons and authoritie of the fathers thane to ony particular 5 affectione or opinione, may easilie perceave the malice and ignorance quhairby the Caluiniane ministers abuses the simple and vnlearned peple in their Kalendar prafixed to their new translated Bibles imprented at Edinburgh.¹ Quhairin first is manifest their fraudful and inuyful dealing in that thai haiff 10 insert for the first sanctes of the realme of Scotland Paule Craw, Seir Valter Mil, and vthers of liate memorie and hes nocht maid mentione of thame quha hes florised in this realme sa lang befoire, as S. Colme, S. Patrik, S. Mungo, quha hes giuin vndouted testimonie of their haly life and hes bein acknowledged 15 for sanctes nocht only in this realme bot throuhout the hail warld as is cleir of sindrie monuments and martyrologes: quhairin thay schaw cleirly that as thay professe nocht ane religione with thame so thay acknaulege thame nocht for sanctes: bot wald abolis their names out of the memorie of men. Nixt 20 thay schaw their greit temeritie pitting sic men in their Kalendar for sanctes quha nather in life and conuersatione, nather in the houre of deathe schaw ony appearence of godlynes.

Thirdly ye may perceave thairin their vnskilful ignorance in that thay haiff proceded without ony reule to know quha is 25 sanctes or nocht, for gif thai manteine that the kirk (to quhome

was promised the haly ghaist and quha vses nocht to canonize ony sancte without approbatione of miracles and efter lang fasting and praying, yit neuertheles may erre in the canonizatione of ane sancte: quhat assurance can we haiff of Kilpont, Craig and vthers 5 quha ar the canonizars of thir new sanctes, bot thay may also erre. For albeit euerie ane of thame do wante prouddie and vanelie that he is prædestinat, yit thay vil nocht be so impudent as to say ony of thame to be assured of the prædestinatione of ane vther. Fairdly thair prouddnes is intolerable in setting to 10 light ane Kallendar quhilk nocht only be the Catholik Kirk bot even be ony hæretical congregatiōe out of the realme of Scotland can nocht be approued. As to the Catholik kirk the mater is euident for scho hes condemned Hus, Luther and sike vthers of that sort for maist damnable and perniciousse hæretiks: and 15 as to the assemble of hæretiks, to prætermit mony vthers, gif it be præsentet to the Lutherien synagoge, Zuingle, Caluine and thair complices vil be estimed viked sacramentaires all reddy giuen to the diuelle be father Luthers awne mouth (L. quod verba cænæ adhuc stent) bot gif it be præsentet to the brethrein 20 of Geneue thay vil rebuke it because thay condemne Luther as ane hæretik touching the sacrament of the altar and vther poinctes of religione and vil find great falt also that in the 21 of Februar thay put in Martin Luther slept in the Lord, and left out Iohn Caluine, as gif he had nocht slept in the Lord als 25 veill as Martin Luther. It followis thairfore that this new Kalendar is as the hideouse monster of Lucretius quhilk is said to haiff: Prima leo, postremo draco, media ipsa chimera.

That is to say Catholiks as sanctes Chrysostome, S. Hylare, ioined with Lutherans and Calvinists: for albeit al the ministers 30 of Scotland put thair heades togither thay vil neuer be able to conioine S. Augustine, S. Ambrose, S. Chrysostome in ane con-fessiōe of faith vith Luther and Caluine mair thane Christ and Belial. Last of al thay schaw thair miserable blindnes that in thair kalendare thay haiff left out al memorie of Pasche day, 35 Ascensiōe day, Witsonday and vthers quhilkes euer hes bene obserued amangs all Christians sence the beginning, to hald ws in perpetual remembrance of the mysteries of our faith in swa farre that S. Augustine sayes in his 118 epistle, insolentissimæ est insanix, it is extreme vodnes to doubt quhither thay ar to be kept haly or nocht. And albeit forced be the veritie thay put the Natiuitie of our Sauieur on the 25 of December yeit, through inuy of the Catholik kirk aganst the practise of al Christian men that euer hes bene before thame, thay celebrat it nocht as haly day, and meikle less the dayes of our blissed lady, mother of Christ, and vther sanctes quhilkis thay haiff put also in thair kalendare albeit thay acknauleged neuer that religione quhilk thay professe quhair in thay mane confesse of necessitie that thay contrauene the vse of the Catholik kirk accustomed to celebrat the memorie of sanctes be the institutione of haly dayes. . . .

THE FIRST CHAPTER

in the quhilk is treitit of faith and of the articlis thair of.

page 1. Quha aucht to be callit ane Christiane?

He qvha professis the sound and helthfull doctrine of IESUS Christ verray God, and verray man, in his halie kirk. Quha saeuer heirfoir is ane trew Christiane, condemnis and detestis alluterlie al kynd of worschipping of God, and all sectis quhilkis ar found in quhatsumeuir place different frome the doctrine of Christis halie kirk: sic as præsentlie is the sectis of the Iewis, of Ethnicques, of Mahomeit, and all hæretiques.

To quhat nummer of heidis may we schortlie reduce the haill Christiane doctrine?

To twa principall. To wit wisdom, and iustice. Wisdom consistis as S. Augustine schawis in the Theologicall vertuis that is faith, hop, and cheritie, quhilkis ar pourit be God in the saule of man, and makis men blissit, quhen thay ar sinceirly and feruentlie embracit, and follout in this lyfe. As to righteousnes, it consistis in twa thingis, that is, to eschew ewill, and to do guid. For heirvnto appertenis it, that the Royall propheet sayis 5 (Eschew ewill and do guide) and sua to thir tua, to wit to the knowlege of God, and to righteousnes, as to tva cheif pointis, all the rest quhatsumeir aggreis to Christiane doctrine and discipline, may be easilie reducit.

Quhat aucht to be first and cheiflie treitit in the Christiane doctrine.

Faith is the verray port and entrie of our salvationne, without the quhilk no man may finde God, call vpon him or serue him in this lyffe, for it behowis euerie man, that cummis vnto God, as the apostill sayis, to beleive, for quha will nocht beleive sal be 15 condemnit, yea is alreddie condemnit be Christis awin sentence.

Quhat is menit be that vord faith.

Faith is the gifte of God and a lycht, quhairbe man being illuminat, assentis fermly, and constantlie embraces theyis thingis quhilkis as reuelit be God, and sett furthe to ws be the kirk, to be 20 belewit.

As for exempill, that in the Godheid thair is thrie personis, and bot ane simpill substance, that the world was maid of nothing, that God is becum man, and for man hes sufferit deathe, that blissit Marie remaines still pur virgine, and yit is the mother of 25 God, that all quha are deid salbe raisit vp to lyffe agane, that man is regenerat off vater and the halie goste, that Christ is alhaill contenit in the holie sacrament off the alter, and siclyk secreit mysteris of our religionne quhilkis ar reweilit be God and may nocht be comprehendit be the capacitie off mannis sensis, 30 bot conceaut be faith onli, quhairoff the prophet sayis, Except thow belew thow sall nocht vnderstand, for faith consideris nocht the order and rellis off natur, nor yit dependis on the experience off corporall sensis, naither leanis it vpone the puissance or raisons of man, bot in the pouar and authoritie off God, æsteming plainlie that ane thing assurit, that the suprem and æternall veritie, quhilk is God, nothir may at any tyme deceawe nor be deceawit, quhairfor it is the maist speciall and cheiff propertie off faithe to rander al our hail vnderstanding subiect vnto the humbill obedience off Christ, to quhome no thing is difficil, 5 and far les, impossibill. This faithe is the lycht off the saull, the dure off lyff, and ground off saluation.

Is thair nocht ane breiff and plaine some off our faithe, and off all thingis that ve sould beleiw.

The somme off our faith is contenit in that quhilk the twoll 10 apostlis compylit togeddir, and delyuerit to ws in thair symbol, callit the creid, quhilk thai properlie dewyddit in twoll articlis, ane vork trewlie, worthie of the authoris, quha nixt efter Christ our lord var the principall and maist halie fundarris of our faithe. 15

Quhilk creid is the euident badg quhairbie christiannis ar to be discernit and knawin frome the wickit, quha aither professis na faithe or ellis nocht the trew faithe off Christ.

Quhilk ar the commandments of the kirk?

Thair is reknit fyvve principall, necessar to be knawin and 20 keipit be euerie Christiane.

1. Keip halie from seruil wark the festiual daies ordinit be the kirk.
2. Heir reuerentlie on halie daies the halie seruice of the MESSE. 25
3. Obserue the fastes commandit on certane daies and tymes, as in Lent, in the four tymes of the yeer (comunlie callit Imber daies) and in the euinnes or vigilies of certane solemne daies, on friday and saturday abstein from eating of flesh.
4. Confes thy sinnes euerie yeer ains at the least, to thy auin 30 priest.
5. Receawe the BLISSIT SACRAMENT of the altar, at the least ains euerie yeer and that about the fest of pasch.

SIRE,

The detbound affection, that God hes ingendret in my hart, and confirmit be his inviolable commandiment towards your maiestie, hes mouit me to offre to your grace, this litle tractise, 5 as a smal tribut, of the frutes I haue collectit of my labours this yeire bypast, at the request of some of your Maiesties subiects. This I present to your grace (my Souerain Prince) in signe of my humble subiection to your Royal dignitie. Ressaue this litle offrande, maist gracious prince, with the comfortable eie of your 10 accoustumet faueur towards your humble, loyal, and obedient subiects. The king of kings ressaut in a guid part the smal offrande of a litle denire, that the Euangelical widow offrit of hir glaid pouertie, to his diuine Maiestie, respectand rather the humble obedience and affectionat hart of the offerer, nor the 15 qualitie and quantitie of the oblation. Accept with lyk faueur, my Souerain king, this final oblation presentit be him, wha in hart and word hes euer remanit, and sal remane to his lyfis end your Maiesties maist humble faithful and affectionat subiect. It sal not be vnprofitable to giue some vacant houres to peruse 20 this litle work; for it contenes the onlie and infallible moyen to accord your lauful subiects, quha ar in dissention, contendand for veritie of religion; and to reduce thame al in ane peasible vnion in the trew seruice of God, to thair saluation, and to your Maiesties peasible regne: for whair God is trewlie seruit, thair

constitut yow his lieutenant in ane michtie kingdome, and hes designit yow to beare sceptre in a throne of a larger, and mair potent impyre. He hes indewet yow, amangis mony vther rare giftes, with a quik viuacitie of spirit, and soliditie of sound iudgement aboue mony earthlie Princes, to conseaue and discerne richt from wroung, for the gowernement thair of in equitie and iustice, to the honor of his diuine Maiestie, your awin comfortable regne, and profite of his people. It salbe agreable to him, be whome ye regne, and meritorious to your auin saluation, to imploy thir and your vther rare giftes, to try out whilk of the twa contendand parties in your Realme, mainteines the Iust cause in this spiritual debat, and to reduce thame baith to ane desirit vnion according to the infallible reul, whilk I haue set doune in this buike establisit be the force of manifest scriptures; confirmit be inexpugnable raisons; and continualie practisit in the kirk of God, from Christ dayes vnto our aage, for the reduction of dissaut people in maters of religion, to the salutare vnion, and motherlie bosume of Christs halie Catholik kirk, out of the quhilk thair is na saluation. Gif our aduersaire Ministers, wil remane obstinat in thair particulare opinions, and refuse this iust tryel, for the trew decision of our controuersies, be this infallible touchestane, we wil craue of your Maiestie the lyk benefite, quhilk thay desyrit, and vsurpit be force of armes, at the first planting of thair pretendit religion. Al thair pulpits foundit than, libertie of conscience, freidome to preache the pure word of God, and reformation of religion. We request your maiestie maist humblie, to grant to vs this libertie of conscience, and friedom to preache the trew Euangile of Christ Iesus, in the same sinceritie, as it was teachit be the first planters thair of, the first fyue hundreth yeires efter Christ and his apostles. We craue reformation of religion, and submittis our selfis maist willinglie thairto; and that, efter a manere, whilk your Maiestie wil Iudge to be maist reasonable and conuenient to knaw perfyttie, the puritie and veritie of religion, the whilk al zelateurs of the trew seruice of God aucht to imbrace, as thay suld be desyrous to ressaue thairbe, thair eternal felicitie in heauin.

Our aduersaires mon confesse, that this is the 14 hundreth yeire sen God blissit our countrey with the happie and prosperous gouernement of Christian kingis, twa hundreth yeares before France, and foure hundreth before Spaine. King Donald was 5 our first Christian king, wha beand instructit in our Christian Catholik faith, be some of his awin subiects (whilk was ressaute in Scotland, as witnessis Tertullian, mony yeires before) send his Ambassadeur to pape Victor (wha succedit the 15 to S. Peter in his Cathedral seat at Rome) and impetrat of his halines, lernit 10 and godlie prelats, wha baptiset the king, his wyf, and bairnes, the seconde hundreth yeire of our Lord: at whais exemple his hail nobilitie renuncit thair former Idolatrie, and ressaute Christindome be thair Baptisme, in the bosume of Christs halie and Catholik kirk. Al the noble successeurs of this Godlie and 15 valereus king persistit with al thair subiects, in the publik profession of our Christian Catholik faith, vnto your Maiesties dayes.
Our aduersaires dar not be sa impudent as to deny, that the pure veritie of Christs Euangile hes beine sincerlie preachit, and God trewlie seruit, in some aages of thir fourtene hundreth 20 yeires. Constraine thame than, maist gracious Prince, to designe thir pure aages, and compel baith thame and ws to reforme the seruice of God, and gouernement of the kirk of Scotland, to the puritie of thaise same aages. We prouok thame to this reformation, and craues your Maiesties pouar and protection, to execut 25 the same. We tak witnes of God and man, of our sincere intention, to procure heirbe, the onlie trew seruice of God, your maiesties peasible regne, and the æternel saluation of al the inhabitants of your realme. The liuing God, whais adoration and trew seruice is brocht in contempt and tred vnderfut be the 30 calumnies of our aduersaires, wha stealis the peoples hartes, and procuris our vnnatural banishment, requiris this of your hands.
Gif it was glorious to your first Christian predecessor, king Donald, to haue imbracit our Christiane Catholik faith, and to haue establisit throw al his realme the frie and publik profession 35 thair of, what glorie sal it be to your Maiestie to restore the same to the awin integritie, as it was first professit be your royal

Christian predecessors, and al thair faithful subiects? Gif it be honorable and proffitable to your Maiestie to succede to sa noble and valereus Princes, in thair temporal heritage, and to maintene the same agains the force and violence of al forain 5 ennemies, what greater honor sal your Maiestie ressaue, to succede to thame in thair spiritual heritage of Christs trew seruice, and to restore the same to the awin ancient freidome, and maintene it agains the forces and violence of turbulent ministers of heresie? Your Maiestie was put in possession of this spiritual heritage, be the louing caire of your deir Mother, wha causit 10 Baptise yow in the vnitie of Christs halie catholik kirk, be a Catholik Prelate, lord Ihone Hamilton, Archibishop of saintct Andres, and Primat of Scotland, wha at the same instant did administrat to your Grace, the halie sacrament of Confirmation.¹ When ye sal consider the solemnel aith ye maid to Iesus Christ, 15 be your Godfatheris, to keip his Catholik faith, whilk ye ressauit at your Cristindome be Baptisme, and to serue God in the vnion and motherlie bosome of his halie Catholik kirk, renunceand al heresie, the dewil, and al his workis; I dout not bot your Maiestie sal accomplis this solemnel promesse, and retire your 20 self out of the bondage of heresie and heretiks, and liue in the halie vnion of Christs Catholic kirk, as did al your Christian progeniteurs. Thair saules regnant now in gloire with thair haid Christ Iesus, intercedis for this, before the throne of the liuing God. Thair ardent prayers crauis of his diuine Maiestie, the 25 heauinlie inspirations of the halie Spirit, for your instruction in his trew seruice: and to lat yow sie in what danger ye stand, professand a pretendit religion, vnknawin to Scotland before thir 40 yeares, neuer professit be ony Christian King in the world, bot be your Maiesties self. Helas, sire, thair is bot ane God, 30 ane faith, ane Baptisme; and wha dies out of ony of thir vnions, ¹ There seems no documentary authority for this statement (cf. Burne, supra, p. 109) that the infant king was confirmed; büt it is nevertheless most probable, as the rubric of the Ritus baptizandi, in the Sarum manual, directs, Si episcopus adest, statim eum [infantem] confirmari oportet. Archbishop Hamilton would not willingly omit the rite; and by most of the spectators the additional unction would be regarded as part of the baptismal ceremonies.

dies for euer to God, and liues to Sathan, to thair æternel perdition. Nather riche nor pure, King nor subiect, is exempt from this sentence. Gif Christs pretious bluid hes bein fructifull for the instruction of your Christian forbearis in the veritie of trew 5 religion, and brocht thame to the æternel felicitie of immortal gloire, be his trew seruice: consider, I beseik your Maiestie, for the loue ye aucht to the honor of your redempteur, and caire ye suld haue of your awin saluation, what ye can answeere to your souerain and seuer Iudge, when he sal ask of yow in the 10 day of discussion, why ye seruit him not in the vnitie of that faith, whilk ye ressaut in your Baptisme, why ye adorit him not, in vnitie of that religion, be the whilk, al your Christian predecessors, from king Donalds dayes vnto your aage, worschepit his diuine Maiestie, and obtenit be the same, a couronne of 15 gloire in his immortal kingdome? Meditat this deiply with your self: be cairful to seik out the richt way of your antecessors: keip ane of your eiris to thame, wha with hasard of thair lyfs will defend the iust cause of your noble forbears, and maintene the veritie of thair religion agains al the calumnies of thir new 20 dogmatizers. And I, with al your Maiesties affectionat Catholic subiects, sal pray the ineffable guidnes of our merciful God, to effectuat al your guid and godlie interpryses to the honor of his halie name: and to produce the fruites of the seid of his heauinlie graces, sawin in your saul, be the sacraments of 25 Baptisme and Confirmation, to your maiesties awin saluation, and proffite of his kirk: and sal euer remane with ane ardent affection of ane trew, honest, louing, and kynd Scottis hart,

Your Maiesties maist humble, loyal, affectionat, and obedient subiect.

Apoc. xxii. 18.

SATHAN, heaving layd this fals supposition, that al the scriptures ar facil, plaine, and manifest in thame selfs in sic sort that al the faithful may easelie vnderstand thame, and lerne thair saluation be reiding of the same, hes intysit his ministers, in euerie ane of thir new sectes, to translate the Bible in thair vul 5 gaire tounge. Thir dogmatizars (fearing na wayes the sentence, pronuncit agains the choppers and chaingers of the Bible, that God sal eik to thair iust condemnation the numbre of the intolerable paines of hel, wha eikis or paires the scriptures of God, aether be thair adulterous interpretations, or fals translations; or be thair 10 additions thairto, or detractiouns thairfra) hes translatit the Bible in thair mothers tounge, and corruptit the same in sindrie places be thair fals translations, as I haue remarket in sum places of this traitise, to thraw the scriptures for the defence of thair heresies, and proponis the same to the people, for the pure and 15 sincere word of God. Throw this opinion, thair is nather faithful brother nor sister amangis thair zealous auditeurs, bot mon haue a chapitre red befor or after denner and supper, thair notes gewin thairvpon. Euerie ane of thame is mair nor a sufficient doctor to vnderstand and declare the hail Mysteries of the Bible: al 20 the scriptures ar facil to thame: the licht of the Euangil schynes brichtlie amangis thame: al that thir contrarious spirits collectis of the scriptures in thair contrarious sectes, or contrariouslie in ane sect, is the pure word of God and dytment of the halie spirit, as thir dissaut creatures vantis of thame seluis maist vainlie, dis- 25 saut be the craft of Sathan, wha dois, saw the Zizanie of his damnable heresies in thair hartis, couert vnder the external wordis of the scriptures, to thair æternel damnation wha believes the same.

Vpon this pretendit facilitie of the scriptures thir dogmatizers 30 inferred thair secund haeresie, that euerie ane may lerne the veritie of thair saluation be reiding the scriptures. Wha ar cariet away be thir maist dangerous openions, thay thank thair God, that they may reid thair saluation in the Bible. Thay cry out agains the Catholik prelates and pastors wha permittis not the comune people to reid the scriptures corruptit be the fals translations of thir nouateurs, in thair vulgaire touns: thay defame thame as thocht thay smorit the glorie of God and hid from the 5 people the veritie of thair saluation, whilk (as thay say) thay might plainlie reid in the Bible. This is thair heauie accusation of the Catholiks, and thair auin folische vosting to haue the libertie to reid their saluation in the scriptures, whilks thay cal sa facil and plaine in thame selfis, that euerie ane may vnderstand and lerne 10 their saluation of the same. Gif this be trew what misterit sic people of Scotland, as beliuies this new doctrine, to spend sa mekil vpon thair ministers, in stipendis, Glebis, Mansis, and vther casualities collectit to enterlenie thame with thair wyfis and bairnes? War it not sufficient that euerie man red his 15 saluation with his wyf and familie in his privat hous, and send thair Ministers to keip scheip, or than to mak mortar for the buildin of the kirks quhilks thay haue distroyet, to mak amends for thair reformation of destruction, be thair Caluinian Euangile of pul al doun: or exerce vther temporal vocation (les dangerous 20 to thair saules nor to intrud thame selfis in the ecclesiastical ministrie agans the command of God) and cast in a fyre al the commentaires of Luther, Zuinglius, Caluin, and al vthers wha has presumit to expone and teache be thair commentaires to vthers, the scriptures, whilks thay cal sa facil in tham selfis that 25 euerie ane may easelie vnderstand the same.

 To brydil this proud libertie of sik laik and temporal personnes, as presumis to reid, interpret, and vnderstand the scriptures be thair auin spirits and priuat iudgments, or be the doctrine of sik as intrudis thame selfis in the ecclesiastical 30 ministrie without al lauful vocation, agains whome S. Paul sayes, Quomodo predicabunt nisi mittantur, hou sal, or dar, Rom. x. 15. thay preache except thay be sent: the Apostle askis of thir 1 Cor. xii. 39.
 Bible reiders, Numquid omnes Apostoli? Numquid omnes Prophetæ? Numquid omnes doctores. Ar al Apostles? Ar 35 al prophetes? Ar al doctors? Ar al merchands, Tailours,

Souters, Baxters, Maissons, or vthers Artisans, wha can not lerne thair auin craftis with out skilful maisters; ar thir, I say, and vther temporal men, of what someuer vocation or degree, sufficient doctors of thame selfis to reid and vnderstand the hie Mysteries of the Bible, and mak sik glosses and applica- 5 tions of the same, as thay forge and formis be thair auin particular spirits, repugnant to that whilk hes beine teachit thir fyftene hunderith yearis bypast, be the vniforme doctrine of al the lauful pastors of Christs vniuersal kirk? Gif King Ozias was iustlie strukin be God with Leprosie, becaus he 10 vsurpit ane publik action in the Ecclesiastical Ministerie, and died miserablie, cassin out of the hous of the lord, for vsurpation of that function whilk appertenit not to his royal dignitie; gif 1 king Saul was also reprobate of God for the lyke offence and he, and his posteritie excludit from his kingdome; what sal thir 15 priuat temporal men abyde at the handis of God for thair presumption, to vsurpe the office of doctors and pastors in reiding, exponing, and teaching of the Scriptures, whilk appertenis na wayes to thair temporal vocation?

What folie is it that wemen, wha can not sew, cairde, nor 20 spin without thay lerne the same of vther skilful wemen, suld vsurpe to reid, and interpret the Bible, and apply the texts thair of as thair licht, vaine, and vnconstant spirits inuentis? I wald exhort thame to remark that thair first mother Eua, for melling hir self with maters of religion, presumand to interpret 25 the command of God concerning the eating of the forbidden Aple, procurit be hir doctrine a curs of God to hir and al woman kynd, to beare thair childrine in the sorrow of thair hartes, and hazard of thair lyfes: hir husband wha obeyit hir voce, incurrit a malediction to him and his posteritie, for the earth throw the 30 curs of God become barran and vnfructful, and he with his offspring incurrit the sentence of daith. This was the recompance of the first woman for hir presumptuous doctrine in maters of Religion, dissauit throw a vaine hope, and fals persuasion to be lyke vnto God in knauing guid and euil. 35

- I wald request thir zealus systers, wha findis na difficultie in al the scriptures, to assemble thame selfis at ane efter nuns collation, and consult maturlie what is the trew meaning of this scripture, Melior est iniquitas viri, quam mulier benefaciens, i. the iniquitie of a man is better, nor a woman doand weil. I wald ask lyk wayes of thir sipplers of guid sueit wyne, what is the trew meaning of this scripture spokin of the Messias, and of the cheif benefites of his cumming. Quid enim bonum eius est, et quid pulchrum eius: nisi frumentum electorum, et vinum germinans virgines, i. for what is the guid of him, and what is the beautiful of him, except the frument or vhyt, of the elect, and wyne ingendrand virgens? What meanis the prophete, be this wyne that ingendres virgens? Is it sik whairof thay tippie willinglie at thair Comeres banquets? or is it mair excellent nor thairs in the whilk is the nouriture of lichurie whilk repugnes to virginite and chastitie of lyf? what vther kynd of wyne can this be, bot onlie that whilk the Messias at the institution of his new testament, did consecrat in his pretious bluid in the halie sacrament of the altare, whilk drunkin ingendres virgens makand a chast and halie lyf, lyk vnto pure virgens? The Ministers hes peruertit this text be thair Scottis translation in thir wordis: For hou great is his guidnes, and hou great is his beautie: Corne sal mak the young men cheereful, and new wyne the Maydes. Lustie Comeres be mirrie, for your Ministers sayes be this text, that your Messias is come to make young men cheereful be corne, and maydes cheereful be new wyne. I leaue to the reidar to considder the adultering of this text for the approbation of thair fleschlie and Epicuriane Euangile. Gif thir systers finds difficultie in thir scriptures, it wil please thame to desist from beliuing this former heresie concerning the facilitie of the scriptures, and to renunce thair vther heresie that euerie ane, man or woman, may lerne the veritie of thair saluation, be the reiding of the scriptures efter thair auin iudgements.

page 59. S. Peter settis doun ane general reul, that dois not onlie refut thir former heresies, bot also confundis the diuers and contrarious interpretations of al particular persones and sectes saying, Omnis prophetia scripturæ propria interpretatione non fit.
 i. al prophetie of the scripture, is not maid be a priuat inter- 5 pretation. The Apostle schauis be this that na prophetie or trew exposition of the scriptures is be the priuat interpretation of ony particular persone. This reul makis agains the adultering of the scriptures be the particular interpretations of priuat persones wha ar al sik as hes na publik chairge, nor lauful vocation in 10 the kirk of God. The first autheurs of thir neu sectes war of this qualitie, to wit Martin Luther, a priuat monk in Germanie: Zuinglius, a particular preist in Sueisseland: Caluin, a priuat Chanoine of Noyon in France: Beze a Prieur of Longemeau besyde Paris wha sauld his Priorie tuiyse, and tuik Candida 15 a mans wyf with him to Geneue; Knox a renegat prest of Haddintoun in Scotland, wha was excommunicat for hauing ado with the mother and the daughter in ane killoggy, and thairefter was banisit for the assisting to the murthere of the Cardinal Beton in the Castel of Saint Andres; and his pre- 20 decessor Paul Methuen, a priuat baxter in Dundie; and Willie Harlay, a tailyour in Edinbourg. Sik lyk the first autheurs of al vther particular sectes, erectit within thir thrie or fourscoir yearis, war priuat men, wha maid Apostacie frome the Catholik Apostolik and Romane Kirk, and forgit new opinions in religion, 25 be thair auim priuat and particular interpretations of the scriptures; and persuadit the same to be the veritie of saluation to vnconstant and licht spiritit men, wha war drauin auay with licht windis of doctrine in thir contrarious wayes of perdition, and geuin ouer, for thair synnes, to belieue the Spirit of erroures, 30 wha is the autheur of al heresie and diuersitie in religion. . . .

For this cause it war mair expedient that thir reiders of the Bible wha presumis to vnderstand the same be thair priuat Spirits and particular iudgements, imployit thair tyme in thair temporal affaires euerie ane according to thair auin vocation, nor 35 to presume to reid thair Bibles efter thair particular iudgements,

- whilk is ane damnable adultering of the Word of God, together with the peruerting thair of be the fals translation of thair ministers, as is euident be the Scottis translation of this former passage of S. Peter, whilk thay haue falslie translatit on this wais,
- 5 Na prophecie in the scriptures is of ony priuat motion. Wha vnderstandis the Latin and Greik text, may sie the adultering of this scripture: for whair the text of the Apostle bearis Prophetia scripturæ, the prophecie of the scripture: thair Caluinian text bearis In the scripture: and whair S.
- 10 Peter sayes propria interpretatione: be a particular or priuat interpretatione, the ministers hes translated be a priuat motion. This chainging of the wordis, desguyses this scripture, and corruptis the text, that men suld not perseau be the same, that thair particular interpretation of the scriptures is not the
- 15 prophecie and trew meaning thair of, and thairfor suld be reiectit as the deuilege adultering of the word of God. For al particular mens exposition of the scriptures, and al chopping and chainging of the same, is the verie corruption thair of, whilk deseruis æternel damnation: and wha reidis the Bible choppit and
- 20 changit, and falslie translatit in mony hunderith places be thair ministers, ar greatumlie dissauit in maters of saluation, imbracing the wordis of men corruptand the scriptures, for the pure word of God. This was the cheif cause why the Catholik Bischops forbad the people to reid the Englis new testament in
- 25 the beginning of this sect, becaus it was corruptit, be eiking and paring, chopping and changing in thair fals translations: And albeit the neu testament and al the Bible war treulie translatit in Scottis (as I wisse it war) yet euerie priuat persone, wha could reid the same, suld not presume to interprete and
- 30 expone it be his priuat iudgement, bot aught to imbrace it onlie in sa far as the difficil places thair of war trewlie exponit be the lauful pastors of the treu kirk of God, to whome onlie this chairge appertenis.

maid to the ministers.

Be the same reul we haue offrit sindrie tymes, and presentlie offers, to proue, vnder the paine of daith, that the doctrine of thir dissaitful Ministers is damnable heresie, becaus it repugnes to the vniforme doctrine of al the ancient Pastors and Prelats of the vniuersal kirk of God sen Christs dayes. The Ministers dar 5 not come to this tryel. Lat the Bible be set doune and exponit be the commune consent of al the ancient doctors, and cheiflie be thame wha florisit in Christs kirk the first fyue hunderith years; we ar content to be castin quik in ane publik burning fyre, gif we conuict not, be the Bible sa exponit, al thair doctrine 10 whairin thay differ from vs, to be damnable heresie. This I offrit to thame in the 80 year of God, and sindrie hes offrit the same sensyn in name of al the Catholiks: bot thair culpable consciences procuris na vther ansuere, bot our inprisonement and ingrait banishment. Thay feare not to banisse thame selfs 15 or rather debarre thame selfs frome the kingdome of heauin, for treason committit agains Christ and his Catholik kirk, be thair heresies. Be this former discours euerie man may sie, how detestable ar the foure heresies contenit in the tua forsayd suppositions, vpon the quhilks, Sathan be his Ministers hes groundit 20 his fals reul, sending euerie ane to lerne the veritie of religion, be reiding and exponing the scriptures efter thair auin fantasies, as thocht the scriptures, war al sa facil in thame selfis that euerie man and woman micht vnderstand thame, wha can reid the same in thair mother toung; and thocht thay contene al things 25 necessaires for mens saluation. That men suld belue nathing bot that whilk is contenit in expres words of the scriptures. Be the contraire, I haue prouin that the scriptures ar difficil in thame selfis: that God hes not gevvyn to euerie man the gift of treu interpretation, and charge to expone the scriptures, bot to 30 the onlie lauful pastors and doctors of his trew kirk. I haue also confirmit that the scriptures contenis not al things necessaires for mens saluation, and that men aucht to belue sindrie things whilks ar not contenit in expres wordis thairin as God comandis be his scriptures, the declaration of the whilks he hes 35 committit to the onlie lauful Pastors of his kirk.

- The Caluinian Ministers to maintein thair contraire heresies, page 151. affirmand that it is impossible to be without sinne in this lyf, and that the glorious Mother of God was ane sinful woman lyk vthers, hes corruptit this salutation of the Angel be thair fals translations 5 in their Scottis Bible, screpping out the wordis (ful of grace) Note. and putting in thair Caluinian text (frelie beloouit) as thocht the Angel had sayd, haile thow art frelie beloouit; bot his trew salutation is, HAILE FUL OF GRACE. This fulnes of grace of this glorious lady, seruit not onlie for hir auin sanctification, bot also to obtain 10 fulnes of grace and halines of lyf to vthers, whome scho luifis, and wha honoris hir, as thay aught to honor the Mother of God: for when scho passit to visit hir Ant Elizabeth, hir Ant was replanisit with the halie Spirit at hir salutation, as the Euangile bearis, saying; And it come to pas that sa sune as Elizabeth hard 15 the salutation of Maria, the barne (S. Ihone the Baptist) reiosit Luc. i. 41, 42.
in his mothers wombe, and Elizabeth was replenisit with the halie Spirit, and scho cryit with a loud voce and sayd, Blissit art thow amangis al wemen, and blissit is the fruit of thy wombe; and how is this commit to me, that the Mother of my lord suld come to visie 20 me. The Ministers schauis heir thair malice in suppressing the honor appertening to the glorious Mother of God, be thair fals translation of the former text in thair Scottis Bible; for whair Elizabeth extollit the halie virgine Marie sayand that scho was blissit aboue al wemen, and also that the fruict of hir wombe was 25 blissit; thair Caluinian text bearis, that scho was not blissit in hir self for ony vertew that was in hir, bot becaus the fruict of hir wombe was blissit. And for the same occasion thay peruert ane vther text of this same chaptre; for when this humble virgine sang the prayses of hir Saueour, for the glaid tydings 30 scho ressauit of the Angel, of his conception in hir blissit wombe; scho sayd, My saule magnifie the Lord, etc. quia respexit humili- tatem ancillæ suæ, i. becaus he hes had regarde to the humilitie of his seruante. To suppres this verteu of humilitie whilk was in hir, thay haue put auay the word humilitie, and hes put in thair 35 Caluinian Euangile, the wordis, poore degree, sayand, that the Lord had loked vpon the poore degree of his seruante. This adultering of the text tendis to the dishonor of hir Glorious Sone, and repugnis to the Euangile ; becaus S. Mathew declarand the genealogie of our Saueour in his humane nature on his mothers syde, schawis that scho descendit of the noble kings of Iuda. I leaue the Iudgement to the readar, to consider, gif this doughter 5 of the stok off a noble and royal bluid in that tribe, whome God chosit for his people amangis al nations, and the whilk he honorit with the Natiuitie of the Messias, wha sauet the warld, was of a poore degree or not ?

page 172. Thay teache lykwayes contrarious doctrine concerning the 10 exposition of the command, keep halie the sabbath day, for albeit thay consent baith to the changing of the Saterdag in the Exo. xx. Sonday, as the halie Spirit hes prescryuit, and causit to obserue in al aages in the Romane kirk, for the honor of Christs resurrection, yit thay accord not that this sabbath, or day of repose, suld 15 be referrit als weil to the festuale and halie dayes of Christs Conception, Natiuitie, Circumcision, Ascension to heauin, and Sending of the halie Spirit on Witsonday, as to the day of his resurrection, for thay of England kepis thir dayes halie, and mony vthers ; as the dayes of the Apostles and of sindrie halie 20 martyres of the primitiue kirk, affirming that thir ar comprehendit vnder the Sabbath whilk is the day of repose. Bot the Ministers of Scotland teachis the contraire doctrine in exponing this command, referring the sabbath to the onlie sonday ; and thairfor in contempt of the vther halie dayes obseruit be Eng- 25 land, thay cause thair wyfis and seruants spin in oppin sicht of the people vpon Yeul day ; and thair affectionat auditeurs constraines thair tennants to yok thair pleuchs on yeul day in contempt of Christs Natiuitie, whilk our Lord hes not left vnpunisit ; for thair oxin ran wod and brak thair nekis, and leamit sum 30 pleugh men, as is notoriouslie knawin in sindrie partes of Scotland. Of this it is manifest that thay of Scotland and England ar different in thir substancial pointes of trew religion, baith concerning the interpretation of this command of God, and also touching the gouvernement of the kirk be the auctoritie and superioritie of Bischops. Thairfor thay of Scotland and England hes not vntie of religion; mekil les haue thay vntie of religion with the Lutherians in Germanie; with the Zuinglians in Sueisland; with the Anabaptists in Holand and Freisland; or with ony of the vthers sectes of protestants. Thairfor thair pretendit kirk hes not this vniuersalitie of places whilk is necessairlie requyrit in the trew Catholik kirk. The onlie Romane kirk, hes this qualitie, for it is dispersit amangis al Nations of the foure 10 quarters of the world, in Europe, Asia, Africa, and America. As for Europe, it is mair nor manifest that the maist puissant contrey thair of makis publik profession of our Christiane Catholik and Romane faith: and whair God hes permittit, for the sinnes of the people, that ony countray hes maid defection thairfra, vther 15 countreyes in greater numbere hes ressauid and imbracit the same, in the Oriental and Occidental Indes. As for Asia, al the great countreyis of Prestre Iean makis oppin profession of the Catholik faith, and adoris the liuing God be the halie sacrifice of the Messe; sik lyk dois the patriarch of Constantinople, and al the 20 Christians of the Greik kirk, to whome the great Turk giwis frie exercise of our Catholik religion, sa that thay pay to him ane ordinaire tribut. Wha makis the voyage to the halie graue knawis that thair is daylie Messe celebrat in publik conuentis of Gray freres at Hierusalem; and presentlie the patriarch of Alexandria 25 in Ægypt, is at Rome acknowleging the superioritie of his halines, and desyring his assistance agains the infidelis and vther enemies of our Christian Catholik faith.

Of Penitence.

Our Saueour sayes, Nisi pœnitentiam egeritis omnes similiter peribitis, except ye do penitence ye sal al lykwayes perishe. The 30 Ministers adulteris this scripture be thair Scottis translation, screpand out thir wordis, Except ye do penitence, and putting in thir wordis, Except ye amend your lyfis; becaus to do penitence page 276.

 Luc. xiii. 5.

what is to do
penitence.

repugnes to thair Caluinian Euangile, whilk denyes that penitent sinners can do penitence: for this includis not onlie a chainging of thair former wikit lyf in a guid and halie lyf, bot also it importis that this chaingement suld be maid with ane inwart dolor and sorifulnes of hart, and with a penal satisfaction for 5 sinnes committit. . . .

Note.
Luc xix. 8.

The penitent Zachæus thocht it not aneugh to amend his lyf in abstening from sinne, as the Caluinists preachis, bot was reddie to mak satisfaction for his sinnes, sayand to our Lord, Ecce dimidium bonorum meorum domine do pauperibus, et si quid aliquem defraudaui, reddo quadruplum. i. Behald, Lord, I giue 10 the half of my geir to the pure, and gif I haue defraudit ony man of ony thing, I giue to him the four fauld bak againe. Bot this Caluinian Euangile repugnes to al satisfaction, requyring onlie to amend thair lyffis: a braue Euangile. That the theif newer 15 restore the stowin kow, nor the oppressor the vnlaiful possessit rouses and euil conquisit geir. The Ministers dar not teache this restitution of wrangous geir for than thay behuifit to renunce thair heresie, and acknowlege that man can mak satisfaction for sinnes, whilk is maist necessaie to obtien remission thair of, for 20 as the commune saying is, Non dimittitur peccatum nisi restitatur ablatum. The sinne sal not be forgevvin, les nor that be restorit whilk is tane away. This restitution is requyrit to do penitence, and not onlie to amend our lyfis be abstening from doing euil in tymes to come. This Caluinian doctrine 25 brings a deuilege libertie to retein and possede wrangous geir to al theifis and oppressors to thair auin perdition.

Efter that thir Ministers hes brocht this satisfaction and auralare confession in contempt lest thay appeare to be ennemies of al doing of penitence, thay haif prescryuit ane new maner of 30 publik, infamous repentance, whilk obtenis na remission of sinnes, bot be the contraire is the cause of desperation in mony personnes, to thair damnation, for of it proceidis murthre, not onlie of thame selfis, bot also of thair childrene. It is certaine that na constraunt repentance deseruis remission of sinnes at Gods 35 handis. Bot this publik and infamous repentance, to be set vp

- in publik places, in kirk and market is constraint be the tyrannie of the Ministers. I appele to thair auin consciences, gif ather man or woman did present thame selfs to mak thair publick repentance willinglie: thairfore thair pretendit repentance can
- 5 not deserue at God's hands remission of sinnes. I ask of the Ministers to what vse seruiss this thair infamous publick repentance. Gif it be to ressaue remission of sinnes, and to mak satisfaction for the same, then thay mon renunce this article of thair negatiue faith detestand satisfaction of men for thair sinnes.
- 10 Thay mon also renunce ane vther article of thair negatiue faith detestand indulgencis, becaus thay dispense with sindrie in this publik repentance, for fortie pound the personne. Lat thame schaw me whair euer the pape sauld indulgencis, or sa deir dispensations as thir ar? Or then confesse thame selfis to

- 25 It is knawin also how wemen with barne to eschew this publik infamie to be set vp in ane opin place with the half of thair haid schevin, and vther notes of ignominie, did droun thame selfis in the Northloch. Vther tounis can schaw sik horrible exemples, and particularlie, how mony young wemen, to eschew this in-
- 30 famous repentance, hes murtherit the fruict of thair auin wombes, some be vnlesome drinkis, vthers be casting thair new borne babes in filthie priuets, vthers in colpots, and in vther secret places. Is not this to win saules to Sathan, baith of bairnes deand without Baptisme, of wemen and men murthering thame selfis throw desperation, and of vthers assisting to the vnnatural murthre of thair auin childrene. O blindit people of Scotland, wha seis not, how thir fraudful workers, prescryues to yow ane publik infamie, that bringis to disperation, and to ane deplorable damnation of men, wemen, and childrene, in staid of trew repent- 5 tance: for trew repentance confortis soriful saules, becaus thay ressaue the comfortable sentence of absolution from thair synnes in the bluid of Christ Iesus. What interior confort can thay ressaue amangis yow, wha ar put to ane oppin sclandre and schame be the tyrannie of your Ministers in making thair pretendit repentance, 10 seing thay ressaue not absolution of thair sinnes? Gif thay estime that this publik punition, seruis for exemple that thay and vthers may abstine from committing of sik sinnes in tymes to come suld thai propone sa horrible exemples that bringis sa mony saules to the eternel paines of hel? It mon be the interior 15 feare of God, and loue of thair auin saluation, whilk penitent sinners ressauiis be the comfortable sentence of absolution, and nocht the external punition, whilk suld moue thame to abstine from sinne. Nather can your Ministers maintene this infamous repentence be warrand of ony scripture. The Niniuits maid 20 repentence nocht be compulsion, or for feir of imprisonment or of ony corporal paine, bot willinglie, beand mouit be the preaching of the prophete Ionas, wha schew to thame the danger of thair saules and thair imminent ruine for thair sinnes gif thay did not penitence. Thay vsit na schevin of haidis, nor papers of 25 infamie vpon thair forets, nor setting vp of personnes in publik places, of kirk and market, to be a spectacle to the people. Nather can thir dogmatizers schaw ony exemple of this in the primitiue kirk. Be the contraire thair was neuer publik repent-ence inioynit for priuat sinnes in ony aage; bot euer particular 30 repentence was dew for the remaid and remission of secret and particulare sinnes, as publik repentence was<sup>1</sup> for the remaid and remission of publik sinnes, and that, without sik tyrannie and compulsion as thir Ministers visis for priuat faultes. Sa thay peruert the repentence that hes beine vsit in Christs kirk in a aages; thay deny the trew effect baith of particulare, and of publik repentence, whilk is institut be Christ to obtene absolution and remission of sinnes, be the pastors of his kirk, for 5 reconciliation of penitent sinners to God.

Of the Sacrament of the Altare.

. . . The prophete forspeikis that this same sacrifice suld be offrit page 327.
to the honor of God in Ægypte sayand, Et cognoscent Dominus Isa. xix. 21.
ab Ægypto, et Ægyptij cognoscent Dominum in die illa, et colunt eum in hostijs, et in muneribus, et vota vouebunt Domino, et 10 soluent, And the lord salbe knauin of Ægypte, and the Ægyptians sal know the Lord in that day, and thay sal worschipe him, in sacrifices and giftis, and thay sal vou voues vnto the lord, and sal performe the same. What can be mair plainlie spokin nor this, that God suld be worschipt be external sacrifice in the 15 Euangelical law? Thir sacramentaire Ministers, to hyde this trew worscheping of God be sacrifice, forme the people whome thay dissau, hes mutilat this passage takand out of thair Scottis bible al this clause: Thay sal worschip him in sacrifice and 20 giftes.<sup>1</sup> What sacriligious dealing is this, to eik and paire the scriptures? baith to hyde the treuth in maters of mens saluation and to maintein also detestable heresies agains the trew seruice of God.

Of the Halie Communion.

. . . Thridlie we haue to remark, that the trew communion makis page 356.
the worthie ressauers thair of to haue fellowschip with the liuing 25 God, and the fals communion makis the ressauers of the same

<sup>1</sup> This is a very curious and definite charge, and one capable of being easily tested. The version of the Bible referred to, is, however, either entirely lost and forgotten, or it never existed but in the imagination of Hamilton.

The only edition of the Bible published before 1600, that, strictly speaking, can be called Scottish, is the Arbuthnot-Bassandyne Bible, printed at 1 Cor. x.

to haue fellowschip with deuils: thairfor wha ar partakers of a fals communion ar vnworthie to be partakers of the table of the lord, for wha hes fellowschipe with deuils be a fals communion, can not haue fellowschipe with God be his trew communion. Ye can not (sayes the Apostle) be partakers of the table of the lord, 5 and of the table of dewils. In what dangerous estaite than ar sik politik Catholiks, wha for feir of tinsel of geir, or for aduancement to warldlie riches and dignities, dois communicat at the table of thir Caluinian Ministers? Thay bourde in this mater of conscience sayand, that the Ministers ar not sa euil, bot men 10 may eat and drink bread and wyne with thame at thair communion. It is verrie hard to bourde with God, speciallie in maters concerning his trew seruice, and mens saluation. Lat sik bourders estime what thay plaise, yit it is certaine that the table of the Caluinian communion is the table of deuils, seing 15 the table of our Catholik communion is the table of the lord.

Edinburgh in 1578. This is simply the English "Genevan" version with a Scots preface. Here the verse in question runs thus: 'And the Lord shall be known of the Egyptians, and the Egyptians shall knowe the Lord in that daie, and do<sup>x</sup> sacrifice and oblation, and shal vowe vowes vnto the Lord, and performe [them].' In reference to the crucial words 'do sacrifice,' there is a marginal note, '*By these ceremonies he comprehendeth the spiritual seruice vnder Christ.'

It may be said, however, that any edition of the Genevan Bible can be described in a wide sense as the Scottish Bible, inasmuch as this was the version in general use in the country; and, though the genuine editions of this Bible contain the verse entire, there are known to have been printed surreptitiously in Holland six or seven editions, all bearing the date 1599, with the name of Barker, the English Queen's printer, on the title-page. These pirated editions indeed differed among themselves, and were full of errors; but they, or the most of them, were probably printed after 1599, and could hardly have been seen by Hamilton, whose preface is dated April 1600. In any case, four of them, which I have been able to examine, are innocent of any error in this particular verse, and all have the above-quoted note upon the text which should have kept the printer right. It is to be observed that Hamilton does not complain here of any faulty translation. He charges the ministers plainly with mutilating the passage, "takand out of thair scottis bible al this clause."

It may be added that Thomas Ward in his once famous "Errata of the Protestant Bible" (4th edition, with a preface by Dr. Lingard) makes no mention of any such omission. Hamilton's statement therefore remains altogether inexplicable.

The ane or the vther mon be the table of deuils. Bot wha ar participant of the communion at the table of deuils (says the Apostle) hes fellowschipe with deuils and ar maid partakers of thame and of thair seruice. Thairfore wha ar participant at the 5 table of this Caluinian communion hes fellowschipe with deuils, becaus thay ar maid partakers of thair seruice. This is the iust reuard whilk thay ressaue for thair communion with the Ministers, agains the knawin veritie. Thir politiks flatters thame selfis in this impietie, estimand that it is na sinne to eat and drink bread
 10 and wyne, whilks ar guid creatures of God. Lat thir grosse Christians consider that the Idolathits war guid createurs of God in thame selfis, yit the communion thair of was sa euil, that it maid the ressauers of the same partakers of deuils and of thair seruice. In lyk maner, albeit the braid and wyne in the Caluinian 15 communion be guid in thame selfis, yit becaus thay ar applyit thairin to a fals vse, repugnant directlie to Christs institution, thay mak the ressauers thair of partakers to the worscheping and seruice of dewils, and be this thay mak thame selfis vnworthie to ressaue the trew communion of Christs pretious bodie and bluid 20 at the table of the lord, be the whilk thay suld be nourisit spirituallie in saule and bodie to æternel gloire.

The Sacrament of Mariage.

. . . When the Apostle sayes that Mariage is a great sacrament, he subioines, I say, in Christ and his kirk. Seing than that mariage amangis trew Christians, quha ar membres of Christs Catholik 25 kirk, conferris grace for thair inwart sanctification, and to fortifie thair spiritual vnion: thairfore mariage amangis trew Christians, is a trew sacrament. In this it differs from the Mariage of pagans and heretiks, quhais mariage is not a sacrament, and consequentlie thay ar destitut of this sacramental grace, quhilk 30 is the caus of sa lytil loue and fidelitie, as is sein betuix mariet personnes amangis thame. Luther the first autheur of al thir

new sectis, wha deboischit a Nunne, and contractit hir in sacriligious mariage, schew this in effect, quhen he sayd, si non vult vxor, veniat ancilla: Gif the wyf wil not, lat the seruand woman come. East Laudiane knawis the loue and fidelitie of ane of thair Ministers towards his wyf, wha worriet hir before he passit 5 to his preaching. I wil not insist to declaire in particular the vnfaithful dealing of mony mariet personnes amangis thame, the abominable adulteries, the cruel murthers and bluid scheddngis, the desolation of sindrie families, be insolent rinning auay of wyfis from thair husbands, and mens licentious abandoning of 10 thair wyfis, agains the faith, and law of mariage; and al becaus thair mariage is not a sacrament.

1 Cor. vii.

Bot in this chaptre he [S. Paul] preferris the dignitie of virginie to mariage, becaus, sayes he, wha liues a chast lyf without mariage, is cairful of thais things that appertenis to the lord, how he may 15 please God. Qui autem cum vxore est, sollicitus est quæ sunt mundi quomodo placeat vxori, et diuisus est: Bot wha is mariet with a wyf is cairful of thingis pertening to the warld, how he may please his wyf: and he is deuydit. Scotland experimentis this throw the great vsuries quhilk thir Caluinolatre Ministers 20 committis, for the cair thay haue to nourish thair wyfis, bairnes, and famelies, some taking twentie poundis for the hunder, vthers threttie, and vther sik lyk execrable occres repugnant to the expres word of God, and lawes of the countrie: and be this thay suke the bluid of the pure and indigent people. Be the 25 contraire the honorable prelat and curats in the dayes of our forbears, wha had na wyfis nor bairnes to entretennie, nourisit mony pure people be thair charitable liuing. Thairfore the chast lyf in virginie that Ecclesiastical men voues to God and ar oblisit to obserue the same without mariage, is mair agreable 30 to God; mair propre for his diuine seruice and mair profitable to the Republique, nor is the lyf of mariet personnes, albeit mariage be guid and honorable in the self. For this cause

1 Cor. vii. 38.

S. Paul preferris the cœlibat and virginie to mariage sayand,

Qui matrimonio iungit virginem suam, bene facit: et qui non iungit, melius facit: Wha ioinis his virgine to matrimonie, dois weil; bot wha conioinis hir not to mariage, dois better. Beatior autem erit si sic permanserit: Bot scho salbe happier gif scho
 5 remaine in the stait of hir virginitie. The Pape than and Prelats wha preferris this happier lyf of chastitie and virginitie to mariage, ar in ane mair blissit estait, to serue God with les caire of the world, and greater puritie of lyf, nor thay wha contractis mariage; and yit thay estime mariage ane honorable band, and callis it 10 with S. Paul a great sacrament, quhilk thir new dogmatizars denyis with the auld condemnit heretiks.

Thir seducers and dissauers of the people in maters of their saluation, suffers the separat persone, wha hes not committit adulterie to contract new mariage, and permittis not this to 15 the vther wha hes committit the cryme. This thay do to conquisse a name of guid iusticiers, to punish the falther, as ever the heretik transformis himself, as S. Paul sayes, in the minister of Iustice and lycht, that vnder the clok of iustice and veritie, thay may establis thair coulorit vyces and heresies. I ask of 20 thame gif the separation quhilk thay mak for fornication brekis the band of mariage or nocht? Gif it brekis not the band, the mariage of ather of the parties is adulterous, for ane can not be bund to twa at ane tyme in laufull mariage: Gif it brekis the band, why suld not the partie that hes committit
 25 the cryme be frie to marie whome he or scho plaisses, seing this persone is not bund to ane vther? may not the same persone allege this scripture, that is better to marie nor to burne, to prove that thair pretext of punishment is agains the word of God, and that thay suld marie becaus thay haue not the 30 gift of continencie? Thay may allege this with als guid raison for thame selfis agains thir ministers, as the Ministers thame selfis allegit this scripture at the first preaching of thair fleschlie and licencious Euangile, to proue that renegat preists, forloppin monkis and freres, and vthers apostat ecclesiastical men and wemen suld marie; nocht withstanding of thair vou of chastitie maid to God, sayand, it was better to marie nor to burne. Be this fleschlie libertie thay alluret volupteous religious personnes to thair Epicurian Euangile, to accomplis thair insatiablie lustis of the flesche, be adulterous and sacrilegious 5 mariage of Channons, monkis, Nunnes, freres, and al vther sortis of renegat preists, amangis whome we haue ane notable example of Frere Ihone Craig, wha cust of his coule, gangand throw ane forrest in Italie as he vantit him self in sindrie compagnies becaus ane blak dog gaue to him be the way ane 10 purse of Gold<sup>1</sup>; the colour of the dog may declare gif it was send be ane guid spirit or nocht: for the halie spirit discendit vpon Christ in lyklines of ane whyt dow. For this Apostacie this defrokkit frere was maid ane Apostle of this fyft Euangile in Edinbrocht, quhair he being about fourscore yearis of aage, 15 mariet a young las of xv yearis auld; of whais sacriligious mariage sprang out a cursit generation, as the inhabitants, and ane of the cheif ministers of Edinbrocht can beare witnes.

This former heresie is refutit be ane vther passage of S. Paul, 20 1 Cor. vii. ii. quhair he sayes of the separat wyf, aut maneat innupta, aut reconcilietur viro suo: Lat hir ather remaine vnmariet, or then be reconcilit to hir husband. Seing scho may be reconcilit to hir husband without new mariage, as hes beine practisit in Scotland amangis the Caluinists thame selfis, for sindrie of thame hes 25 ressaut thair wyfis again without new mariage (and deare Ihone Durie, Minister of Munros, ressaut his wyf againe as the deuil left hir; efter he had abusit hir lang tyme in ane blak mans habite making him a coulkald). Thairfore the band of mariage was not brokin amangis thame, albeit thay war separat for adul- 30 terie. It is than ane execrable heresie to affirme, as thir Ministers teachis, that the separation of mariet personnes for

Let the people then of Scotland consider how pernicious ar page 442.
 thir Ministers to mens saluation, wha corruptis the Euangile of 5 Christ Iesus, to impugn the veritie of this sacrament ; and wha ar the caus that wha contractis new mariage durand thair parties sayes) sal neuer enter in the kingdome of heauin. As thay contract adulterous Mariage, sa thay engendre ane adulterous generation, 10 whilk the lawes of weil gouernit countries excludis from the temporal heritage of thair parents. Thairfore this heresie baith repugnes to the trew law of God and is preiudiciable to the lawful standing of Noble houses, whilks God blissis throw a lauful generation, and cursis be ane adulterous race. Kings and 15 princes hes also interest to abolis this heresie, that thay may be faithfullie seruet with the lawful ofspring of Noble houses. Be the contraria the croune of Scotland hes experimented within thir few yeares how pernicious is the adulterous race of bastards, to the lauful and peasible regne of natural princes. It is knawin 20 to al Scotland how thir bastard Ministers purposit to erect ane ingrait Bastard in the throne of our kingdome. The blast of Knox trumpet, and his seditious Cronicles can beare witnes to this. And our natural princesse Quene Marie, wha regnis now in gloire, with hir Maiesties mother experimentit the same. God 25 of his guidnes hes preseruit our natural Prince from the rage of that Hideous blast ; whome God preserue from the conspirations of al his enimies, and grant ane lang and prosperous regne in the vnion of Christs halie Catholik kirk, to the honor of God, and his Maiesties auin eternal saluation.

A Cathalogue of a 167

Sig. V. 1. Hæresies, lies, and calumnies teachit and practisit be the Ministers of Caluins sect, erectit in Scotland with in thir 40 yeares, plainlie refutit be the Catholik doctrine of this traictise.
 Be the whilk, wha hes subscriuit the same in the confession of thair negatiue faith for the veritie of religion, may know how 5 thair Ministers hes intysit thame to subscriue a sentence of thair Iust condemnation, whilk they mon incurre gif thay abiure not thir execrable hæresies. And that vthers, wha throw ouergreat simplicitie believes that our Catholik religion and this new Cal-uinisme differs onlie in certain ceremonies, and not in substantial 10 heads of Gods trew seruice, may sie how miserable they ar

 The dangerous opinion, tending to ane damnable atheisme, of some grosse, warldlie, and politiks catholik, estimand na cryme to ing that it makis thame partakers of the table of devils. 352 and 356, 357.

The devil maid the minister a coukald whenne he formit a minister of a forloppin monk. 441. God of his mercie reduce him and vthers, Apostat monkis and freres, to thair coulles, for 20 his trew seruice, to obtene thair saluation in the vnitie of his halie catholik kirk.

<sup>1</sup> The catalogue of heresies which follows in the next eight leaves is, in effect, an index to the contents of the volume arranged in alphabetical order from "Absolution" to "Vnction." The concluding paragraphs and references are apparently added as an afterthought. Then follows a list of twenty-three passages of scripture corrupted by the ministers "in thair Scottis Bible."

Advertisment to the reiders.

I haue proponit to yow, my deir countrey men, thir former heresies and corruptions of the scriptures, that ye may sie what venemous poyson thay souk out of the Ministers breists, wha ressaues thair doctrine for the healthsome fluid of thair saules.
5 Thir seducers transformes thame selfis in the habite of ministers of licht and veritie, and commendis to thame whome thay dissaue, thair Scottis Bible for the pure word of God, whilk thay haue corruptit in the former, and in mony vther hundreth passages, to thair auin iust condemnation, and to thairs, wha 10 approuis, reids, and believes the same, to be the vncorruptit buik, and pure word of God. S. Ihone thunders in the end of his Apocalips, a malediction to al thame wha choppis and chaingis, eikis and paires the halie scriptures; and thretnis that God sal eik al the feirful plagges wrettin in tham, to thair greater 15 condemnation, and sal tak thame out of the buik of lyf, and out of his halie citie. This curs pertenis not onlie to the Ministers wha adulteris the Bible be thair adulterous Scottis translations, bot also to al thame wha approuis the same. Thairfore I beseik yow, dissautit people, to burne your corruptit Scottis Bibles in the 20 fyre, that your saules be not tormentit with the intolerable paines of the fyre of hel. This was the onlie cause why our Catholik Bischops forbad the reiding of the Inglis Bibles, that the cor-ruptions thair of suld not infect thair saules, to thair eternal perdition. God of his mercie remoue thir plagges from yow al, 25 and reduce yow to the vnitie of his trew seruice, for his honor to your saluation, and giue constancie to al trew Catholiks, to perseuere and work thair saluation with feir and dreadeur of his halie name, in the vnitie and obedience of his halie Catholik kirk, whair of onlie Christ is the haid, and thairfore out of the 30 same thair is na veritie of religion that bringis to saluation.<sup>1</sup> . . .

ANE SCHORT CATHOLIK CONFESSION of the heades of the religion now controuerted in Scotland answering against the heretical Negatiue Confession set furth be Ihone Craig in his Catechise.

Breuis et catholica con-

spondetur haereticæ et negativæ confessionī æditæ ab Ioanne Cratio
in sua Catechesj.

We confes with the catholik kirk, out of the whilk thair is na saluation, in general and in particular the hail doctrein allowed be the general concils and keiped be lineal succession from tyme to tyme be our forbearers in al nationes, whair the word of God 5 heth bein trewlye preached ewin til our dayes.

We confes in special with al the antiquitie the authoritie of the bischope or pape of Rome no douting bot he as successor to Piter, who was appoynted be Chryst to be his souerain vicar and ministerial head of the kirk in earthe, hes power to mak 10 lawes upone indifferent thinges for the edificatione of the kirk and outset of the honour of God to whilkes al christien men ar oblesed of thair conscience to rander obedience.

We confes that nocht only the wreatten word is to be receaued as the word of God bot also certaine traditiones whilkes 15 we cal apostolical and uniuersal, becaus they have bein keiped uniuersally throch al the kirk as delyuered be the apostollis to thair scholars and so from hand to hand to al the posteritie. fol. 3 v.

We confes forder certaine particular traditions keiped in certaine kirkes for good ordre and augmentation of deuotion, 20 albeit they be not expresly conteinit in the wreitten word so that they be not repugnant therto.

We confes that albeit man of his awin power and strenthe is not abill to furthfil the commandements and law of God, yat may he furthfil the samin be the grace of God notwithstanding 25 al inhabilitie contracted be original sinne.

We confes that the principal cause of our iustification is the grace and mercie of God whilk is granted unto us throch faythe and good workes as secundu and inferior causes.

We confes sewin sacramentes of the new law not as naiked and feckles singes but as instrumental causes of the graces and giftes of God, promised to us be dew receauing of the same sacraments with sic ceremoneis as hath bein ever used in the kirk sence the apostollis dayes.

fol. 4. We confes that baptisme is necessare not only for those 5 that ar cum to perfect age bot also for infants, so that they cannot be sawed if they depairt without baptisme.

We confes the real presence of the body and blood of Chryst in the sacrament of the altar be transubstantion of the elements, so that whasoewer receaweth the elements after the consecration 10 must receave the body and blood of Chryst albeit the wicked receave it to thair awin condemnation.

We confes that the pope may dispence with simple wowis and certaine degreis of mariage for weachtie causes albeit utherwayes forbiddin. 15

Item that he may absolue from oathis, other raschly maid or yet maid against the honor of God or christian charitie.

We confes that mariage being dissolued throch adulterie, nether of the persones aucht or may marie againe.

We confes the holy sacrifice of the masse to be propitiatoure 20 for the sinnes of the deid and the quick, and reuerenceth the holy ordre of preisthead.

fol. 4 v. We confes the canonization of holy men as it hath bein used in the holy catholik kirk, not doutand bot angels and sanctis depairted out of this wardle may and do pray for us and thairfor 25 auch to be called upon as intercessors.

We confes the lawthful use of Imagerie whilk consisteth in representatione, as testifieth Sanct Gregore, sayand that the Images are the bookes of the onlearned.

We confes the honoring of reliques, croces, dedication of 30 kirkis, altaris, keipping of holy dayes and making of vowes to the sanctis now confirmed in grace, conforme to the practeise of the hail ancient kirk.

We confes purgatorie with prayers for the dead, whilk hath bein used both befor Chryst in the auld testament and sen tyme 35 as testifieth the hail ancient wreittaris.

We confes the intercession of sanctis with processionis, prayer, in strange langages, and in special the litanie muche recommendit be sindry learned and godly men.

We confes not only the sacrament of ordre in general 'bot fol. 5.
5 also al the pairtis of the samin : I meane the four les ordres togidder with the thre uther called in the kirk holy ordres.

We confes sacramental confession, whilk our aduersairs calleth auricular, with the twa uther pairtis of the sacrament of pennance, to wit contrition or repentance and satisfaction for sinnes.

10 We confes ane general and catholik faythe be the whilk we beleif al thinges necessar for our saluation proponed to us be the scriptures without ony assured persuasion other that we ar in the grace of God or yet of final perseuerance in the same.

We confes not only that our workes ar ane secund cause of 15 our iustificatione bot also that they merit, and ar worthie of the eternal lyfe, in so far that they ar done be the assistance of the grace and sprit of god duelling in our harts.

We confes that the sacraments are profitable ex opere operato, that is to say, not of the merites nor of the good lyfe of him that 20 ministreth thame, bot as instruments of the grace whilk is giffen to us be the dew application of thame.

We confes merites and workes of supererogation, that is to fol. 5 v.
say, whilkes ar done be good men of ane zeal to profite thair brethren forther than they ar obleised for satisfaction of thair 25 awin sinnes.

We confes pardones, peregrinationes, stationes, hallowing of watter, bellis and of uther creatures, coniuring of spreites, sayning, anoynting and al uther suche ceremonies as they ar used in the catholik kirk.

30 We confes nor only the popes powar as vicar souveraine under Chryst in spiritual affaires but also his temporal iurisdiction, and the superioritie of the rest of the prelats of the kirk in thair degreis representing the heauinlie hierarchie of the celestial spreits.

35 We confes the thre solemned woves : I meane of pouertie, chastitie, and obedience, that is to say, ane abnegation of our awin wil vich al the sortes of monkes, frearis and preistes who professeth the said woves as they ar allowed be the kirk.

fol. 6. We confes that men after the fal of Adam hath frie will not only to do ewil bot also to do good, being assisted be the grace and spreit of good, whilk appearandly Maister Craig in his negatiue confession durst not deny for offending of the curteoures. Last of al, to be schort, we confes al that the fathers desyrous of the repose and reformation of the kirk, hath concluded in the last general concil haldin at Trent against the seditious heretikes of our dayes, whidder it appertein to the doctrein and trew interpretatione of the scripture or to the discipline, ordre, and maniers of the kirk. 10

Of sacramental confession and satisfaction for sinnes.

de confessione
sacramentali et satisfac-
tione pro pec-catis.

Of the samen fontane do proceed the contempt of sacramental, or, as ye cal it, auricular confessione and satisfacione for sinne. For ewen as be thir two pairtes of penitence euer sence the 15 Apostollis dayes the discipline of the kirk hes bein cheiflie maintained and al sort of wyces and wickednes refrained. So of thinges intendeth altogidder to destroy al discipline of the kirk- and to open ane window to all kynd of vitious lyfe as may be perceaued now in Scotland and al uther places whair ye haue 20 gotten crydet. Ye confes this your selves in the prefatione of our new Byble and experience do confirme that liberalitie, fidelitie, kyndnes and charitie are banished and wretchednes decept onthankfulnes and hatrand etablisched in thair places, so that now it is ane common prouerb in Scotland, gif ony man 25 asketh of ane uther how he doeth, to answer in the new fashione, that is to say, nather trew nor kynd. But now to return to our former discours. . . .

fol. 33 v.

Of the bread, vatter, agnus dei and such uther hallowed thinges used in the Catholik kirk.

Albeit souber and quyet spreites, who lyked to grund them selves upon the assured rok of the kirk then to curiously cal al thinges in question, may in thir pointes as in al uther content them selves with the use and the prattik of the kirk, yit that they
5 inlaik not sufficient argument both to giue reason of their awin beleif and to confute the aduersar, I thocht it necessar to expone the ground of hallowing of creatures in the catholik kirk vith the frutes and effects of the same that it may be onderstand how calumniously the enemies of trewth calleth it superstitione whilk
10 is groundeth in the scripture itselfe. Paulinus bischop of Nolec wretting to S. Augustin and sum uthers maketh mention of blissed or hallowed bread called in greik ευλογιας the which ancient fathers war accustomed to send ane to uther as tokens of ane communion and of charitie, which the christians of those 15 dayes had particularly in commendation, which custome appeareth to haue taken beginning of the exemple of Chryst himself when he blissed the two loaues and fyue fisches and sua multiplied them in such maner that aboue the course of nature, be the effect of the said blissing, they war fund more then sufficient to 20 nourisch 5 thousand persons, outouer the women and children, whilk custome as it is now keiped in sindrie places bot specially in Paris, ilk sonday the hallowed bread is distributed in the kirk to those who ar not disposed to receaue the bodie and bluid of Chryst, as some tyme was prattiked in the kirkis of Scot-25 land. So in the primitiue kirk was it giuen to the Catechumens that is whou ar instructed in the christian religion bot not yit baptised and therfor was not admitted to be partakers of the bodie and blood of Chryst, as testifieth S. Aug. lib. 2 de peccat. merit. et remiss. cap. 26. This custome is so auld that it is de pane, aqua agnis dei et hujusmodi Benedictis

quae in ecclesia cath-olica sunt in usu.

fol. 77 v.

probable that it cummeth from the Apostles, and was soone efter expressly commanded be Pius the pope, whais decret is yit extant to 1. concil. et lib. 5. decretorum Burchardi, as also the forme of the said hallouing in concil. Namnetensi, to. 3., Concil. cap. 3.
 This haloued bread was keiped in reuerence not only because 5 it was ane token of unitie and charitie bot also in respect it was of mearuelouse wertew and efficacitie in healing of sindrie diseases and thrusting out of deuiles, as the ecclesiastical historie recordeth, vide Fortunatum Episc. in vita S. Germani, et opusc.

Gif the cursing or malediction of ane priuat persone and specialy of the parents upon their children vanteth not it effect, as we may sie be ane most horrible exemple recordeth be S.
 Augustin lib. ult. de ciuit. cap. 8., why sal we think that the blissing or hallouing of creatures by ane solemme forme of 15 prayars maid be the preist hawing power of God and halding Godis plaice suld be fectles? verely S. Gregorie, more then fol. 78. 800 yeiris agoe, maketh so often mention of blissed croces, keyes, bandes, cloathes send to sindrie persones from the seate et Rome vith their mearuelous vertewes, that we may 20 easily understand it to haue bein ane most ordinar thing in the kirk keiped from the tyme of Apostles vithout ony interruption, called theirfore benedictiones Petri aut Marci, or of sum holy martir in the primitiue kirk. This ground being layed of hallouing in general of creatures and the wertew thair of 25 to giue reason in particular, albeit in thir maitters it aucht to haue place which sayeth S. Augustin that it is extreame maidnes to doubt upon it which is practised throch out al the kirk or the best pairt thei of. As for exemple seing the hallouing of the tokens called Agnus Dei the keiping and use of the same 30 and fruites thei of is not only allowed be ane kirk or in our tyme, bot throchout all, as aboue aucht hundreth yearis testifiet Alcuinus maistre to Carolus magnus, setting down the hail ordre of making and hallouing of the agnus dei, no man of souber and sound iudgment can iustly disaloue of the same; for Alcuinus wreatteth of them not as ane thing than inuented bot as of ane thing lang used, yea befor Constantin the grypt his dayes as may appeare be the forme and portrait of the Agnus Dei, the worke builded be Constantine yit extant in Rome, as remarket ane learned man Vidmanstadius, in pref. Noui Test. Siriakis charecteribus, Dilingue excusi.<sup>1</sup> As to the faschion of hallowing of the said tokens as also the effectes and uses to the whilkes they ar keiped because they may be easily knawen 10 be the buik of ceremonies of the Roman Kirk. It is not my intention to discourse langar their upon being content to set 15 doune thir few verses . . .

fol. 78 v.

Carmen Gul.
Estii.

Becaus such things ar notoriously knawen to those who ar brocht up in the Catholik kirk only for the escheuing of the 15 calumneis of our aduersars wil I eik thir few wordis that thir tokens and sindrie uther exterior ceremonieis used be the Catholikes serued us both for ane outward protestation as signes and also as instruments be the quhilkes the grace and merites of Iesus Chryst is applyed to us not only of the intention of him 20 that useth them as gif he prayed priuatlie bot also be the vertew of the blissing and communication of the prayers of the kirke which ar used whan such thinges ar hallowed, as for exemple the bearing of the Agnus Dei serued us first for ane protestation that we ar redeimed be the preciose bluid and merites of 25 the immaculat lambe of God wha is the trew mirrour of meiknes, innocencie, obedience and such uther wertewes signified in the scriptures be the lambe. Nixt for ane thankful remembrance and schort meditatione both of the figures of the 30 auld law signifieng be immolating of the pascal lambe the puretie of our dayly sacrifice and the innocencie whilk we receaue in the baptisme being veschin from our sinnes and indeued vith puretie and simplicitie of conscience tanquam agni nouelli, whilk in the auld law was signified be offring of the first frutes as may be knawen be the historie of Abel and Cain. Thridlie the using of

fol. 79.

the Agnus Dei serued us for ane mental prayer be the whilk we desyre to be partakars of the effect of the prayers used be the cheif preist of Gods kirk according to our intencion and faith concurring therwith. Thus much breiflie of the richt use of such thinges I thocht guid heir to speik that euery ane nicht under-stand whow far we ar fra superstition which our aduersars layeth to our charge. Who lyketh to sie more particularlie and amplie the frutes, effectis and miracles of thir tokens aboue mentionated he may reid orat. Molani, de Ag. Dei,<sup>1</sup> and sum uthur deuote tractises of the same mather, for my meaning is fol. 79 v. only to handle such purposes so far as they tuitch our beleife and ar wrangouslie taken be our aduersars to the gryt losse and tinsal of the soules of the sempil and ignorant sorte. As to the 82 canon of the saxt concil haldin in Trullo forbidding to paint Chryst in any uthur forme than in the forme of ane man it appeared as many uthur canons containing gryt errours and calumneis against the kirk of Rome to haue croppen in with the trew canons be the craft of schismatikes and heretikes that followed mony yeiris efter. The use also of the paschal cearge or paisehe-candle whilk the kirk doeth hallow solemnly as also the hallowing of the font and holy vatter may be easily proven be our former ground seing they haue bein used with no les consent and more euident testimonie of the antiquitie.

De meritis bonorum operum.

fol. 90. Thir groundes being laied that not only we haue the wil, bot also the internal and inherent iustification it sal not be hard to declair the mereits of our warkes efter that we be ons iustified and so maid sonnes of God, seing the Scriptures first testifieth that God hath promised reuard of euerlasting lyfe to our good warkes, calling it merces in sindrie places, which cannot be understood without mereit for utherwayes it war not merces, retributio, præmium (which termes the scripture useth) bot donum, and for this cause the scripture ioyned the ane with the uther ecce venio Apoc. xxii.

 of the reuard of good warkes the scripture useth the same maner of phrase as when it speiketh of the reward of euil, giffing us to Mat. xv.
 understand that the word reuard hath the same force and signification in both. It is iust (sayeth S. Paul) before God tribuere 10 tribulationem his qui vos tribulant et vobis qui tribulamini 2 Thess. i. requiem vobiscum. Nixt the scripture giueth us this prerogatiue of mereit to good workes, not only becaus of Gods promeis, bot also becaus they ar accompaigned with his grace, which maketh us his sonnes and members being indewed in ane maner with 15 ane heauinly and supernatural perfection throch the which the Sap. iii. scripture calleth us worthie of God and of his euerlasting gloire 2 Thess. i.

Thridly the reason of the holy Ghost duelling in us and directing our warkes, and therthrow making them worthie euen as ane king

 Of the which we understand this grace of God and direction of 2 Jo. iii. the holy Ghost to be the fontan of our mereits in such sort that Jo. i. whair this grace is not, as in infidels and sinners being in mortal Osea ii.

 30 holy Ghost, as said is of this grace is it said aquam quam ego dabo fiet in eo fons aquæ sitientis in vitam æternam. Of this we collect a grypt difference betwix the rewarding of good warkes and euil. For in the first we use most that kynd of iustice which we cal distributiue, in the which the goodnes of the wark is not so 35 much considered as the dignitie. . . .

The first Part, or Introduction

Philip. 1. Vers. 12 & 23

And I will haue you know, Brethren, that the things about me, are come to the more furtherance of the Ghospell: so that my bandes were made manifest in all the Court, &c.

Permissu Superiorum, Anno M.DC.XXIII.

Right Honorable Reverend, Wise, and Grave Lords
of his Maiesties priuy Counsell of Scotland.

Many & iust are the considerations (Noble, Graue, Wise, and Learned) which haue induced me to dedicate these Works of M. Patrick Anderson to your Lordships. First because one of his Disputes (which was an happy dispute for me, & diuers others) was made before some of your Honours. Secondly because the order & methode which he hath kept in these Works, is every day practised in your session house of Scotland, for in Law-matters you giue place in your session house to the Confession of the party. And truly the parties owne acknowledgment of his offence is a sufficient proof amongst all Nations. Heere your Lordships shall see in like manner how the very Protestants themselves auow, that in the Catholic Roman Church & Religion, Saluation vndoubtedly is to be found. 2. If you make great accompt of faithfull and honest witnesses in prooofe of maters in Law, you shall find likewyse alledged faithfully in the first, second, third, fourth, & insuing Ages the ancient and holy Fathers, euery one in his owne Age and Century giuing ful and cleer testimony for vs Catholiks against the Ministry ; which holy Fathers did not forsee any debats amongst vs ; Nor yet were angry neither at you, nor at vs (sayth S. Augustin) : What they haue found in the Church, that they haue held ; & what they haue receaued from their Forfathers they haue delivered to vs their posterity. 3. If Priority of possession be of any regard (as questionles it is) among you, it is heer plentifully set down, that we Catholiks are first in possession, & that it is but a few yeares since we Catholiks of these three Kingdome were thrust out, by the Ministers, of our former rightfull, and so long continued possession of fifteen hundredth yeares ; and condemned by those who had no power, authority, nor commission to accuse or condemne vs ; not so much as hauing our accusers before vs, nor place to defend us. 4. If Prescription be a matter of great Importance in prooffe amongst you, you shal then heere find our Catholike Religion, for which we now suffer in Scotland, England & Ireland, deduced from the tyme of the Apostles, from Age to Age, to these our very dayes, giuing in further proof 5 that the Protestant and Puritan Ministers, who (against all Law hauing bereft vs of our prescription and possession) haue been condemned in all Ages, by the Church of God then apparent, as manifest Heritiques, in the persons of the Arians, Pelagians, Nouations, Waldenses, Albigenes, &c. 5. If continual clayme be a sufficient 10 way amongst you to preserue right & title, it is more then eident that our Catholike Pastours haue beene euermore waking to preserue our right, and Religion, as the Prophet fortold thus: Vpon thy walles O Hierusalem haue I set watch men all the day & all the night, for ever they shall not be silent. But your Protestant Church hath (to 15 the contrary) been so farre from performing the like, that it hath been inuisible, latent, and vnknowne to the world the space of fifteen hundreth yeares. Gods true Church (sayth M. Napper) most certainly aboad so long latent and inuisible. 6. If when the letter of the law being found in some cases doubtful, ought (conforme to your coustome 20 in Scotland) to be interpreted according to the answverable practise of ensuing tymes; you shall in like maner find heer the doubtfull letter of the Scriptur, and obscure sayings of the Fathers made plaine on our part, by the answerable practise of all succeeding tymes & ages. 7. If the judgment and resolution of most Ancient & wyse 25 Judges and Presidents giuen in former Ages in your Country, be authentical or of credit in your Sessionhouse; heer then you shall see the graue and wholsome Iudgments giuen for vs Catholiks by the most famous, learned and holy Iudges and Presidents of all Kingdoms & Ages for these 1500 yeares, condemning the 30 Puritan, & the Protestant Ministry of manifest Heresy and Errour, in the persons of Aerius, Vigilantius, Nouatus & such other Heretiks. Finally, if the Ministers would free themselues (contrary to all Law) from all these precedent proofes and Iudgments, appealing to the only written Law, & to the expresse word of God (as they 35 do, & must needs do) first it is easie to be seen by the ensuing Treatises; that all the Ministers togeather shall not, or cannot shew, no not one debatable point of their Religion, to be conteyned in the expresse word. 2. They shall not be able to improue any debatable point of our Religion as being against the expresse word. 3. It is 40 shewed that they haue falsified and corrupted the word of God miserably and ignorantly, making it thereby not the word of God, but their owne word, & inuention.

*In his Treatise
vpon the reuelation.*

By al which it appeareth sufficiently, that our Catholike Faith & Religion (for the which, now presently we suffer persecution in Scotland) is that selfesame Religion, and Faith whereunto our Scottish nation was, aboue fourteen hundreth yeares since, confessedly first 5 conuerted : That Religion also, which was then confirmed to vs, and other Nations from heauen with the testimony of vndoubted miracles : That religion which hath founded your ancient Municipall Lawes, Courts of Judgement, erected & builded your most famous churches of Elgene, of Murray, Glasco, Paslay, S. Giles in Edenburgh, Holyrood-10 house, the Chaunry of Rosse, and many others : That Religion finally which hath erected your Bishops Seas, Religious houses, and Abbayes, Colledges, Vniuersities, and many other knowne Royall monuments of Piety, in your most Noble, and ancient Kingdome of Scotland.

To the reading therfore of these insuing Parts & Treatises, I 15 earnestly and humbly exhort your Lordships, euen by the infinit multitude of benefits which God hath bestowed vpon yow, by the pretious Bloud of Christ who hath redeemed vs all by the tender care of your own saluation, and by whatsoever els is sacred and holy ; to the which end I will continue my dayly prayers to God, and 20 remaine alwaies,

Your Lordships most humble Seruant,

[Dedicatory Epistle to the Second Part.]

 Right Vvorthy
 Stvdents

Of the foure famous Vniuerfities of Scotland, S. Andrewes, Glasco, Aberdine, and Edenburgh.

25 ARISTOTLE that famous Philosopher in penning his morall Philosophy thought all his labours wel employed if he could proffit any one therby : how happy then may M. P. Anderson thinke his labours employed, the tyme of his hard and rude imprisonment in Edenburgh spent in Disputes, & Conferences with the ministers, hauing wonne therby sundry to the light of the true Ghospell, to the loue and feare of God, from whence the hope of all Eternity dependeth? And as you are the Fountaines of which many must drinke, the seeds from whence many must proceed, the lightes of the Kingdome, and the Mynes, whose treasure of learning is to be deriued to the whole body 5 of the Kingdome of Scotland: So are there opened unto you in this second Part those veines of gold, conteyned in the expresse Word of God, and in the testimonies of the holy Fathers, and Writers of the first hundreth yeares after Christ, which Testimonies I will intreate you to peruse with an indifferent and single eye, with a great zeale of 10 imbracing Truth from the mouth of Christ, and from those Honorable, Learned, and holy Fathers of the first age, Quorum testimonia sunt omni exceptione maiora.

Truly, if yee would heare none but those, in whose bosomes yee haue been bred, and consequently to be so farre enamoured of your 15 Ministers doctrine, without any ground in the expresse Word of God, or al Antiquity; the more yee should be blamed, that being amongst all Nations held of witty & quicke Judgment, fit for all sort of Sciences, yet yee would willingly, & wittingly preferre the counterfeit drosse of the Ministers, before the true & perfect Mettal of the holy 20 Word, and testimonies of all antiquity. Or can you but imagin, that men of such life and conuersation, as your Ministers be, could find out any holsome doctrine, Quæ tot latuerit Sanctos, tot præterierit sapientes?

Bern. Ep. 190.

S. Augustine remarketh that Faustus Manichæus and the ancient 25 Heretiques of his sect, in their preaching and discourses promised nothing more then Truth, Truth, the word of God, the Scripture, the Bible: yet he found, as he witnesseth no truth amongst them, yea nothing but lies, vanities, and new inuented superstitions.

The same shall you discern in the Ministers of our tyme: for 30 although they bragge, and boast of the pure Word of God, the Bible, the written Word; yet in effect they cannot shew, no not one debatable point of their Religion to be conteyned in the expresse Word of God. 2. They cannot possibly improue any point of the Catholike Religion out of the same expresse Word. 3. They cannot name any 35 Nation vnder the heauens, which auoweth their Scots Bible to be the Word of God. 4. They cannot name any forraine Doctour, or Doctours, who doe free their owne Scots Bible from falsifications, lyes, and errors. Finally, By the word of the law they impugne the law, framing their priuate sense and construction to countenance the 40 peruersity of their myndes, by the authority of the law: making by their peruerse Interpretation, The Ghospell of Christ, the Ghospell of man, or which is worse, the Ghospell of the Diuell.

*Amb. in Ep.

They boast of the pure preaching of the Word of God, yet in effect they haue no Commission, no Authority to preach, no vocation at all, but are Thieues, who enter not by the dore, but climbe another way, to steale, kill, and destroy your soules. They are the false prophets who cry Thus sayth the Lord, when the Lord said it not, nor sent them.

5 They glory to haue reformed the Church of God; whereas you shall easily perceauē how miserable, and deformed Scotland is become by their reformed Religion: and their owne formes and fashions do witnes the same plentifulle, as a famous, yea a Protestant-Writer

10 called Zanchius doth testify thus of them: We Protestants of the reformed Church (sayth he) often of set purpose ouercloud the state of the question with darknes; things which are manifest we impudently deny; things false without shame we avouch; things plainly

15 impious we propose as the first principles of Faith; things orthodoxall we condemne of heresy: Scriptures at our owne pleasure we detorte to our owne dreames; we boast of Fathers when we will follow nothing lesse then their doctrine; to deceaue, to calumniate, to raile is familiar with vs &c.

Ep. ad Ioan. Sturmi.

O yee flourishing Academians, O Scotland my dearest Countrey,

20 consider wisely, & in the presence of God, I beseech thee, how thou hast damned vp the passage, by which the cleere waters of al antiquity should flow vnto thy kingdome, and thou hast opened the sluse to the Puddels of the Ministers new doctrine, new fayned Sacraments, new Articles of faith, new Bible, and Scripture vnknowne as

25 yet to all other Kingdoms, and Nations: Consider, I say, how God therefore hath punished thee, yea now of late with extraordinary Indigency; and abandon these new, and vnwonted doctrines, and imbrace againe that ancient Faith which once thy Noble, Ancient, and Princly Kingdome, Daughter of God, deuoutly sucked from the 30 breasts of the Apostles, which all thy former Kings, and Princes, from King Donald the first, vntil Blessed Queen Mary, constantly professed, thy Lawes established, thy People honoured, thy Vniuersities defended. To this end I will not cease to sacrifice vnto God my continuall prayers, and rest alwaies,

Your most humble Seruant.

[Dedicatory Epistle to the Third Part.]

To the Most Honorable and Constant Catholikes
in Scotland.

WHO doth not see (most dearly Beloued, Worthy and Constant CATHOLIKES) but that this third Part, or Treatise of my Works, doth chiefly, and principally belonge to you that are Catholiks in Scotland, as hauing receaued the Catholike Religion vniuersally in your Country in the second Age, (or at least in the very beginning of the third Age) in the person of King Donald your first Christian King, and his Nobility, you being most worthy children of so renowned Parents, most honourable Of-spring of so excellent ancestours, most glorious posterity of so famous antiquity, whome future ages will iustly esteeme and extoll aboue many of your predecessours for retaining that in tyme of war which they left to you in tyme of peace, and for defending that by singular constancy in your sufferings, which they both receiued, & left you by quiet Tradition. 5 10

Which Tradition, or Catholike religion being proued and declared most cleerly in this second age or century ; I doe by offering the same vnto you, but present the history of your own Kings of Scotland, the records and chronicles of your owne families, the pedigree & Genealogy of your owne Forefathers, the antiquity & Nobility of your own progenitors, together with your iust Title and Clayme to their Inheritance, producing jointly for the same the word of God, the Scripture, the Bible, the testimonies of the holy Fathers of this age, yea, the very monuments of your owne Kingdome, which no man but foolish, can deny or call in doubt. 15 20

True it is, that by God's holy prouidence you are borne in this time of warre, tribulation and contradiction, instead of that large peace and tranquillity which your ancestours enioyed, in the vse and exercise of that religion, for which you striue and suffer now presently in SCOTLAND ; which sufferings of yours though for the present they 25

seem vnpleasant & distastfull to flesh & bloud, yet assuredly will the 1000 houre come when it shall proue a most singular benefit, an eternall blisse, glory & honour in your behalfe ; by reason that, You are 1 Thess. 1. become such followers of Christ, and his Apostles, as receyuing the 5 word of God with ioy of the holy Ghost in great tribulation, you are made an example or spectacle to all other faythfull people in Macedonia and Achaia, by grace of your sayth, which is published euery where throughout the world.

You are of the blessed number of those to whome as the Apostle 10 sayth, it is granted not only to belieue in God, but also to suffer for Philipp. 1.
God. Yea, I may say, to my great comfort and consolation, of you as he sayd and gloryed of himselfe, and his fellowes : Vincula vestra manifesta fiunt in Christo in omni Prætorio : Your bands & suffer-15 ings for Christ are made notorious throughout all the tribunall seats of Scotland, which God hath visited now of late extraordinarily, by reason of the extraordinary and barbarous proceeding of your enemyes in your behalfe (Et inimici vestri sunt Iudices) as your very enemyes witness the same.

Your Countrey of Scotland hath been exceeding famous and re-20 nowned in forraine nations, by reason of antiquity & constancy of the Catholike religion, without any interruption, the space of fourteene hundred yeares, without any marke of heresey or schisme, as (besides many others history - writers) a famous forrayne writer witnesseth saying thus : Nulla gens è Borealis tamdiu perstitit in unanimi Bozius, lib. 8 25 Religionis unius consensu, ut Scotia ; and by reason of this constancy de sig. Eccles.
 in religion, Scotland was alwayes free from the yoake and dominion of forraine Kings, saith the same writer : Nulla gens cujus res vel græcis vel latinis scriptis illustratæ, tanto tempore indigenas habuit reges, ut Scotia. Your countrey was in such manner ennobled with 30 many holy, learned & famous Bishops, who by reason of their great zeale & charity did preach the Catholike & Roman religion in diuers forraine Nations, specially in Germany, where they were preferred to Ecclesiasticall and politicall dignity by Charles the great, and Emperour, before other nations, by reason of their Holinesse, Vertue, 35 and Fidelity sayth Paulus Æmilius : Honores magistratusque alieni- genis, & imprimis Scotis, mandabat, quorum egregia fide virtuteque utebatur. Your Countrey is in like manner renowned for the great number of holy Catholike Kings, Queenes, and Royall Posterity, famous to this day in diuers Kingdomes of Europe, who all now 40 glorious in heauen receaue a particular consolation by your integrity, and constancy in the selfe same Catholike religion, which many of them sealed with their bloud, praying for your perseuerance in that most honourable course & profession.

Which offering of prayers for you, though it be common to all the Saints in heauen, yet particularly that B. Queene and Martyr Q. MARY, our Princes most gracious & holy Grand-mother, doth offer vp her prayers for your perseuerance in the Catholike religion, as hauing experimented during her mortall life your fidelity in her 5 Seruice, against the calumnies, sedition & rebellion of the Ministers, of whome his Maiesty iustly saith; Me persecuti sunt à iuuentute mea.

And as it is a great honour & glory to you to haue had so many Blessed and holy Kings and Queenes, as professours of your owne 10 religion, so it is a great honor & comfort vnto you to haue had, aboue other Christian Kingdoms, the religion for which you do suffer, confirmed & sealed, after fourteen hundred yeares continuance in Scotland, with the holy bloud of a B. Queene; of whom besides others, a forrayne Author saith thus: Christus hoc, magnum laudabilissi- 15 mumque bonum septentrioni dedit, vt Scotia haberet martyrem Regi- nam, Regis filiam, coniugem & Matrem. Whose holy prayers will be the more effectuell in your behalfe, that be constant in that religion, which she confirmed by the admirable constancy of twenty years Imprisonment, and sealed with her Royal bloud. To the which 20 end I will offer vp likewise my poore prayers to God the Father, as being,

All your most humble Seruant,

To the Right Reverend and Honorabile Lord,
F. William Ogilbie, Abbot of the ancient Scottish Closter at Wirtsburch : & Administrator of the famous Abbacie of Swartzach, wisheth happy regiment, & al prosperitie.

HAUING often bewailed (Right Reu. and hon. Lord) the lamentable estate of our country & countrymen ouerlaid with this miserable haruest of heretical corruption, wherof the vnhalloved fruits hath impoisoned the harts of innumerable persons, to the vnrecoverable
 5 shipwrack & losse of their souls ; And considering also that there be a great many of them, who haue no other warrant of their naked faith & ragged Religion, nor the wavering word of a mere machiauelian minister, & only for want of instruction in the contrare, & for lacke of right information of the truth of our catholik doctrine, doe
 10 hovsoeuer assent to their new start-vp caluinian gospel ; And finally seing not long agoe some traueiling Scotsmen haue bene here beside vs, who perceiuing in thir parts the daily decaying of Caluinists, & continual increasing of catholiks (among whom now they see al things to be farre otherwise as their gossiping gospellers had taught 15 them) doe crave earnestly to be instructed in the grounds of our Religion, & to be receiued in the bosome of our holy mother the romane & catholik church.

Hereof it is, that vpon thir occasions for the honour of Almighty God & his true church, & for the natural obligation & duety which 20 euery one oweth to his country & countrymen, I haue bene induced to compile this smal treatise, conteaning a true information both of the falshood of this our late Scottish-caluinian gospel & synagogue ; & of the truth of the old romane & catholik faith, no lesse commodious then necessare for the vnlearned & meaner sort of both protestants

Now therfore forsomuch as this my smal enterprise thus rudely accomplished, hath need of such a zealous promotor & protector as your lordships self, (who for your manifold giftes & vertuous exploits, yea & your great dexteritie in discharging your office both in the effaires of this Abbacie, & in sindry imploiments & weaghtie maters belonging to the prince & whole nobilitie of Franconie, hath deserued to be chosen as most worthy of al the Prelates in the diocesse to be made Lord & Administrator of that noble & potent Abbacie of Swartzach, not without the immortal honour of al our Scottish Abbacies here in Germanie, & of our whole nation elsewhere) I haue presumed to present the same vnto your L. as a badge of my duetiful love & due obedience, ye & as a token of my iust congratulation & reioycing with your L. for your new honours & promotion ; intreating your L. most humbly, that yee wil vouchsafe gratiously to let it creepe forth vnder the shadow & safe conduct of your L. favour & protection ; to the end that both I and your L. sonnes & clients may be the better encouraged to make the like or greater attempts herefter, for the common good & honour of our country & Religion. And so with my right humble duety, & daily prayers for your L. health, & happy regiment I rest at Wirtsburgh, vpon S. Mungoes day the 13. of Januar, 1628.

Chap. VII.

Of the fruits of Knox his euangel, the douncasting of Churches.

page 22. After that this our politician apostle & apostate Knox had withdrawne the harts of the people craftily from the Catholik faith, by his smoothe language & plausible preaching (wherein he always traduced the Catholiks by his venomous vntruths & calumnies) & as a most pernicious parasite & faithles flatterer had applied his whole gospellizing & preaching to please the humors & fancies of some noblemen his adherents & patrones, (who gaping at the church-rents, & looking more to their priuate commoditie nor to any Religion, were easily persuaded, not so much for his reasons, as for to satisfie their auarice & licentious liberty, for the which they were ready to lay aside both right & wrong). At lenth he began to blaw his blasphemous trumpet against the Venerable Sacrament, & the ornaments

 5 of the house of the lord, yea & prouoked the furious people by his own sacriligious example to the spoiling & doun-casting of churches, ouerthrowing of Altars & organs, breaking of Images, chalices, chandlers, basines, lawers, & what someuer was made of gold or siluer apperteaining to the vse of the Altare & sacrifice of the Masse ;
 10 which he & his comrads turned al to profane & vnhalloed vses, coining money of the siluer vessels, making garments and gounes to their wives and bairnes of the masse-cloathes & other pretious paraments ordained for the Altar. And yet notwithstanding of al this his sacriligious robbing & spoiling, he not only caused these braue 15 churches to be set in fire, bot also perswaded the furious people to take fore-hammers & such like instruments to the breaking doune of the very walls & pillers them selues, which the fire had not consumed whereunto those furious wretches & sedicious seruands of Sathan were so willing & ready, that scarcely left they the chore or 20 queere safe to be a Synagogue for their vnhalloed & new fetched-ouer gospel.

And that the universal world might know their unspeakable hatred & rage against the Catholik church & religion, they at the first made stables in Halyrudhous, which was renouned not only for holynes &
 25 deuotion wont to be therin, bot also for that it was the Burial-place of our Kings & their royal children, which surely suld make al trueharted countrymen the more to abhorre their abominable & barbarous beastlines, yea & their more then Turkish ingratitude towards their natie Princes & Souerains, who sturred not to let horses dung 30 on their moales, without any regard to God or their Kings.

And truely, among al their deeds & deuises, the casting doune of the churches was the most foolish & furious work, the most shreud & execrable turne that euer Hornok himself culd have done or deuised. For out of al doubt, that great grandfather of Caluine & old enimie of 35 mankind, not only inspired euery one of those sacriligious hellshounds with his flaming sprit of malice & blasphemie as he did their forefathers Luther & Caluine : bot also was there present as maister-of-worke bussily beholding his seruands & hirelings working his wil, & bringing to passe his long desired contentment.

40 Bot ah, deare countrymen, was it not a lamentable thing, that one apostat priest becoming a Caluinian incestuous minister, suld haue had such authority & power, as to haue spoild & cast doune moe gorgeous & braue churches in one Yeere, nor al the ministers of Scotland with the whole nobilitie & commons, culd since that time be able to repare, let be to build of new agane the like. And surely as al true Christians lamented that black reformation, & greeued to hear tel of the ruine & utter destruction of so many ancient & faire churches, colledges, closters & hospitals, built & erected of old by 5 godly princes, Bishops & Barones of worthy remembrance, for the honour of God, the inlarging of his church, & support of the poore. Euin so the Inglish & Germane protestants with other politicians & atheists, were much discontented at their folly & madnes; who gaue such reuerence to the house of the Lord, & decorements therof, 10 that they nether destroyed the churches, nor did they abolish the altars, organes, or Images of Christ, & other ornaments consecrated to the honour & worship of God! Bot our foolish & furious countrymen through the instigation & stirring of that sacriligious serpent & venomous viper Ihon Knox, following the sprit of errour, did far 15 otherwise. And therfor, as the apostle sayeth, God gaue them ouer to the desires of their owne harts: & suffered them to doe things ful of ignominie & shame. For they changed the churches (which God himself called his house of praier) into filthie & abominable houses of 20 sensual men, yea & of unreasonable beasts: when as they made stables in Halyrudhous, sheep-houses of S. Antone & S. Leonards chappels, tolbooths of S. Gillis, &c. which this day may be seene to the great greefe & sorrow of al good Christians, to the shame & confusion of Edinburg, & to the euerlasting damnation of the doers therof, the sedicious ministers Knox & his complices. 25

Chap. VIII.

Of the lamentable profanation of S. Giles, &c.
& of the woful obduration of our Country-protestants.

page 25. Seing the consideration of the foresaids, & beholding of the present lamentable forme and case of many ancient & braue churches in Scotland, now al either vtterly destroied, or filthily abused & dismembred, may iustly moue al good Christians to abhorre both the ministers & their damnable doctrine, which hath brought forth so 30 noisome & harmful effects: I thought it not inconuenient to speake a litle more (at the least) of the churches of the Abbaie of Abbirbroth & S. Giles in Edinburg; passing by (for breuities sake) the miserable desolation & profanation of these of the Abbacy of Paislei, Elgin of Morray, the black freers in Glasgow, Halyrudhous in the Canon-gate, &c.

And first, as to that of Abbirbroth, surely when before a certane 5 year I had first seene it, & had stayed a while before the great dore therof, gazing sadly upon the deplorable state of the defaced & staggering steeple, the battered wals, broken doune pillars & the floore al ouergrowne with grasse & defiled with filth & excrements of unreasonable beasts, & iudging of such faire steads & ruines that 10 it hath once bene a most royal, braue & gorgious church, I could not bot sigh & bewaile it; yea & somuch the more lament the present estate of it, that in the year of God 1193, S. William that iust, holy & religious king built and planted it with Religiouse men of my oune profession, viz. of the Order and familie of S. Benedict or S. Bennet;
 15 who most laudably & honorably did euer inhabite & rule it, until the heretical furie of Knox, Meffane, & the rest of these first startup apostats and runnagats redacted it to such desolation & ruines, as may be seene this day to the whole world. Which (I say) as I had deeply considered, incontinent I remembered the words of Isay, &
 20 sayd with my self; O how iustly may we now compleine & say with the Prophet: O God, the house of our sanctification & glorie where our fathers did prayse & worship the, is made fewel & burnt, & al our things worthie to be wished ar turned to ruines, &c. Esa. 64, 11.

Bot leauing it thus wasted & deplored I wil turne me & take a view 25 of S. Giles; wherein I see clearly fulfilled the prophecie of Daniel saying: And there sal be in the temple or Church abomination of desolation or abominable desolation, &c. Which that we may the more easily conceiue, let us consider this example, & suppose: If our Sauour Christ when he came into the temple of Jerusalem, did cast 30 out al these who were buying and selling in it, and so heauily complained against them, that he sayd: It is written, my house sal be called a house of prayer, bot yee haue made it a den of theeues, how I pray you wold he say, if he were now entring in at S. Giles, and looking to bare wals and pillars al cled with dust, sweepings and
 35 cobwebs, in steed of painting and tapestrie: and on euery side beholding the restlesse resorting of people treating of their worldly effaires; some writing & making obligations, contracts & discharges: others laying countes or telling-ouer sowmes of money: & two & two walking and talking to & fro, some about merchandice or the 40 lawes, & too many allas about drinking and courting of woemen, yea & perhaps about worse nor I can imagine; as is wont to be done al the day long in the common Exchanges of London and Amsterdam & other great cities; and turning him farther towards the west end of the Church, which is deuided in a high house for the Colledge of Justice, called the Session or Senathouse, and a low house, called the low Tolbooth, where the Bailiues of the toune use to sit, and iudge common actions and pleas in the one end therof, & a number of harlots and scolds for flyting and whoredome inclosed in the other ; 5 And there I meane, if your Sauour were present to behold such abominable desolation, that where altars were erected, & sacrifices with continual praises and praiers were wont to be offered up to the Lord, in remembrance of that bloody sacrifice of Christ on the crosse, there now ar holes for whores, and cages for scolds ; where nothing 10 is heard bot banning & swearing, & euery one vpbraiding another : O what greeue and sorrow wold our Lord tak at the beholding of such profanation and sacriledge? how heavily wold he complaine, that they have made his house not only a denne of theeves, bot a dungeon of deuils ; and wold weep upon Edinburgh, as he did on 15 Jerusalem, saying : O Jerusalem, if thou knewest also these things which apperteane to thy peace, euin in this thy day : bot now these things ar hidden from the ! as if he had sayd or now wold say : If thou knewest O Edinburg, as I doe, what mercy is offered the, euin this same day, thou woldst not doe as thou doest, bot woldst 20 presently accept therof : Bot now this secrete iudgment of my father which abideth the, is hidden from the, & therefore thou makes little account thereof, until thy destruction sal come sodanely upon the.

And surely, as the destruction foretold by Christ came soone therefter upon the toune of Jerusalem : Euin so it is to be feared, 25 that the abominable profaning of God's house, stiffnes in heresie, & contempt of the Catholik Religion (the only true worship of God) bring upon Edinburgh, sodaine reueange, & destruction ; seing not a few of lesse scourges (as sometime befell to Jerusalem) haue already ouertaken them, which foretell a greater vengeance to 30 follow, except they repent & turne unto God whil they haue time.

Chap. IX.

Of a farther declaration of the pestilent fruits, & noisome effects of this our Caluinian gospel.

page 36. . . . Moreouer, what tounge is able to expresse the vnspeikable hatred & crueltie, which those giddy braynd gospellers & apostats vsed against their owne natieue & lawful Souerane, that most sacred & renowned Princesse Queene Marie king James his most godly & religious mother of euerlasting remembrance? Whill as by their deuillish doctrine & calumnies they prouoked her owne subiects both 5 the nobilitie & Commons to rebell against her in such a peruerse & malicious maner, that without any regard to God or their Soueraine, or to the lamentable shedding of innocent blood, they neuer ceased to vexe & pursewe her roial person, by their railing & shlanderous tongues, by their venemous writing of infamous lybels & pasquils, bot 10 chiefly by the sword of rebellious runnagats their adherents & followers vntil they brought her maiestie to such distresse & extremitie, that to eschew their Caluinian clemencie, that is, their cruel & continual tirannie (wherof her maiestie had found often experience before) she was forced to flee from one place to another, & at lenth to¹ tak 15 her refuge to her disloyal Aunt Queene Elizabeth of England.

And howsoever vpon mere malice & heretical hatred they spread abroad & falsly alleadged some infamous pretences & quarrels, wherby they might the more easely bring her in disdane & contempt beside forreine Princes and countries: Yet in effect, there was no 20 other true cause of their so great persecution & cruelty towards her, then only for that they perceiued, that they culd neuer be able to peruert & alter her constancie in the ancient and catholik faith; & consequently during her lyfe time & reigne they suld neuer be sure & secure to promoue & establish their im poisoned doctrine; neither 25 culd they peaceably brooke & inioy the rents of the church, wherwith already they had intrometted most sacrilegiously. And therfore they laboured euer to traduce and betray her to her greatest enimie Queene Elizabeth, who being head of their Caluinian Synagogue, & defender of their faithlesse faith, contrare to her promise of aid & safeguard, 30 made to her legats & messingers, and contrare the custome of al Christian Princes: Yea, & against the very law of the gentils (which no Turks nor Paganes vse to break) she caused her be kept in custodie at her first entry in England. Wher hauing about 19 yeers susteained hard imprisonment, and² finally cruel death & martyrdome 35 for her constant profession of that first, ancient, apostolik & catholik faith, hath thereby left a glorious & immortal president to al her after-comers who clayme temporal right from succession of her blood, to make the like, or greater account of that right which cometh by succession to her in faith: for which she with heroical fortitude 40 neglected her blood, her liberte, crownes, & whatsoever is most deer to princes in this world; and for which neglect her name is more honorable before God & his angels, her memorie more famous among

Christians of this age, & so wil be to al posterity, then if with refusal of that faith that is, with refusal of Christ & eternal blisse, she had gayned as many temporal crounes & realmes as they haue liued days & hours, who were occasioners of that so wonderful & strange execution.

An aduertisment to the Reader.

page 226. Forsomuch as the Printer in the beginning of this Treatise (for lacke sindry letters, which do mor oft occurre in our language nor in the latin) behoved oftimes to put thir two seuerall letters (vu) in steed of the letter (w) vntil he procured moe of this sort out of Franckfurt, I thought good to intreat the gentle Reader whosoever, to consider all 10 this & other faultes escaped by the print to virtuous interpretation, considering how hard it is to set furth and print our language in a strange country without some smal errors; Beseeching all good Catholiks to esteeme of my meaning & not the letter, & to pray for me, as I sall not cease to pray daily for them, & for the wished & 15 happy conuersion of our poore country, to the end we may be all partakers of that heuinly kingdome, where God the ✠ Father, God the ✠ Sonne, & God the ✠ holy ghost is glorified, where the Blessed Virgin Marie is crowned, where angels, Saints and Martyrs reioyce at our conuersion & repentance, Amen. 20
